LAS VEGAS, NV, December 3, 2018 – Australis Capital Inc. (CSE: AUSA) (“Australis” or the “Company”) and Quality Green Inc. (“Quality Green”), a wholly owned subsidiary of The High Street, are pleased to announce the investment of $2,000,000 in Quality Green by Australis in connection with Quality Green’s proposed going public transaction. Based in Canfield, Ontario, Quality Green is a licensed cannabis producer striving for the perfect trifecta of optimized production efficiency, best practices and standards to create the finest product.

“The Quality Green team has tremendous experience as an integrated operator of preeminent brands,” stated Scott Dowty, Chief Executive Officer of Australis. “This investment and strategic partnership will play a pivotal role as we expand our North American reach, which includes a myriad of Canadian assets.”

Quality Green obtained its cultivation license in October 2017 with its first grow facility; expansion plans for a second facility are currently underway. With 385,000 square feet of production space, Quality Green is poised to produce 35,000 kilos annually, and aligned to serve over 28,000 registered medical patients.

“2018 has been a milestone year for us, as we accelerate our plans to go public, we are pleased to have captured the attention of an insightful investor that is driven by clear results, shared values and is a supporter of cannabis,” shared, Adrian Robinson, Chief Executive Officer of The High Street.

Quality Green sources high quality products and implement best-in-practice standards for pest control and plant growth, to implement a careful patient-focused strain selection process — highlighting specific cannabinoid and terpene profiles. Quality Green’s stated commitment is to produce the highest quality products. With a seamless expansion plan and a clear vision across all channels of their business, the Canadian producer is well positioned to capitalize on opportunities within the cannabis space.

“This is an exciting time for Quality Green.
