UNITED LITHIUM ACQUIRES WRAY MESA PROPERTY

Vancouver, B.C. (July 17, 2018) – Further to its news release of July 5, 2018, United Lithium Corp. (CSE: UTL, OTC: UTLF, FSE: OUL) ("United Lithium" or the "Company") is pleased to announce it has completed its acquisition of Greenhat Mineral Holdings Ltd. ("Greenhat"). Greenhat holds the rights to the Wray Mesa project, an exploration stage uranium/vanadium property located in Montrose County, Colorado, USA (the "Wray Mesa Property").

Pursuant to a Share Purchase Agreement executed between the Company and the shareholders of Greenhat (the "Greenhat Shareholders"), United Lithium has acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares of Greenhat. The aggregate purchase price of $1,075,000 was satisfied by the issuance to the Greenhat Shareholders, pro rata, of 2,050,000 common shares in the capital of the Company (the "Consideration Shares"), and a payment of $50,000, pro rata. Half of the Consideration Shares issued are free and clear of all encumbrances and trading restrictions, and the remaining half are subject to a resale restriction period expiring January 16, 2019.

For a description of the Wray Mesa Property and its historical resource estimate, please refer to the Company's news release dated July 5, 2018. In order to upgrade or verify the historical estimate as current mineral resources, the Company intends to further explore the Wray Mesa Property. The Company intends to pursue a drill program to verify the historic drilling and to investigate certain areas of the Wray Mesa Property for undiscovered near-mine mineralization. Additional drilling and studies focuses on the mineability (mining, economic and permitting parameters) would be needed to upgrade the resource estimate to a reserve estimate.

United Lithium plans to focus its efforts on the Wray Mesa Property and will also be looking for additional acquisitions with vanadium-discovery potential.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF UNITED LITHIUM CORP.
