NEWS RELEASE

Project Development Lawyer Appointed As Advisor By Irving Resources

Vancouver, British Columbia – (Marketwired – September 11, 2017) – Irving Resources Inc. (CSE:IRV) (“Irving” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it has appointed Douglas B. Buchanan, Q.C. as a strategic advisor to provide independent business and strategic advice to the Company and its subsidiaries. Mr. Buchanan was the National Managing Partner of a prominent Canadian law firm and is currently the Co-Head of Global Infrastructure and Project Finance at a prominent New York based law firm. Mr. Buchanan has extensive experience in the area of mergers and acquisition, project development and project finance, with emphasis on the natural resource and infrastructure sectors, and his personal and business connections to Japan go back more than forty years.

“We are honoured to have Mr. Buchanan join the Irving team,” commented Akiko Levinson, President, CEO, and Director of Irving Resources Inc. “Mr. Buchanan's vast business experience in Japan will prove to be a valuable asset to Irving as the company advances its exploration and potential future development activities.”

Mr. Buchanan was previously both an advisor and board member of Gold Canyon Resources, with which Irving completed a plan of arrangement in November 2015.

About Irving Resources Inc.:

Irving is a junior exploration company with a focus on gold in Japan. Irving also holds, through a subsidiary, Project Venture Agreements with Japan Oil, Gas and Metals National Corporation (JOGMEC) for joint regional exploration programs in the United Republic of Tanzania, the Republic of Malawi and the Republic of Madagascar. JOGMEC is a government organization established under the law of Japan, administrated by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry of Japan, and is responsible for stable supply of various resources to Japan through the discovery of sizable economic deposits of base, precious and rare metals.
