The Performance Warrants are subject to a financing condition such that they will not be exercisable unless an aggregate of $2 million CAD is raised via an equity financing or series of equity financings undertaken by and for the Company (the "Financing Condition"). If the Financing Condition is not satisfied by the date that is 12 months from the date of issue of the Performance Warrants, then the Performance Warrants will expire. On December 7, 2021, in connection with the closing of the public equity issue, the Financing Condition governing the exercise of the Performance Warrants has been met and these warrants can now be exercised by the holders.

12. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND DIGITAL ASSETS

(a) Fair value

The Company provides information about its financial instruments measured at fair value at one of three levels according to the relative reliability of the inputs used to estimate the fair value:

Level 1 – quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;

Level 2 – inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e., as prices) or indirectly (i.e., derived from prices); and

Level 3 – inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

The Company determined that the carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, and prepaid expense approximate fair value due to relatively short period to maturity. The investment in the private company is tested for impairment annually and the carrying value reflects the net realizable value of the investment.

Digital assets are revalued using quoted prices provided by CoinDesk and are valued at the closing price on the last trading day of the reporting period. The Company considers this to be a Level 2 fair value.

(b) Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the potential that a counterparty to a financial instrument will fail to discharge its contractual obligations. The Company manages credit risk, in respect of its cash and funds held in trust by placing its cash balances at a recognized major Canadian and US financial institutions.

Digital assets are held only in the custody vaults of Anchorage Digital Bank NA, a US federally chartered digital asset bank and registered custodian. The Company does not self-custody its Bitcoin assets.

(i) Carrying amount is net of unamortized financing fees.

(d) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in the market interest rates. The Company's exposure to interest rate risk is limited and relates only to its ability to earn interest income on cash balances held from time to time at variable rates. Changes in short term rates will not have a significant effect on the fair value of the Company's cash positions.

(e) Foreign currency risk

Currency risk relates to the risk that the fair values and future cash flows of the Company's financial instruments will fluctuate as a result of changes in foreign exchange rates. The Bitcoin mined by the Company and most major expenditures and loans related to mining equipment, infrastructure and ongoing operating costs are denominated in USD, the functional currency of the Company's mining operations segment. Exchange rate fluctuations will affect those parts of the Company's operations managed in CDN dollars and consequently may impact the Company's financial results.

(f) Digital currency pricing risk

Bitcoin pricing is affected by numerous factors including international supply and demand, interest rates, inflation or deflation, and global political and economic conditions. The profitability of the Company is directly related to the current and future pricing of Bitcoin. A decline in the market price of Bitcoin could have a negative impact on the Company's future operations and financial results. In addition, a lack of market liquidity could limit the Company's ability to sell Bitcoin on a timely basis and at acceptable pricing levels.

As at May 31, 2022, had the market price of Bitcoin increased or decreased by 10% with all other variables held constant, the corresponding digital asset value increase or decrease would amount to $165,871.
