

NuRAN Wireless Inc. Corporate Update

Quebec, QC, Canada, October 30th, 2017 – NuRAN Wireless Inc. (CSE: NUR) (OTC: NRRWF) is pleased to announce that Martin Bedard will assume alone the role of President and CEO.

Mr. Patrice Rainville has stepped down from his position of Co-President and Co-CEO of NuRAN Wireless Inc. Mr. Rainville will remain a Director of the Company.

“I wish to personally thank Mr. Patrice Rainville for his outstanding contribution to the growth and development of NuRAN Wireless Inc. Mr. Rainville cofounded NuRAN Wireless. He was Co-CEO and Co-President since 2011 and has helped to steer the company through its transformation from a solely engineering-focused company in wireless to a company also dedicated to bring connectivity to anyone anywhere. Mr Rainville remains an important shareholder and I personally wish him the best of success in his future endeavours and look forward to continue working with him as a Director of the Company” states Martin Bedard, President and CEO of NuRAN Wireless Inc.

“I leave my duties with a sense of accomplishment and give Martin all the necessary leeway to continue the plans we put in place almost five years ago. I am confident that our vision to bring connectivity at a very low cost to all the remote areas of the world will succeed” states co-founder Patrice Rainville.

About NuRAN Wireless

NuRAN Wireless, with its wholly owned subsidiary Nutaq Innovation, is a leading supplier of mobile and broadband wireless solutions. Its innovative GSM, LTE, and White Space radio access network (RAN) and backhaul products dramatically drop the total cost of ownership, thereby creating new opportunities for mobile network operators and internet service providers.

The company provides a variety of specialist systems for indoor coverage, rural and urban connectivity in emerging markets, connectivity to offshore platforms and ships, and for emergency and crisis communications.

Forward Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements. Often, but not always, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as “plans”, “expects” or “does not expect”, “is expected”, “estimates”, “intends”, “anticipates” or “does not anticipate”, or “believes”, or variations of such words and phrases or state that certain actions, events or results “may”, “could”, “would”, “might” or “will” be taken, occur or be achieved. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of NuRAN Wireless to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Examples of such statements include: the Company’s quest to connect the next billion; that this strategic acquisition allows Nuran to offer a complete mobile and broadband solution and the ability to secure the Nuran solution as the leader in rural and remote mobile connectivity, that the acquisition reinforces NuRAN’s strategic positioning towards new and small operators by offering an end-to-end mobile small-cell network solution with the lowest Total-Cost-of-Ownership (TCO) on the market and that the acquisition will allow NuRAN the opportunity to bring cellular coverage to emerging market where the return on investment (ROI) was previously simply too low. Actual results and developments are likely to differ, and may differ materially, from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements contained in this press release. Such forward-looking statements are based on a number of assumptions which may prove to be incorrect, including, but not limited to: the ability of NurRAN Wireless to obtain necessary financing; general economic conditions in Canada and globally; competition for, among other things, capital and skilled personnel; our ability to hire and retain qualified employees and key management personnel; possibility that government policies or laws may change; possible disruptive effects of organizational or personnel changes; technological change, new products and standards; risks related to acquisitions and international expansion; reliance on large customers; reliance on a limited number of suppliers; risks related to the Company’s competition; failure to integrate the technology and assets acquired from the Vendors and the Company’s failure to adequately protect its intellectual property; interruption or failure of information technology systems and other risk factors described in the Company’s reports filed on SEDAR), including its financial statements for the year ended

October 31, 2015, and those referred to under the heading "Risk Factors". These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing NuRAN Wireless' views as of any date subsequent to the date of this press release.
