

PURANIUM ENERGY ANNOUNCES DIRECTOR APPOINTMENT

For Immediate Release

TORONTO, ON, July 30, 2024 – Puranium Energy Ltd. (the “Company” or “Puranium”) (CSE: UX and FSE: 2DK) is pleased to announce that it has appointed Nick Tintor as a Director of the Company effective immediately.

Nick Tintor is a mining executive and geologist who holds a Bachelor of Science in Geology from the University of Toronto and has more than 30 years of experience in the mining industry. He has been involved in all aspects of junior mining from project generation, finance and executive management and is a Qualified Professional Member of the Mining and Metallurgical Society of America, a Qualified Person under NI 43-101.

Mr. Tintor currently serves as a director of Benz Mining Corp. and Hercules Metals Corp. and is past President and CEO of Toachi Mining Inc., a company he cofounded and led from inception from the acquisition of the La Plata project in Ecuador to the delivery of a maiden NI 43-101 resource study. He was also cofounder, President & CEO of Anaconda Mining and Vice President Canada of Moto Gold Mines Inc. until its sale in 2009.

Jason Bagg, President, CEO & Director commented “We are very pleased that Nick has agreed to join our Board. His appointment will be highly beneficial to our Company as we look to build shareholder value and execute on our current strategy. We look forward to Nick’s insight and leadership. On behalf of the Board, I would like to welcome Nick to the team.”

On behalf of the Board,

Jason Bagg,
President & CEO, Director
