Award-Winning Cannabis-Infused Mango Co. SolDaze Introduces New Spicy Mango Line

Canadian Securities Exchange: TCAN

Borse Frankfurt: TH8

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, May 28, 2019 – via NetworkWire – Transcanna Holdings Inc. (CSE:TCAN: XETR: TH8) ("TransCanna" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that SolDaze, a company with which TransCanna has recently signed an LOI to acquire its business and assets (the "Acquisition") (see May 15 press release), has begun receiving pre-orders for its new Spicy Mango line of cannabis-infused mango snacks. SolDaze expects to commence shipping of the Spicy Mango line the second week of July.

SolDaze is a CBD/THC organic mango-infused snack line and has received numerous awards, including first place for packaging design and second place for infused edibles at the 2018 Emerald Cup.

"The pre-book orders for our spicy mango are tracking ahead of the pre-booked orders when we launched our original cannabis-infused mango line," states Shawn Shevlin, president of SolDaze, Inc. "We did significant flavor profile testing to come up with a recipe that allows the flavor of the mango to not be overpowered by the spice. There is a nice, even sweetness with a mild spice kick. We feel this flavor reaches all consumers and our dispensaries that we are selling into as well as our distributors."

Mike Bitar, co-founder of the East of Eden dispensary, states, "We are expecting the release of the SolDaze spicy mango flavor to fit nicely in our locations and largely increase the sales in the SolDaze mango line."

Jim Pakulis, CEO of TransCanna, states, "TransCanna and SolDaze are working as expeditiously as possible to complete the acquisition of SolDaze and incorporate their lines into the TransCanna portfolio. To help streamline this process, we've hired Shaun as an employee of TransCanna and are immediately able to utilize his vast knowledge in the agriculture, cannabis and branding sectors."
