

Scotch Creek Ventures Inc. To Present at Annual American Exploration & Mining Association Meeting

VANCOUVER, BC – December 7th, 2021 – Scotch Creek Ventures Inc. (the “Company”) (CSE: SCV) (FSE: 7S2) (OTC: SCVFF) (“Scotch Creek” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that its advisory board member, P.Geo, Bob Marvin, will attend and present on behalf of the Company at the 127th annual meeting and exposition of the American Exploration & Mining Association (“AEMA”) taking place in Reno, Nevada from December 5-10th, 2021.

The American Exploration and mining association is the longest-running, and second-largest annual mining meeting held in the United States. The AEMA draws mining industry leaders, discussing topics such as sustainability, political headwinds, and the future of the industry. AEMA provides Companies the opportunity to gain brand recognition, networking opportunities and is host to members from across the globe.

The Company will be showcasing its Clayton Valley, lithium projects. Scotch Creek, CEO, David Ryan Commented, “We look forward to presenting our lithium exploration progress at the American Exploration & Mining Association’s upcoming conference. We are fortunate to have Mr. Marvin, a respected lithium exploration expert present at the AEMA, as we believe there is a bright future for lithium exploration in the United States, and Scotch Creek benefits from Mr. Marvin’s experience and knowledge in this sector.”

Marketing Agreement

In addition, Scotch Creek has engaged TD Media LLC (“TD Media”), based out of Houston Texas, to further enhance the Company’s marketing and advertising.

The services provided by TD Media include digital asset advertising, marketing strategies, and awareness campaigns. The engagement of TD Media will commence on December 15th, 2021. Neither TD Media nor any of its principals currently own any interest, directly or indirectly, in the Company.
