1. Nature of Business and Continuing Operations

1020647 B.C. Ltd. (the "Company" or "DeepRock") was incorporated on December 1, 2014 in the province of British Columbia pursuant to the British Columbia Business Corporations Act. On March 6, 2017, the Company changed its name to DeepRock Minerals Inc. On November 14, 2018, the Company completed its initial public offering and commenced trading on the Canadian Securities Exchange on November 16, 2018 under the symbol "DEEP". The Company is a mineral exploration and development company. The head office and principal office of the Company is located at Suite 1518, 800 West Pender Street; Vancouver, BC V6C 2V6.

These financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its, assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. Since inception the Company has not generated any revenues from its primary business and during the period ended February 29, 2024, has incurred negative cash flow of $15,057 from operations. As at February 29, 2024, the Company has a working capital deficit of $382,601 and an accumulated deficit of $4,990,787. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to generate and maintain future profitable operations or obtain the necessary financing to meet its obligations and repay its liabilities arising from normal business operations when they come due. Management is of the opinion that sufficient working capital will be obtained from external financing to meet the Company's liabilities and commitments as they become due, although there is a risk that additional financing will not be available on a timely basis or on terms acceptable to the Company. These factors indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern. These financial statements do not reflect any adjustments that may be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

2. Material Accounting Policy Disclosure Information

(a) Statement of compliance and basis of presentation

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board and interpretations of the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee ("IFRIC") applicable to the preparation of interim financial statements, including the International Accounting Standard ("IAS") 34 – Interim Financial Reporting. The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis. The financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars, which is the Company's functional. These financial statements were approved and authorized for issuance by the Company's Board of Directors on April 29, 2024.

(b) Use of estimates and judgments

The preparation of these financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make certain estimates, judgments, and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of expenses during the reporting period. These financial statements include estimates which, by their nature, are uncertain. The impacts of such estimates are pervasive throughout the financial statements and may require accounting adjustments based on future occurrences. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised and future periods if the revision affects both current and future years. These estimates are based on historical experience, current and future economic conditions, and expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual outcomes could differ from these estimates.

Significant areas requiring the use of estimates include the recoverability of exploration and evaluation assets, fair value of share-based payments, and unrecognized deferred income tax assets.

2. Material Accounting Policy Disclosure Information (continued)

The Company's assessment of whether the going concern assumption is appropriate requires management to evaluate all available information about the future, which is at least, but not limited to, 12 months from the end of the reporting period. The Company is aware that material uncertainties related to events or conditions may cast significant doubt upon the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The application of the Company's accounting policy for exploration and evaluation assets requires judgment in determining whether it is likely that future economic benefits are likely either from future exploration or sale or where activities have not reached a stage which permits a reasonable assessment of the existence of reserves. The deferral policy requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions about future events or circumstances, in particular whether an economically viable extraction operation can be established. Estimates and assumptions made may change if new information becomes available.

(c) Exploration and evaluation expenditures

The Company records its interests in mineral properties and areas of geological interest at cost. All direct and indirect costs related to the acquisition of these interests are capitalized on the basis of specific claim blocks or areas of geological interest until the properties to which they relate are placed into production, sold, or management has determined there to be an impairment in value. These costs will be depleted using the unit-of-production method based on the estimated proven and probable reserves available on the related property following commencement of production.

The amounts shown for mineral properties represent costs, net of write-offs, option proceeds and recoveries, and do not necessarily reflect present or future value. Recoverability of these amounts will depend upon the existence of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain financing necessary to complete development, and future profitable production. The Company reviews the carrying values of mineral properties when there are any events or change in circumstances that may indicate impairment. Where estimates of future cash flows are available, an impairment charge is recorded if the estimated undiscounted future net cash flows expected to be generated by the property is less than the carrying amount. An impairment charge is recognized by the amount by which the carrying amount of the property exceeds the fair value of the property.

(d) Mineral exploration and development costs

Exploration costs are charged to operations as incurred. When it has been established that a mineral deposit is commercially mineable and a decision has been made to formulate a mining plan (which occurs upon completion of a positive economic analysis of the mineral deposit), the costs subsequently incurred to develop the mine on the property prior to the start of the mining operations are capitalized.

(e) Other Material Accounting Policy Disclosure Information

Other material accounting policies for the periods are consistent with those disclosed in the audited annual financial statements of the Company for the year ended November 30, 2023. The accompanying unaudited financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited annual financial statements for the year ended November 30, 2023.

(f) Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Company has reviewed the impact of new and amended standards that are effective for annual periods beginning on or after March 1, 2024. It does not expect the impact on the financial statements to be material, although additional disclosure may be required.

The Company, upon approval from its Board of Directors, will balance its overall capital structure through new share issuances or by undertaking other activities as deemed appropriate under the specific circumstances.

The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements and the Company's overall strategy with respect to capital risk management remains unchanged from the year ended November 30, 2023.

10. Financial Instruments and Risk Management

Fair Values

Fair value measurements are classified using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of inputs used in making the measurements. The fair value hierarchy has the following levels:

- Level 1 valuation based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 valuation techniques based on inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices); and
- Level 3 valuation techniques using inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

The fair values of financial instruments, which include cash, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and loan payable, approximate their carrying values due to the relatively short-term maturity of these instruments.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of potential loss to the Company if a counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its liquid financial assets including cash. The Company limits its exposure to credit risk by only investing cash with high-credit quality financial institutions. The carrying amount of these financial assets represents the maximum credit exposure.

10. Financial Instruments and Risk Management (continued)

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company currently settles its financial obligations out of cash. The ability to do this relies on the Company raising debt or equity financing in a timely manner and by maintaining sufficient cash in excess of anticipated needs.

Foreign Exchange Rate Risk

The Company is not currently exposed to foreign exchange rate risk.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company is not exposed to significant interest rate risk as it does not have any liabilities with variable rates.

Price Risk

The Company is exposed to price risk with respect to commodity prices. The Company's ability to raise capital to fund exploration and development activities is subject to risks associated with fluctuations in the market price of commodities.

11. Segmented Information

The Company operates in the mineral exploration and development industry and has two geographic segments, being Canada and Brazil.

("ACM") to acquire a 10% net profit stream of the Vila Verde Tungsten Tin Project ("Vila Verde") in Portugal, a test plant that processes stockpiled tungsten mineralized material, for a period of ten years. Under the terms of the agreement, the Company's revenues from the project be the greater of: (i) 10% of net profits of the project; or (ii) $500,000 per year, commencing when the test plan is operating at an optimal level.

As consideration for the 10% net profit stream, the Company will pay $1,000,000 to ACM by April 30, 2024, of which $200,000 is due on or before March 31, 2024.
