

Ovation Science Announces Extended Rights for DermSafe Hand Sanitizer

VANCOUVER, BC / ACCESSWIRE / June 15, 2020 / (CSE:OVAT) - Ovation Science Inc. ("Ovation" or the "Company") is pleased to announce it has signed a revised agreement for additional rights for its DermSafe hand sanitizer (the "License Renewal Agreement") under the terms of the original License Agreement with Skinvisible Pharmaceuticals, Inc., previously announced February 13, 2020. The License Renewal Agreement provides Ovation with immediate additional rights which will assist in the sales and marketing of the product internationally.

The original License Agreement provided Ovation with the exclusive worldwide rights to DermSafe hand sanitizer for an initial period of three years with renewal rights. The License Renewal Agreement extends the License Agreement indefinitely, (subject only to the royalty), for payment in advance of the renewal fee of USD $100,000. In addition to the extension, Ovation will also be transferred the following rights:

1. Two (2) Health Canada Drug Identification Numbers - 02310589 and 02355558
2. DermSafe trademark;
3. DermSafe clinical data; and
4. The right to patent DermSafe in countries where not currently patented.

"We felt it was important that we expedite our agreement for DermSafe so that Ovation has possession of all of the rights and approvals that are in place but not yet identified under the Ovation name. Shortly all Health Canada records will be updated and Ovation will be identified as the owner of the two Drug Identification Numbers (DINs) as well as being on Health Canada's approval of DermSafe under "Disinfectants and hand sanitizers accepted under COVID-19 interim measure", said Terry Howlett, President of Ovation.

The License Renewal Agreement was approved by Ovation's directors with Terry Howlett and Doreen McMorran abstained from voting to approve the License Renewal Agreement due to their disclosable interest in the transaction contemplated with Skinvisible Pharmaceuticals, Inc. as they are significant shareholders and creditors of Skinvisible and Mr. Howlett is also the President and a director.
