

Oasis Client Gourmet NFT to Adopt New Technology to Automatically Generate NFTs as purchased

Recipes from famous restaurants, award-winning culinary talents, and chef's kitchen recipes available as digital collectibles online and in-restaurants and other facilities.

Toronto, Canada / Los Angeles, California / Houston, Texas – November 24, 2021 - Oasis Digital Studios Limited (“Oasis”), a wholly owned subsidiary of Liquid Avatar Technologies Inc. (CSE: LQID / OTCQB:LQAVF / FRA:4T51), a global blockchain, digital identity and fintech solutions company, is providing an update to its announcement on October 19, 2021 regarding the launch of Gourmet NFT, a new platform that will create NFTs (Non-Fungible Tokens) and other digital collectibles for restaurant, tournament, secret and chefs’ own kitchen recipes. Gourmet NFT will enable foodies, fans and those that just want to be better and more diverse cooks to collect, organize and own legendary recipes. As part of the founding group and exclusive agency for this program, earning up to 35% from each sale, Oasis is aiding in the development of new technology to enable recipe holders to use their NFTs as “keys” to unlock web features for easy access to online videos, recipes and exclusive information and tips. NFTs can be resold, allowing new holders to have access to the online content.

With the recent launch of Oasis’ client Aftermath Islands and its success and upcoming new technology positioned to create autogenerated NFTs from virtual land sales, Gourmet NFT has elected to adopt this new technology, and has pushed back its launch until early 2022 as it continues to grow its roster of Chefs, doubling from 15 countries in October to over 30 presently. This process also allows patrons to buy digital recipes directly from a menu or “real world” locations directly from a displayed QR codes.

“This new technology, developed primarily for Aftermath Islands by our partners at Masscult using their Waxify App, will enable recipes to be easily delivered on the fly as they are purchased,” said David Lucatch, CEO of Liquid Avatar Technologies, and Managing Director of Oasis Digital Studios. “In discussing this new opportunity for Gourmet NFT, we all believed that this would be a significant benefit and worth the short wait. This also gives us a potential opportunity to use PayPal and Coinbase, repeating the current success that Oasis is having with Aftermath Islands.”

With over 600 recipes already submitted, Gourmet NFT advises that it is expected to start testing this quarter with the new technology. Gourmet NFT is among the first professional platforms to empower the culinary industry to create residual value from their famous and unpublished recipes. Gourmet NFT has amassed almost 500 leading restaurateurs, executive, private, celebrity and award-winning Chefs whose accolades include James Beard nominations and awards; Michelin Star recognition; A5 Wagyu Certification; UK’s prestigious AAA 3 Rosette awards; Food Network, Discovery Channel and Fox TV featured Chefs as well as Instagram / social media sensations. Gourmet NFT enables these culinary experts to share their family, secret and restaurant favorites directly on the upcoming sales pages or through active QR codes that can be scanned at their website and / or restaurant for easy purchase.

According to Foodnetwork.com and their article The Biggest Food Trends We'll Be Talking About in 2021, 2020 saw online grocery sales increasing by 53% and foresees the growth in online grocery sales continuing as the pandemic disrupted the way people cook and eat. With millions of North Americans spending more time at home, cooking everything from cookies to family meals has increased and many people are venturing to expand their culinary expertise. Users will be able to search the site by mealtime, allergen, food ingredients and a whole host of meta tags to hone in on the recipes they wish to download and collect in their wallet. Meanwhile Chefs and culinary creators will have a way to augment their income with residual royalties from their digital downloads.

Recipes will range in price allowing everyone who is interested in expanding their food knowledge and culinary repertoire to collect Gourmet NFT recipes. There will also be a higher price range for the true “unobtainium” type of recipes that fall into off-menu or “secret sauce” categories. In addition, a select few Chefs will be offering a one-off experiential NFT opportunity ranging from dinner with the Chef in person, to skip-the-line / golden ticket offerings for those impossible to get into restaurants.

“Having grown up in a music-business family, it has always frustrated me that Chefs and recipe creators don’t get treated like rock stars. With Gourmet NFT we take their creations from the butcher block to the blockchain and provide them with an iTunes®-type platform to sell their downloads and earn residuals when the recipes change hands” said Ruth McCartney CEO and Digital Diva of McCartney Multimedia.

“The road to publishing a cookbook is paved with good intentions, however schedules get in the way. But with Gourmet NFT, Chefs can upload one recipe, one image, one video at a time as they are already creating a short form variant of the content for social media and over time, they will have amassed what amounts to a digital cookbook.” added Chef Skinner, proprietor of Houston’s eculent restaurant, which has a three-year waiting list.
