The instrument of proxy must be signed by the Shareholder or the Shareholder's duly appointed attorney authorized in writing or, if the Shareholder is a corporation, under its corporate seal or by a duly authorized officer or attorney of the Corporation. An instrument of proxy signed by a person acting as attorney or in some other representative capacity (including a representative of a corporate Shareholder) should indicate that person's capacity (following his or her signature) and should be accompanied by the appropriate instrument evidencing qualification and authority to act (unless such instrument has previously been filed with the Corporation).

All Common Shares represented at the Meeting by properly executed proxies will be voted on any ballot that may be called for and, where a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon has been specified in the instrument of proxy, the Common Shares represented by the instrument of proxy will be voted in accordance with such instructions. The management designees named in the accompanying instrument of proxy will vote or withhold from voting the Common Shares in respect of which they are appointed in accordance with the direction of the Shareholder appointing him or her on any ballot that may be called for at the Meeting. In the absence of such direction, such Common Shares will be voted "FOR" the proposed resolutions at the Meetings. The accompanying instrument of proxy confers discretionary authority upon the persons named therein with respect to amendments of or variations to the matters identified in the accompanying Notice and with respect to other matters that may properly be brought before the Meeting. In the event that amendments or variations to matters identified in the Notice are properly brought before the Meeting or any further or other business is properly brought before the Meeting, it is the intention of the management designees to vote in accordance with their best judgment on such matters or business. At the time of printing this Information Circular, the management of the Corporation knows of no such amendment, variation or other matter to come before the Meeting other than the matters referred to in the accompanying Notice.

INTEREST OF CERTAIN PERSONS OR COMPANIES IN MATTERS TO BE ACTED ON

Except as disclosed in this Information Circular, none of the directors or senior officers of the Corporation at any time since the beginning of the Corporation's last financial year, nor any proposed nominee for election as a director of the Corporation, nor any associate or affiliate of any of the foregoing persons, has any material interest, direct or indirect, by way of beneficial ownership of securities or otherwise, in any matter to be acted on, other than the election of directors.

VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS OF VOTING SECURITIES

Voting Shares, Record Date and Principal Shareholders

As at the date of this Information Circular, the authorized share capital of the Corporation consists of an unlimited number of Common Shares without par value and an unlimited number of preferred shares without par value. The record date for the determination of Shareholders entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Meeting is May 19, 2021 (the "Record Date"). As at the Record Date, there were 39,666,190 Common Shares issued and outstanding as fully paid and non-assessable, each carrying the right to one vote, and no preferred shares issued or outstanding.

To the knowledge of the directors and executive officers of the Corporation, the only beneficial owners or persons exercising control or direction over Common Shares carrying more than 10% of the outstanding voting rights as of the Record Date were:

Shareholder	No. of Shares Beneficially Owned, Controlled or Directed	Percentage of Outstanding Shares
David Stein	9,296,031	23%

Common Shares

The holders of Common Shares are entitled to notice of and to vote at all annual general meetings of shareholders (except meetings at which only holders of a specified class or series of shares are entitled to vote) and are entitled to one vote per Common Share. The holders of Common Shares are entitled to receive such dividends as the board of directors of the Corporation (the "Board of Directors" or the "Board") declares and, upon liquidation, to receive such assets of the Corporation as are distributable to holders of Common Shares.

Voting of Common Shares – General

Only Shareholders whose names are entered in the Corporation's register of shareholders at the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Meeting, provided that, to the extent that: (i) a registered Shareholder has transferred the ownership of any Common Shares subsequent to the Record Date; and (ii) the transferee of those Common Shares produces properly endorsed share certificates, or otherwise establishes that he or she owns the Common Shares and demands, not later than ten days before the Meeting, that his or her name be included on the Shareholder list before the Meeting, in which case the transferee shall be entitled to vote his or her Common Shares at the Meeting.

Voting of Common Shares – Advice to Non-Registered Holders

Only registered holders of Common Shares, or the persons they appoint as their proxies, are permitted to attend and vote at the Meeting. However, in many cases, Common Shares beneficially owned by a holder (a "Non-Registered Holder") are registered either:

- a) In the name of an intermediary (an "Intermediary") that the Non-Registered Holder deals with in respect of the Common Shares. Intermediaries include banks, trust companies, securities dealers or brokers, and trustees or administrators of self-administered RRSPs, RRIFs, RESPs and similar plans; or
- b) in the name of a clearing agency (such as The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited or "CDS").

