Description of Business

The Company is a business development services company. It provides business development services to new and emerging businesses, including making introductions to accountants, lawyers, brokers, transfer agents, and various other professionals and service providers to assist companies in raising capital and going public. The Company is a reporting issuer in the provinces of British Columbia and Alberta.

Plan of Arrangement

In June 2015, the Company entered into an Arrangement Agreement with Kidani Capital Partners Inc. ("Kidani") and 1040678 BC Ltd. ("1040678"). Kidani is a reporting issuer in the provinces of Alberta and British Columbia.

In October 2015, the shareholders of the Company, Kidani and 1040678, executed the Arrangement as follows:

a) 1040678 acquired all of the issued and outstanding common shares of the Company from Kidani for consideration of the Purchase Price of $1,000 on the Closing of the Plan of Arrangement (the “Purchase Shares”);

b) 1040678 and the Company exchanged securities on a 1:1 basis such that 396,600 common shares of 1040678 were exchanged by their holders for 396,600 common shares of the Company;

c) Kidani and the Company exchanged on a 1:1 basis, such that Kidani issued one common shares to the Company and the Company issued one common share to Kidani (collectively, the “Exchange Shares”); and

d) The Purchase and the Exchange Shares were then cancelled.

Following completion of the Arrangement Agreement, the Company became a reporting issuer.

As a result of the Arrangement Agreement, the former shareholders of 1040678, for accounting purposes, are considered to have acquired control of the Company. Accordingly, the Arrangement has been accounted for as a reverse takeover that was not a business combination and effectively a capital transaction of the Company. As 1040678 is deemed to be accounting acquirer for accounting purposes, its assets and liabilities and operations since incorporation on June 19, 2015 are included in the condensed consolidated interim financial statements at their historical carrying value. The condensed interim financial statements are a continuation of 1040678 in accordance with IFRS 3, Business Combinations. The Company’s results of operations are included from October 29, 2015 onwards.

Financial Instruments and Risk Management

Fair Values

The fair values of cash and equivalents, receivables and trade payables approximate their book values because of the short-term nature of these instruments.

(a) Financial Risk Management

The Board of Directors has overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Company's risk management framework. The Company considers the fluctuations of financial markets and seeks to minimize potential adverse effects on financial performance.

(b) Financial Instrument Risk Exposure

The Company is exposed in varying degrees to a variety of financial instrument related risks. The Board approves and monitors the risk management process.

Credit Risk
Credit risk is the risk of a financial loss to the Company if a counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligation. The Company's exposure to credit risk includes cash and receivables. The Company reduces its credit risk by maintaining its bank accounts at large international financial institutions. The Company's receivables consist primarily of tax receivables due from federal government agencies. The maximum exposure to credit risk is equal to the fair value or carrying value of the financial assets.

Liquidity Risk
Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its obligations as they become due. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on management's ability to raise required funding through future equity issuances. The Company manages its liquidity risk by forecasting cash flows from operations and anticipating any investing and financing activities. Management and the Board of Directors are actively involved in the review, planning and approval of significant expenditures and commitments.

Market risk
Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and commodity and equity prices. Such fluctuations may be significant.

(a) Interest rate risk
The Company has cash balances and no interest-bearing debt. The Company's current policy is to invest excess cash in investment-grade short-term deposit certificates issued by its banking institutions. The Company periodically monitors the investments it makes and is satisfied with the credit ratings of its banks.

(b) Foreign currency risk
The Company is not exposed to foreign currency risk on fluctuations in exchange rates.

(c) Price risk
The Company is exposed to price risk with respect to equity prices. Equity price risk is defined as the potential adverse impact on the Company's earnings due to movements in individual equity prices or general movements in the level of the stock market. The Company closely monitors individual equity movements, and the stock market to determine the appropriate course of action to be taken by the Company.

Contingencies

The Company is not aware of any contingencies or pending legal proceedings as of December 29, 2015.
