

Cannvas Appoints Dr. Daniel J. Bal, MD to Health and Innovation Advisory Board

Advisory Board to Guide Physician-Backed Content on Cannvas.me Platform

TORONTO, July 24, 2018 /CNW/ - Cannvas MedTech Inc. ("Cannvas" or the "Company") (CSE: MTEC; Frankfurt: 3CM), a leading business technology company in the cannabis space, is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Daniel J. Bal, MD to its Health and Innovation Advisory Board. The Cannvas Health and Innovation Advisory Board oversees all content related to the Cannvas.me platform, which offers innovative tools and physician-backed content to the global cannabis community. The Cannvas.me platform enables users of all backgrounds and personas to fully understand the potential of cannabis through an unbiased educational platform designed specifically for the global medicinal and adult-use cannabis communities.

"I have been an advocate for the use of cannabis based treatments for healthcare and to improve the quality of life for certain patients for quite some time," said Dr. Daniel Bal MD, Physician at Stamford Health. "There is a significant need for medical based information regarding the efficacy of cannabis to enable medical doctors to prescribe cannabis based medical treatment with confidence. I believe the Cannvas.me online platform can play a significant role in aggregating the data and information to organize and make this information to doctors on a broad scale. I look forward to taking an active role on the Cannvas Health and Innovation Advisory Board."

"We are honoured to have Dr. Bal join our Health and Innovation Advisory Board as we prepare to launch Cannvas.me" said Shawn Moniz, CEO, Cannvas MedTech Inc. "Dr. Bal is a widely respected and accomplished medical doctor specializing in Family Medicine, Wound Care and an advocate of healthcare through cannabis. I look forward to working with Dr. Bal as we launch our platform."

Dr. Bal's passion for patient care is driven by the relationships he builds with his patients and the ability to help them achieve a healthy lifestyle. He earned his medical degree from the American University of Antigua College of Medicine, Magna Cum Laude, and completed his residency at Stamford Hospital/Columbia University College of Physicians & Surgeons in Family Medicine. He has also completed 3 years of General Surgery Residency both at Stamford Hospital and SUNY Downstate Medical Center in Brooklyn, New York. He has been very active with research during his career and is a published author and competed in many research competitions and presentations.

During his residency, he had the privilege to provide care to the underserved community which further enhanced his training and skills. After residency Dr. Bal continued to be a part of the Stamford community and joined the Stamford Health Medical Group. He has a particular interest in wound care and will also be practicing at the Stamford Hospital Wound Care and Hyperbaric Center.

Stamford Health is committed to caring for the whole person in mind, body, and spirit. We provide our patients with the absolute finest in care, from prevention and wellness, to diagnosis, treatment, and ongoing support. It is a not-for-profit healthcare system providing inpatient, outpatient and ambulatory services through Stamford Hospital, a 305-bed acute care tertiary hospital; Stamford Health Medical Group, a partnership of primary and specialty care physicians; Stamford Hospital Foundation; and a diverse and growing number of retail and ambulatory locations across the region. Stamford Health is also a major teaching affiliate of the Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons and received Magnet® Designation for nursing excellence in 2016, and the Planetree Distinction Award for Leadership and Innovation in Patient-Centered Care in 2014.