In accordance with the requirements of NI 54-101 of the Canadian Securities Administrators, the Corporation has distributed copies of the Notice, Information Circular and the instrument of proxy (collectively, the "Meeting Materials") to the clearing agencies and Intermediaries for onward distribution to Non-Registered Holders.

Intermediaries are required to forward meeting materials to Non-Registered Holders unless a Non-Registered Holder has waived the right to receive them. Typically, Intermediaries will use a service corporation (such as Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. ("Broadridge")) to forward meeting materials to Non-Registered Holders.

Generally, Non-Registered Holders who have not waived the right to receive meeting materials will:

- a) Have received as part of the Meeting Materials a voting instruction form which must be completed, signed and delivered by the Non-Registered Holder in accordance with the directions on the voting instruction form; voting instruction forms sent by Broadridge permit the completion of the voting instruction form by telephone or through Internet based voting procedures; or
- b) less typically, be given a proxy which has already been signed by the Intermediary (typically by a facsimile, stamped signature) which is restricted as to the number of Common Shares beneficially owned by the Non-Registered Holder but which is otherwise uncompleted. This form of proxy need not be signed by the Non-Registered Holder. In this case, the Non-Registered Holder who wishes to submit a proxy should otherwise properly complete the form of proxy and deposit it with Computershare at the address referred to above.

The purpose of these procedures is to permit Non-Registered Holders to direct the voting of the Common Shares they beneficially own. Should a Non-Registered Holder wish to attend and vote at the Meeting (or have another person attend and vote on behalf of the Non-Registered Holder), the Non-Registered Holder should strike out the names of the persons named in the proxy and insert the Non-Registered Holder's (or such other person's) name in the blank space provided or, in the case of a voting instruction form, follow the corresponding instructions on the form. In either case, Non-Registered Holders should carefully follow the instructions of their Intermediaries and their service companies.

Only registered Shareholders have the right to revoke a proxy. Non-Registered Holders who wish to change their vote must in sufficient time in advance of the Meeting, arrange for their respective Intermediaries to change their vote and if necessary revoke their proxy in accordance with the revocation procedures set above.

Voting of Common Shares – Advice to US Beneficial Shareholders

If you are a beneficial shareholder located in the United States and wish to vote at the Meeting, in addition to the steps described above, you must obtain a valid legal proxy from your intermediary. Follow the instructions from your intermediary included with the legal proxy form and the voting information form sent to you or contact your intermediary to request a legal proxy form or a legal proxy if you have not received one. After obtaining a valid legal proxy from your intermediary, you must then submit such legal proxy to Computershare. Requests for registration from beneficial shareholders located in the United States that wish to vote at the Meeting must be received by 10:00 AM (Pacific) on June 21, 2021.

STATEMENT OF EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

In accordance with the requirements of National Instrument 51-102 Continuous Disclosure Obligations, the Canadian Securities Administrators have issued guidelines on executive compensation disclosure for venture issuers as set out in Form 51-102F6V. Oversight and Description of Director and Named Executive Officer Compensation

Director Compensation

Effective as of October 1, 2020, the Corporation pays its independent directors a cash fee of $25,000 per year and the Chair of the Board a cash fee of $10,000. In addition, the Chair of each committee of the Board receives a cash fee of $5,000, per year. The independent directors are also eligible for equity-based compensation on an annual basis following the Corporation’s annual general meeting, in accordance with the policies of the Option Plan and applicable securities regulatory authorities and stock exchanges.

Named Executive Officer Compensation

The Nominating, Compensation and Governance Committee assists the Board of Directors in discharging its responsibilities with respect to identifying individuals qualified to become new board members; setting director and senior executive compensation; and assessing and making recommendations to the Board regarding certain compensation related and governance matters as delegated by the Board of Directors.

The objective of the Board of Directors in setting compensation levels is to attract and retain individuals of high caliber to serve the Corporation, to motivate their performance in order to achieve the Corporation's strategic objectives and to align the interests of the Named Executive Officers with the long-term interests of the Shareholders. These objectives are designed to ensure that the Corporation's business continues to grow and develop.

The Board of Directors sets the compensation received by the Named Executive Officers so as to be generally competitive with the compensation received by persons with similar qualifications and responsibilities who are engaged by other companies of corresponding size and stage of development having similar assets, number of employees and market capitalization.

The Corporation compensates its Named Executive Officers based on their skill and experience levels and the existing stage of development of the Corporation. Named Executive Officers are rewarded on the basis of the skill and level of responsibility involved in their position, the individual's experience and qualifications, the Corporation's resources, industry practice, and regulatory guidelines regarding executive compensation levels.

