

Nexus Announces Signing of Contractors for Winter Drill Program

Vancouver, British Columbia--(Newsfile Corp. - December 11, 2024) - Nexus Uranium Corp. (CSE: NEXU) (OTCQB: GIDMF) (FSE: 3H1) (the "Company" or "Nexus") is pleased to announce the completion of contracting activities for the upcoming winter drill program at the Cree East uranium project. The program includes finalized agreements with drilling and camp service providers.

"We are pleased to have finalized all contracts for our winter drill program," commented Jeremy Poirier, CEO of Nexus Uranium. "This marks an important milestone in advancing the Cree East project. With all arrangements in place, we are positioned to begin drilling and aim to deliver meaningful exploration results that support our vision of creating long-term value for shareholders and contributing to the global clean energy transition."

The Cree East project is operated as a joint venture between CanAlaska Uranium Ltd. ("CanAlaska") and Nexus Uranium Corp. Following a rigorous tender process, contracts were awarded for all drilling and related site activities. The agreements provide for scalability and flexibility to adapt based on exploration results. Notably, Athabasca Catering Limited Partnership and Cyr Drilling International Ltd. were awarded the contract for drilling services. Mobilization is anticipated to begin in the coming weeks, with drilling expected to commence in early January 2025.
