Assumptions relating to the foregoing involve judgments with respect to, among other things, future economic, competitive and market conditions and future business decisions, all of which are difficult or impossible to predict accurately and while many of which underlying the forward-looking statements are reasonable, any of the assumptions could prove inaccurate. SUMMARY OF QUARTERLY RESULTS

The Company does not expect its revenue or net operating result subject to seasonality. As one of the Company’s main activities is investment in marketable securities, the Company does expect the quarterly operating results fluctuate with the market values of the marketable securities held in hands. The table below sets out the recent eight quarterly information of the Company:

	Q4 2018	Q3 2018	Q2 2018	Q1 2018	Q4 2017	Q3 2017	Q2 2017	Q1 2017
Revenue	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Net income (loss)	(2,765,186)	(695,814)	88,720	881,296	195,459	(909,956)	1,045,956	(104,662)
Earnings (loss) per share	(0.02)	(0.01)	0.00	0.03	0.00	(0.01)	0.02	0.00

Readers should be cautioned that the gain/loss from investment in marketable securities would fluctuate from time to time depends on the market price of the underlying marketable securities, which is unpredictable in nature.

During the year ended September 30, 2018, the Company had net loss of $2,490,984, compared to net income of $226,179 in 2017. There are three main factors for the higher net loss in 2018:

- Loss on sale of assets of $1,517,013 in 2018 compared to $nil in 2017;
- Accretion of $555,131 in 2018 compared to $nil in 2017;
- Interests expenses of $2,453 compared to $nil in 2017.

For the year ended September 30, 2018, the Company also had larger operating expenses ($229,317) than the same period in 2017 ($87,920). As at September 30, 2018, the Company had working capital of $1,131,457 (September 30, 2017 - $3,729,792). The Company is not subject to external working capital requirements.

Management believes the current liquidity on hand will be adequate to finance the Company's operations in the next twelve months. However, management also realizes that the capital on hand may not be adequate for the Company to achieve its long-term business objectives as the development of real estate properties takes years to finish before these properties can generate positive operating cash flow. The Company intends to finance the Company's operations by additional related party financing and/or equity financing.

While the Company was able to raise financing when needed in the past, there is no guarantee that the Company can do so in the future.

Fair Value

The fair values of the Company's financial assets and liabilities approximate the carrying amounts either due to their short-term nature or because the interest rate applied to measure their carrying amount approximate current market rates.

Financial instruments measured at fair value are classified into one of three levels in the fair value hierarchy according to the relative reliability of the inputs used to estimate the fair values. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are:

- Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 - Inputs that are not based on observable market data.

Investments consist of common shares and share purchase warrants of Canadian public companies. The fair value measurement of the common shares is classified as Level 1. The fair value measure of the share purchase warrants is classified as Level 3 as the fair value estimate incorporates expected future volatility which is not based on observable market data.

RISK FACTORS

Equity Investment Risks

An investment in the common shares of the Issuer should be considered highly speculative, not only due to the Issuer’s limited business history but also due to the consideration that equity investments are always subject to varying degrees of risk. These risks may include changes in general economic conditions such as the availability and cost of financing capital; changes in local conditions, such as employment, changes to tax laws, and changes to incentive programs related to the areas in which the Issuer intends to invest. In addition, financial difficulties of other equity investors result in distress sales, which may depress the stocks in which the Company operates.

Dilution to the Existing Shareholders

The Company is very likely to issue its common stock to raise for additional capital. The issuance of additional equity securities by the Company could result in a significant dilution in the equity interests of existing shareholders.

Reliance on Management’s Expertise

The Company strongly depends on the business acumen and investing expertise of its management team and there is little possibility that this dependence will decrease in the near term. The loss of the services of any member of such team could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer. The Company does not have any key person insurance in place for management.

Conflicts of Interests

Certain of the directors of the Company also serve as directors and/or officers of other companies involved in real estate development or management. Consequently, there exists the possibility for such directors to be in a position of conflict. Any decision made by such directors involving the Company will be made in accordance with their duties and obligations to deal fairly and in good faith with the Company and such other companies. In addition, such directors will declare and refrain from voting on any matter in which such directors may have a conflict of interest.

FINANCIAL AND DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Venture issuers are not required to include representations relating to the establishment and maintenance of disclosure controls and procedures (“DC&P”) and internal control over financial reporting (“ICFR”), as defined in National Instrument 52-109 Certification of Disclosure in Issuer’s Annual and Interim Filings (“NI-52-109”). In particular, the Company’s certifying officers are not making any representations relating to the establishment and maintenance of:

- i) Controls and other procedures designed to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by the Company in its annual filings, interim filings or other reports filed or submitted under securities legislation is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in securities legislation; and
- ii) A process to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with the Company’s generally accepted accounting principles.

The Company’s certifying officers are responsible for ensuring that processes are in place to provide them with sufficient knowledge to support the representations they make. Investors should be aware that inherent limitations on the ability of the Company’s certifying officers to design and implement on a cost effect basis DC&P and ICFR as defined in NI 52-109 may result in additional risks to the quality, reliability, transparency and timeliness of interim and annual filings and other reports provided under securities legislation.
