

Cannvas to Attend the RISE 2018 in Hong Kong, China Exploring Potential Opportunities with Leading International Technology Organizations

TORONTO, June 21, 2018 /CNW/ - Cannvas MedTech Inc. ("Cannvas" or the "Company"), a leading business technology company within the cannabis space, is pleased to announce that its senior management team will be attending RISE 2018 on July 9-12 in Hong Kong, China. RISE is the largest tech conference in Asia which brings together some of the most brilliant minds in international tech in one place over four days. From Fortune 500 companies to groundbreaking startups, RISE will be host to over 15,000 attendees and over 350 speakers from over 90 countries representing today's leaders in technology.

"RISE 2018 has an impressive lineup of speakers and exhibitors and we are looking forward to exploring potential opportunities in health sciences and technology on an international stage," said Shawn Moniz, Chief Executive Officer, Cannvas MedTech Inc. "At each conference we attend, we generate leads that result in opportunities to work and/or partnership with leading international tech, health sciences and medical cannabis organizations, and we don't expect RISE to be any different. RISE has a much more international focus and we look forward to exploring the recent developments in technology that can improve Cannvas.me, our scalable, patient-centric life sciences learning platform."

Prior to the conference Cannvas' Chief Operating Officer, Global Markets Steve Loutskou will be travelling to Tokyo, Japan to explore potential opportunities and partnerships. An important aspect of the Cannvas business strategy is to partner organizations that can offer value with data aggregation, technology development and commercialization of the Cannvas.me, the health sciences learning platform. Through partnerships and joint ventures with other leading businesses, research and scientific organizations, and government bodies Cannvas.me can offer patients a powerful, single source of organized, trusted and accessible data, information and knowledge about cannabis.

RISE is taking place at the Hong Kong Conference and Exhibition Centre in Hong Kong, China from July 9 – 12, 2018, and consists of 13 conferences connecting every industry. For additional information on RISE 2018 visit www.riseconf.com.

About RISE

RISE is produced by the team behind Web Summit. In 6 short years, Web Summit has become Europe's largest tech conference which last year attracted 60,000 attendees from 170+ countries around the world. In July 2018, people from the world's biggest companies and most exciting startups will come to Hong Kong to share their stories and experiences. They'll be joined by major global media, hundreds of investors and thousands of attendees for three days of legendary networking.
