"We are very pleased with the certified results from ALS Global's labs in North Vancouver, British Columbia. As expected, the results are spectacular high grades over a good width. We remain confident that our technical and disciplined approach to this exploration program will continue to deliver results for our shareholders and add value to our projects. We look forward to reporting our remaining certified results. Our next step is the EarthEX designed BHEM survey, which has never been done in this area. We are committed to utilizing new technology to our exploration programs here in the BMC and bring a new perspective," stated Patrick J Cruickshank, MBA, Director and member of the Technical Advisory Committee.
