

Draganfly To Attend AUVSI XPONENTIAL 2021 Event

Los Angeles, CA. August 5, 2021 -- Draganfly Inc. (NASDAQ: DPRO) (CSE: DPRO) (FSE: 3U8) ("Draganfly" or the "Company"), an award-winning, industry-leading drone solutions and systems developer, today announced that it will be attending the AUVSI XPONENTIAL 2021 in Atlanta.

Taking place August 16 -19, 2021, at the Georgia World Congress, the AUVSI XPONENTIAL is the world's largest trade show for unmanned aerial vehicles, bringing together thousands of commercial and military delegates all with a vested interest in drone technology.

Draganfly will be showcasing its Commander II and Tango2 sUAS platforms, as well as the AeroVironment Quantix Mapper, of which Draganfly is the exclusive partner and reseller. Draganfly will also be showcasing its Drone-Powered Stadium and Event Disinfecting Service which operates in partnership with Varigard – a leader in natural and organic disinfectants. This technology enables the sanitization and disinfecting of stadiums and other large venues by administering a surface spray via Draganfly drones across the entire venue in a fraction of the time required using conventional methods. The Draganfly team will be available to discuss these and other products and services including their artificial intelligence capabilities and contract engineering services at booth #2150. The event is the global stage for all things unmanned — from modeling and simulation, sensors, energy storage and UAS mitigation solutions to what is coming over the horizon in AI/ML, 5G, edge computing and more.

Speaking ahead of this year's AUVSI Xponential, Draganfly CEO Cameron Chell said: "AUVSI is always an important date in Draganfly's calendar. It gives us the platform to showcase to the global drone industry our latest technology".
