Komo Plant Based Foods Launching in 33 Loblaws Your Independent Grocer Stores

Vancouver, B.C. – February 4, 2022 (CSE: YUM) (OTCQB: KOMOF) (FSE: 9HB) (“Komo”), a premium plant-based food start-up, is pleased to announce that 6 Komo frozen plant-based products have been planogrammed on shelf for 33 Loblaws banner Your Independent Grocer (YIG) stores, which include Komo’s Ready-to-Bake Classics and Meal Helpers. Komo’s products are expected to be on the shelves of Loblaws YIGs by March 2022.

Your Independent Grocer stores are vital neighbourhood markets serving communities from capital cities such as Whitehorse, Edmonton and Saskatoon to high-profile, global tourist destinations like Whistler, BC and the Okanagan Valley. The initial 33 locations which will carry Komo products are located in Western Canada. Distribution will be throughout western Canada from Vancouver Island east to Regina, and north through British Columbia and Alberta to Yellowknife in the Yukon. 6 Komo frozen SKU’s are expected to be in the initial 33 locations by this March.

“It’s a huge accomplishment for Komo to launch into a Loblaw’s owned chain within one year of introducing our plant-based brand. Loblaw’s has Canada’s largest and highest volume chain of retailers, its stores reaching 90% of Canadians,” says Komo CEO William White. “We are thrilled to share shelf space with established Loblaw brands on shelves across 3 western Provinces and 2 Northern Territories. We anticipate that this strong Canadian roll out will be replicated in our United States expansion, which is now in progress.”