The Board of Directors has implemented three levels of compensation to align the interests of the executive officers with those of the shareholders: First, Named Executive Officers are paid a monthly consulting fee or salary determined by the Board of Directors, if appropriate; second, the Board of Directors awards Named Executive Officers long term incentives in the form of stock options, if appropriate. Finally and only in special circumstances, the Board of Directors may award cash or share bonuses for exceptional performance that results in a significant increase in shareholder value.

The base compensation of the Named Executive Officers is reviewed and set annually by the Board of Directors. The Chief Executive Officer has substantial input in setting annual compensation levels. The Chief Executive Officer is directly responsible for the financial resources and operations of the Corporation. In addition, the Chief Executive Officer and Board of Directors from time to time determine the stock option grants to be made pursuant to the Option Plan. Previous grants of stock options are taken into account when considering new grants. The Board of Directors awards bonuses at its sole discretion. The Board of Directors has not set any performance criteria or objectives.

The Board of Directors considers the implications of the risks associated with the Corporation's compensation policies and practices when determining rewards for its Named Executive Officers, and ensures that those policies do not encourage management to take inappropriate or excessive risks. The Board of Directors does not believe that there are any risks arising from the compensation programs that would be reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Corporation.

Neither Named Executive Officers nor directors are permitted to take any derivative or speculative positions in the Corporation's securities. This is to prevent the purchase of financial instruments that are designed to hedge or offset any decrease in the market value of the Corporation's securities.

Compensation for the most recently completed financial year should not be considered as an indicator of expected compensation levels in future periods. All compensation is subject to and dependent on the Corporation's financial resources and prospects.

Pension Disclosure

The Corporation does not have any defined benefit or defined contribution pension plans in place which provide for payments or benefits at, following, or in connection with retirement of its directors or Named Executive Officers.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

In accordance with the requirements of National Instrument 58-101 Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices, the Canadian Securities Administrators have issued guidelines on corporate governance disclosure for venture issuers as set out in Form 58-101F2. The disclosure addresses matters relating to constitution and independence of directors, the functions to be performed by the directors of a corporation, their committees and effectiveness and evaluation of proposed corporate governance guidelines and best practices. The Corporation's approach to corporate governance is set forth below.

Nominating, Compensation and Governance Committee

The purpose of the Nominating, Compensation and Governance Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in discharging its responsibilities with respect to identifying individuals qualified to become new board members; setting director and senior executive compensation; and assessing and making recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding certain compensation related and governance matters as delegated by the Board of Directors.

Board of Directors

In determining whether a director is independent, the Corporation primarily considers whether the director has a relationship which could, or could be perceived to, interfere with the director's exercise of independent judgement. For the purposes of this disclosure, a director is independent if he or she would be independent within the meaning of section 1.4 of National Instrument 52-110 Audit Committees.

The following table sets forth the nominees for appointment to the Board, their independence or non-independence and the basis for that determination:

Name	Independent	Basis for Determination of Independence ⁽¹⁾
HENNIGH, Quinton	Yes	No material relationship ⁽²⁾
LONDON, Maura	Yes	No material relationship
PENIUK, Dale	Yes	No material relationship
RECALDE, Andres	Yes	No material relationship
STEIN, David	No	Material relationship – President and Chief Executive Officer

Note:

1. Individuals who are, or have been within the last three years, an employee or executive officer of the Corporation, are considered to have, or have had, a material relationship with the Corporation, therefore these individuals do not satisfy the meaning of independence as set forth in section 1.4 of National Instrument 52-110 Audit Committees.
2. Mr. Hennigh was Executive Chairman of the Corporation from April 1, 2019 to October 1, 2020 and during that time, was deemed to have a material relationship with the Corporation. The Nominating, Compensation and Governance Committee has assessed Mr. Hennigh's independence as of the date of this Information Circular, pursuant to National Instrument 52-110 Audit Committees, and deemed him to satisfy the requirements of independence.

Directorships in Other Reporting Issuers

Certain current and proposed directors of the Corporation are also directors of other reporting issuers (or the equivalent) in a jurisdiction or a foreign jurisdiction as set forth in the following table:

Name	Name of Reporting Issuers ⁽¹⁾
HENNIGH, Quinton	Novo Resources Corp. Gold Canyon Resources NV Gold Corporation Eskay Mining Corp. Precipitate Gold Corp. New Found Gold Corp. Timberline Resources Corporation Irving Resources Inc. Condor Resources Inc. Nevada King Gold Corp.

Note:

1. The information is not within the knowledge of the management of the Corporation and has been taken from the System for Electronic Disclosure by Insiders (SEDI) or furnished by the respective nominees as of May 19, 2021.

