Note 2 Basis of Preparation and Going Concern

a) Statement of Compliance

These unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements for the Company have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”). These unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements, for the three month period ended July 31, 2021, have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard (“IAS”) 34 Interim Financial Reporting, and do not include all the information required for full annual financial statement. For summary of significant accounting policies, see note 3 of the Company’s April 30, 2021 audited annual financial statements.

These unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company’s April 30, 2021 audited annual financial statements.

The financial statements were authorized for issue by the Board of Directors on September 28, 2021.

b) Basis of Measurement and Going Concern

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for cashflow information.

The preparation of condensed interim consolidated financial statements in compliance with IFRS requires management to make certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise judgement in applying the Company’s accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the financial statements are disclosed in Note 4 of the Company’s April 30, 2021 audited annual financial statements.

Note 2 Basis of Preparation and Going Concern – (cont'd)

b) Basis of Measurement and Going Concern – (cont'd)

In March 2020 the World Health Organization declared coronavirus COVID-19 a global pandemic. This contagious disease outbreak, which has continued to spread, and any related adverse public health developments, has adversely affected workforces, economies, and financial markets globally, potentially leading to an economic downturn. It is not possible for the Company to predict the duration or magnitude of the adverse results of the outbreak and its effects on the Company's business or ability to raise funds.

The Company has not generated revenue from operations and incurred a loss of $41,701 during the period ended July 31, 2021. While the Company has been successful in obtaining the necessary financing through the issuance of common shares in the past, there is no assurance it will be able to raise funds in this manner in the future. As at July 31, 2021, the Company had $313 in cash, working capital deficit of $510,343 and no long-term debt.

These conditions indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. These financial statements do not give effect to adjustments that would be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern and, therefore, be required to realize its assets and liquidate its liabilities and commitments in other than the normal course of operations, and at amounts different from those in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

c) Basis of Consolidation

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiary, which is controlled by the Company. Control exists when the Company has the power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from the entity's activities. Subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial results of the Company from the effective date of acquisition up to the effective date of disposal or loss of control.

The Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, H4Hsrl, carries out its operations in Italy. All intra-group transactions, balances, income and expenses are eliminated, in full, on consolidation. Legal, corporate and foreign regulatory fees and taxes related to the Italian subsidiary are included in legal costs. All other expenses are included in the related expense categories, including office and administration.

The condensed interim consolidated financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars ("CDN"), which is the functional currency of the Company and its subsidiary.

Note 3 Research and Development - Crops Costs

During the year ended April 30, 2020, the Company entered into agreements with various agricultural groups to cultivate and harvest hemp on behalf of the Company on up to 150 hectares of farmland. The agreements are for an initial 5 year period with an option to renew for 5 years. The payments to these farmers in the year ended April 30, 2021, have been fully expensed to research and development as the Company is still testing plant strains and has no significant revenue. During the period ended July 31, 2021, no further research and development costs had been incurred as the Company had not yet secured the rights to a planting.

During the period ended July 31, 2020, the Company expensed crop costs as research and development, along with seed costs and consulting fees for a total of $311,846, excluding VAT taxes incurred (see note 4). This is offset by $38,180 of proceeds received on sale of the test crop biomass for a net expense of $273,666 in the period ended July 31, 2020.

Note 4 Amounts Receivable and Prepaid Expenses and Advances

During the years ended April 30, 2021 and 2020, $317,824 (211,221 Euro) was paid for VAT taxes in Italy and is receivable against future VAT paid. (April 30, 2020 - $165,000 (112,640 Euro)). During the year ended April 30, 2021, management determined that there is uncertainty of recovery of these amounts without significant revenues or operations in Italy and, therefore, has written down the receivable to nil. Management will continue to apply for the refund of these taxes under Italian tax guidelines and may use these credits to offset any VAT payable on future sales.

