NOTE: In reference to Ms. Green's press release dated June 4, 2018, Q1 booked revenues for The Yield Growth Corp. should have been stated as $1,800,000.

Top line financial highlights of The Yield Growth Corp are as follows:

	Quarter Ended Feb. 28, 2018 (unaudited)	Year Ended Nov. 30, 2017
Revenue	$ 1,808,813	$ nil
Cash on hand	1,597,886	1,425,380
Total assets	6,057,699	2,782,713
Net assets	3,378,193	2,661,727

Comparatively, Q1 revenues for Glance Technologies Inc. were $1,174,000 as disclosed in Glance's April 30, 2018 press release. Notably, $1,000,000 (or 85%) of Glance's Q1, 2018 revenue was generated from a sub-license fee negotiated through The Yield Growth Corp.

VANCOUVER– Penny Green, Co-founder, Director, and largest shareholder of Glance Technologies Inc. ("Glance" or the "Company") (CSE:GET.CN) (CSE:GET.WT) (OTCQB:GLNMF) (FKT:GJT), controlling 11.17%, is proposing a financially rewarding stock dividend for all Glance shareholders, should her slate of director Nominees be elected at the Company's upcoming annual general meeting on Tuesday, June 12, 2018. Under the proposal, Glance shareholders will be receiving 1 share of The Yield Growth Corp. ("Yield") for every 6.5 shares owned of Glance Technologies.

Yield (formerly Cannapay Financial) — of which Ms. Green is co-founder, President and CEO—is building brands and companies in the cannabis space, including Loop Insights, which collects consumer insights for licensed cannabis operators; Juve Wellness, a cannabis lifestyle brand offering everyday wellness products; and Thrive, building a cannabis product delivery service.

In 2017, Yield signed an agreement with Glance, allowing it the right to sublicense the Glance Pay mobile payment technology for use in the cannabis industry. In exchange, Glance received 10,450,000 shares of Yield.

STOCK SPLIT BENEFITS GLANCE SHAREHOLDERS:

On June 4, 2018, Yield completed a two for one subdivision of its issued common shares which increases Glance's shareholding to 20,900,000 shares out of a total of 78,091,134 shares outstanding. Ms. Green is proposing that all 20,900,000 shares be distributed to Glance shareholders as dividends on a return of capital basis.

In effect, each Glance shareholder will receive approximately 1 Yield share for every 6.5 Glance shares owned. As Yield is currently a private company, it will become a reporting issuer upon the distribution. The distribution can be made as a dividend declared by the board of directors of Glance, or can be done via Plan Of Arrangement to qualify the distribution in accordance with US and Canadian securities laws. There are approximately 22,000 shareholders of Glance internationally and all would benefit on a pro-rated basis.

Following completion of any and all corporate, legal and securities requirements, Ms. Green believes that this proposal to distribute Yield shares to Glance shareholders will create substantial future value for all Glance shareholders.

"Yield Growth is positioned to be a leader in the international Cannabis industry," said Ms. Green. "I'm excited about the prospect of delivering huge value to the Glance Technology shareholders with a stock dividend of 20,900,000 Yield Growth shares. The result would be that shareholders of Glance would own shares in two exciting growth-oriented companies."

VALUE IN YIELD

The Cannabis industry is experiencing tremendous growth around the world and especially in Canada as it prepares for full recreational legal use this summer. The largest Canadian stocks that have grown with a strong international branding strategy are Canopy Growth Corporation (WEED, OTC: TWMJF) and Aurora Cannabis Inc. (ACB, OTC: ACBFF), with market capitalizations of $7.5 billion and $4.5 billion respectively.

Since leaving Glance as its President & COO, Ms. Green has been busy building the team and business of Yield.

Highlights of achievements for Yield include:

- Full branding and international expansion plan for over 85 products containing either hemp root oil or cannabis
- 24 Health Canada registrations for proprietary skin and body care products containing hemp root oil and botanical extracts
- Packaging sourced and final stability testing commencing in June on first 12 products
- 7 provisional patent applications filed with the US Patent office, including Yield's proprietary process for hemp root oil application and its use in multiple products developed or acquired by Yield
- $4 million in licensing sales during past six months
- Booked revenues of $1,800,000 for the first quarter ended February 28, 2018

- Leading executive team with expertise in building international brands (including Coca Cola, Dasani)

VOTE FOR VALUE CREATION, NOT VALUE DESTRUCTION

“While my board Nominees and I are already developing several scenarios to build value for all Glance shareholders, the current Board spends their time haphazardly burning through money on ill-conceived marketing plans and new hires, said Ms. Green. “Based on the last quarterly report, Glance has been spending money at the rate $1.7 million per month. With $13 million bank as of February 28, limited revenue streams, and no track record of raising money, Glance will have emptied its bank accounts before the end of the year. Ahead of next week’s AGM, shareholders have a simple choice: A new Board with a clear plan for value creation, or the status quo of value destruction.”

Ms. Green is proposing a new board of qualified, experienced and respected Nominees who bring the superior skill set required to increase value for all Glance shareholders.
