“We’re pleased to begin to develop our online presence, and the new website and social media platforms were first and foremost in our plans,” said Alex Klenman, CEO of Leocor Ventures. “The website gives the public an ability to better understand our vision and our projects, while social media gives investors access to our progress on a more frequent basis. Although we’re in volatile times we believe the markets will rebound with strength, and particularly the precious metals sector. Leocor is poised to benefit from the reset and we are looking forward to what’s ahead,” continued Mr. Klenman.
