

PRESS RELEASE

Calgary, Alberta – October 12, 2021

For Immediate Release - Medxtractor Corp. ("MedX" or the "Corporation") (CSE: MXT) reports a large-scale CO2 extractor dealer agreement.

Medxtractor Corp. ("MedX" or the "Corporation") (CSE: MXT) reports it has entered a non-exclusive dealer agreement with Shanghai Better Industry Co.,Ltd. ("SBIC") whereby the Corporation will act as a sales representative of SBIC products in Canada and the United States. SBIC manufactures a range of larger-scale CO2-based essential oil extractors as well as numerous extraction-related items.

James Durward, MedX CEO states "While our small-scale CO2-based extractors enjoy a leading position in that market segment, the SBIC agreement allows potential revenue from the larger extractor segment without significant capital cost or human resources requirements. The agreement also includes a variety of extraction-related products such as rotary evaporators and short-path distillation units."

MedX has updated its website at <https://medxtractor.com/medxtractor-large-scale-extractors/> and the SBIC products can be seen at <https://better-industry.en.alibaba.com/>

ABOUT MEDXTRACTOR CORP:

The Corporation is a Calgary-based company that generates technologically-based solutions. With installations all over the world, its craft-scale bio-extractors are used to extract compounds from a variety of botanical materials. The MLdelic (formerly SHAMAN) division is focusing on applying machine learning to predict potential benefits associated with the use of psychedelic drugs within the mental health sector and the YMI division is developing a data-driven consumer mHealth application. Readers are advised that both MLdelic and the YMI mHealth application require further development and accordingly the Corporation is not currently making any express or implied claims that the applications can, or will be able to, generate accurate results or profits.
