PUSHFOR COMMENTS ON STATEMENTS FROM GERMAN FINANCIAL REGULATOR

Delta, B.C. – February 26, 2019 – Pushfor Investments Inc. (“Pushfor” or the “Company”) (CSE: PUSH) (FFT: 713) wishes to comment on statements from the German Financial Regulator and recent market activity.

Yesterday, February 25, 2019, the Federal Financial Supervisory Authority (Bundesanstalt für Finanzdienstleistungsaufsicht - BaFin) issued a notice warning of buy recommendations on Pushfor’s stock. The notice stated that, according to information available to BaFin, Pushfor’s shares are currently being intensively recommended as a buy by certain stock market letters. The notice further advised all investors to review the information contained in the purchase recommendations by other sources very closely and provided other comments.

The Company has not approved any marketing with buy recommendations on the Company, nor was it aware of any such stock market letters until it was informed by IIROC recently of the concerns of BaFin.

The only market awareness that the Company has engaged in German-speaking countries is with GCR Global Capital Research, GmbH, which was announced by press release on October 23, 2018. GCR Global Capital Research, GmbH, confirms that it did not send the stock market letters referred to in the BaFin notice.

The Company is unaware of any material information that could cause any upward or downward pressure on the stock.
