

SPEY RESOURCES ANNOUNCES BCSC REGULATORY REVIEW

Vancouver, British Columbia —August 31, 2021 — Spey Resources Corp. (CSE: SPEY) (OTC: SPEYF) (FRA: 2JS) ("Spey" or the "Company") announces that it is subject to a continuous disclosure review by the British Columbia Securities Commission (the "BCSC"). The review relates to the Company's recent disclosure record and includes a review of certain disclosure surrounding recent acquisitions completed by the Company.

In connection with the review, the BCSC has issued a cease trade order suspending trading in the securities of the Company. As a result of the cease trade order, trading in the common shares of the Company has been suspended on the Canadian Securities Exchange. The cease trade order was issued in connection with disclosure relating to the economic analysis of the Company's Incahuasi Project (the "Economic Disclosure"), outstanding continuous disclosure filings for the Company's acquisition of Tech One Lithium Resources Corp. and disclosure contained in the Company's management's discussion and analysis for the three and six months ended May 31, 2021.

The Company will fully cooperate with the BCSC to assist in completion of the review and revocation of the cease trade order in a timely fashion. The Company will provide further information regarding the status of the review, and the suspension of trading, as it becomes available.

The Company notes that the Economic Disclosure was previously contained in the Company's corporate presentation dated as of July, 2021 (the "Presentation") and previously accessible on its website. The Company has removed the Presentation from its website and wishes to clarify that the Economic Disclosure, particularly the disclosure on slide 5 of the Presentation, should not be relied upon as no current economic analysis has been prepared or is valid in relation to the Company's Incahuasi Project. The Company is not treating the Economic Disclosure contained in the Presentation as a preliminary economic assessment and hereby retracts the Economic Disclosure in the Presentation.