Also, during the prior year ended April 30, 2020, the Company advanced 50,000 Euro (CAD$73,897) to a potential distribution partner as a loan. Management has determined that there is an uncertainty of recovery of this loan and has written it down to nil.

Note 5 Advances Payable

The Company had signed a letter of intent (“LOI”) with Pacific Hemp Company Pty Ltd. (“PHC”), whereby the Company would acquire 100% of the outstanding shares of PHC. The LOI expired on May 17, 2021, as PHC was unable to meet its minimum obligations. PHC advanced the Company a 60 day refundable deposit pursuant to the extension of the original agreement to May 17th, 2021 of $152,500 (100,000 Euros). This amount remains outstanding to PHC and management believes it will be partially offset by expenses incurred.

In March, 2021, the CEO and director of the Company advanced $130,000 to the Company as a non-interest bearing advance due on demand, recognized as advances payable.

No amounts are paid or payable by the recipient on receipt and the options are not dependent on any performance-based criteria. Note 7 Loss Per Share

The denominator for the calculation of loss per share, being the weighted average number of common shares for the period ended July 31, 2021 and 2020 is as follows:

For the period ending July 31,	2021	2020
Issued and outstanding, beginning of the period	24,162,001	24,162,001
Weighted average shares issued during the period	-	-
Basic and diluted weighted average number of shares	24,162,001	24,162,001

Note 8 Capital Management

The Company's objective when managing capital is to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, so that it can continue to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders. The Company considers the items included in shareholders' equity (deficiency) as capital. The Company manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may issue new shares through private placements, sell assets to reduce debt or return capital to shareholders. The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

Note 9 Financial Instruments

As at July 31, 2021, the Company's financial instruments consist of cash, amounts receivable, advances payable, and trade and other payables. The fair value of the Company's amount receivable, advances payable, and trade and other payables approximate their carrying value, which is the amount on the statements of financial position, due to their short-term maturities or ability of prompt liquidation. The Company's cash is carried at FVTPL, where fair value is calculated in accordance with level 1 of the fair value hierarchy.

a) Currency Risk

Currency risk is the risk to the Company's earnings that arises from fluctuations of foreign exchange rates and the degree of volatility of these rates. The Company does not use derivative instruments to reduce its exposure to foreign currency risk. At July 31, 2021, US dollar amounts were converted at a rate of $1.2477 Canadian dollars to $1 US dollar and Euro were converted at a rate of $1.4807 Canadian dollars to 1 Euro. A 10% increase or decrease in the US dollar exchange may increase or decrease loss for the period by approximately $10. A 10% increase or decrease in the EUR$ exchange rate will decrease or increase loss for the period by approximately $5,524.

Note 9 Financial Instruments – (cont'd)

b) Interest Rate Risk

The Company's cash earns interest at a variable interest rate. Because of the nature of these financial instruments, fluctuations in market rates do not have a significant impact on estimated fair values as of July 31, 2021. Future cash flows from interest income on cash will be affected by interest rate fluctuations. Interest rate risk consists of two components, i) To the extent that payments made or received on the Company's monetary assets and liabilities are affected by changes in the prevailing market interest rates, the Company is exposed to interest rate cash flow risk; and ii) To the extent that changes in prevailing market interest rates differ from the interest rates in the Company's monetary assets and liabilities, the Company is exposed to interest rate price risk.

The Company's exposure to interest rate fluctuations is minimal.

c) Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will fail to discharge an obligation and cause the other party to incur a financial loss. The Company is exposed to credit risk with respect to its cash, the balance of which at July 31, 2021 is $313 (April 30, 2021 – $12,348). As at that date, cash was held at a chartered Canadian financial institution and the Company does not consider the risks to be significant.

Liquidity risk arises from the excess of financial obligations over available financial assets due at any point in time. Additional cash requirements could be met with the issuance of additional share capital; however, there is no assurance the Company will be able to raise funds in this manner in the future. As at July 31, 2021, the Company was holding cash of $313 (April 30, 2021 – $12,348).

Note 10 Related Party Transactions
