

Canbud Distribution Announces Listing on Frankfurt Stock Exchange

Toronto, Ontario--(Newsfile Corp. - December 3, 2020) - Canbud Distribution Corporation (CSE: CBDX) (FSE: CD0) (the "Corporation") is pleased to announce its common shares have been accepted for listing on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange (FSE) under the trading symbol "CD0". As a result, the company's common shares are now cross-listed on the CSE and the FSE.

Raj Ravindran CFO comments, "The Frankfurt listing will help increase trading liquidity and facilitate investment in the Company by institutional and retail investors across Europe and help expand our shareholder base."

The FSE is the world's third-largest organized exchange-trading market in terms of turnover and dealing in securities and the largest stock exchange in Germany. With over 3,000 international companies listed on the Frankfurt Exchange and investors directly connected to the FSE, the FSE represent 35% of the world's investment capital.

The FSE facilitates advanced electronic trading, settlement and information systems, allowing it to meet the growing requirements of cross-border trading.

About Canbud Distribution Corporation

Canbud Distribution Corporation is a science and technology company focused on the global hemp space inclusive of hemp cannabinoids (CBD). Currently the company, through its subsidiaries, holds three industrial hemp licenses for the purposes of supplying the global market with medicinal and wellness cannabidiol and other cannabinoid based products on leased lands located in McKellar, Ontario, Kettleby, Ontario and Lakefield, Ontario. Each hemp licence allows the growing and harvesting of hemp CBD flowers for processing into CBD and other cannabinoids extracts.