Orientation and Continuing Education

The Corporation has not developed an official orientation or training program for new directors, but they are encouraged to communicate with other directors, officers and employees as needed. New directors will have the opportunity to become familiar with the Corporation with full access to records, meeting with legal counsel, the auditors and various technical consultants. Orientation activities are tailored to the needs and expertise of each director and the overall needs of the Board. The Corporation does not have a formal program of continuing education for its directors but encourages its directors to attend continuing education seminars at the Corporation's expense, subject to prior approval by management of the Corporation. The Corporation also liaises with its legal counsel, auditors and other advisors to keep apprised of any developments and material changes to corporate governance and reporting policies affecting the Corporation and makes the directors aware of any such developments and changes.

Ethical Business Conduct

The Board encourages, monitors and promotes a culture of ethical business conduct of the Corporation and ensures that the Board complies with applicable legal and regulatory requirements, such as those of relevant securities commissions and stock exchanges. The Board has found that the fiduciary duties placed on individual directors by the Corporation's governing corporate legislation and the common law, as well as the restrictions placed by applicable corporate legislation on the individual director's participation in decisions of the Board in which the director has an interest, have been sufficient to ensure that the Board operates independently of management and in the best interests of the Corporation.

The Corporation currently has the following policies in place for its directors, officers, employees and consultants:

- Board Mandate and Corporate Governance Policy;
- Code of Business Conduct;
- Corporate Disclosure Policy; and
- Insider Trading Policy

Shareholders may contact the Corporation to request copies of the above noted policies at 401 – 217 Queen Street West, Toronto, Ontario, M5V 0R2 or via email at lhodges@benchmarkgovernance.com.

Nomination of Directors

When there is a need to fill a position on the Board, either due to a vacancy or as required to carry out the Board's duties effectively and maintain a breadth of experience, the Nominating, Compensation and Governance Committee assists the current directors with identifying individuals qualified to become new Board members and potential candidates for consideration.

Compensation

The Nominating, Compensation and Governance Committee reviews the compensation payable to the Named Executive Officers on an annual basis, or periodically if needed, and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors. The Board has the ability to adjust and approve such compensation.

The following table sets forth the members of the Nominating, Compensation and Governance Committee as of the Record Date, their independence or non-independence and the basis for that determination:

LENDON, Maura - Chair	Yes
PENIUUK, Dale	Yes
RECALDE, Andres	Yes

Note:

1. Individuals who are, or have been within the last three years, an employee or executive officer of the Corporation, are considered to have or have had, a material relationship with the Corporation, therefore these individuals do not satisfy the meaning of independence as set forth in section 1.4 of National Instrument 52-110 Audit Committees.

Market comparisons, as well as evaluation of similar positions in different industries in the same geography, along with individuals experience and the diversity such individual brings to the Corporation's Board, are the criteria used in determining compensation.

Other Board Committees

The Board does not currently have any committees other than the Audit Committee and Nominating, Compensation and Governance Committee.

Assessments

The Board takes responsibility for monitoring and assessing its effectiveness and the performance of individual directors, its Audit Committee and its Nominating, Compensation and Governance Committee, including reviewing the Board's decision-making processes and the quality of information provided by management.

Diversity and Inclusion

The Corporation has not adopted a written policy relating to the identification and nomination of directors or members of senior management that are women, Indigenous peoples (First Nations, Inuit and Metis), persons with disabilities or members of visible minorities (collectively, "Designated Groups"). The Board generally identifies, evaluates and recommends candidates to become members of the Board or members of senior management with the goal of creating a Board and members of senior management team that, as a whole, consists of individuals with various and relevant career experience, industry knowledge and experience, technical, legal, financial, geographic and other specialized expertise.

The composition of the Board and senior management is primarily a question of experience and expertise brought by each individual. The Board, when searching for candidates, also takes diversity into account. Although the Board does not have a formal diversity policy, it considers diversity in its broadest sense when evaluating candidates, including persons diverse in gender, ethnicity, experience, and background. The Board considers all factors it deems relevant in the process of identifying, evaluating, and recommending candidates for the Board and senior management and does not have a formal requirement to consider the level of representation of individuals from Designated Groups.

Of the Corporation's current directors, 1 (20%) is a woman and none (0%) identify as being an Indigenous person, disabled or a member of a visible minority. Of the Corporation's current members of senior management, 1 (33%) are women and none (0%) identify as being an Indigenous person, disabled or a member of a visible minority.

Such period or periods shall be set forth in the Option Agreement evidencing such Stock Option.
