Dominion Water Reserves Corp.
Notes to the Consolidated Interim Financial Statements
For the period of three months ended March 31, 2022 and 2021
(Unaudited – Prepared by Management)

1. General information

Dominion Water Reserves Corp. (the “Company” or “DWR”) was incorporated under the Canada Business Corporations Act on October 26, 2015. The head office, principal address and records office of the Company are located at 609-1188 Avenue Union, Montreal, Quebec, H3B 05E.

Dominion Water Reserves Corp. is a company that acquires spring water permits to develop operations in the spring water market in Quebec and beyond. Dominion Water Reserves Corp. is the parent company of 6305768 Canada Inc., Centre Piscicole Duhamel Inc., 11973002 Canada Inc., Source Sainte-Cécile Inc., 3932095 Canada Inc. and Société Alto 2000 Inc (“the subsidiaries”). These subsidiaries are fully owned by the Company.

On July 31, 2020, the Company completed an amalgamation with Tucker Acquisitions Inc. The Transaction constituted a reverse takeover of the Company by the shareholders of DWR which did not meet the definition of a business combination pursuant to IFRS 3. As such, the Transaction has been accounted for under IFRS 2, whereby the difference between the consideration given to acquire the Company and the net asset liabilities acquired by the Company is recorded as a transaction expense. Since DWR is the deemed acquirer for accounting purposes, these interim financial statements present the historical information and results of DWR.

The Company is listed on the Canadian Securities Exchange (the “CSE”) since August 10, 2020 under the symbol “DWR”.

2. Going concern

At March 31, 2022, Dominion Water Reserves Corp. has not yet achieved profitable operations, has significant losses from operations over the years and an accumulated deficit of $8,367,143 since inception and expects to incur further losses in the development of its business. Additionally, the Company incurred a net loss and comprehensive loss of $162,003 during the period.

The Company will need to raise additional funds to continue its operations. Although, the Company has been successful in attracting new investors and partners to fund the ongoing business, there is no assurance that it will be able to obtain adequate financing in the future or that such financing will be available on advantageous terms to the Company.

However, given the current cash position and foreseen cash inflows and outflows in the next twelve months, management believes that sufficient cash is available to fund the Company’s operating expenses at least for the next 12 months. As a result, the continuity of the Company depends to a significant extent on the willingness of (new or existing) shareholders and partners to invest in Dominion Water Reserves Corp. As such, there is a material uncertainty related to these events and conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern and, therefore, it may be unable to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business.

The accounting principles applied to the valuation of assets and liabilities and the determination of results in these financial statements are based on the assumption of continuity of the Company as the Company believes it will realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business.

The Company continually monitors its activities and associated expenditure closely to ensure effective deployment of resources.

3. Statement of compliance and new accounting standards adopted during the year

These consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance and compliance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) applicable to the preparation of consolidated interim financial statements, including IAS 34, Interim Financial Reporting. These interim financial statements were prepared using the same accounting policies, methods of computation and basis of presentation as outlined in Note 4 - Basis of preparation, as described in the Company's annual audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2021, except for the new accounting standards adopted during the year . The consolidated interim financial statements do not include all the information and disclosures required in the Company's annual financial statements and should be read in conjunction with the Company's annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2021.

These consolidated interim financial statements have been approved by the board of directors on May 19, 2022.

New Accounting standards adopted during the year

At the date of authorization of these consolidated financial statements, certain new standards, amendments and interpretations to existing standards have been published but are not yet effective, and have not been adopted early by the Company. Management anticipates that all of the pronouncements will be adopted in the Company's accounting policy for the first period beginning after the effective date of each pronouncement. Information on new standards, amendments and interpretations that are expected to be relevant to the Company's consolidated financial statements is provided below. Certain other new standards and interpretations have been issued but are not expected to have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements. In May 2020, the IASB issued a package of narrow-scope amendments to three standards (IFRS 3 “Business Combinations”, IAS 16 “Property, Plant and Equipment” and IAS 37 “Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets”) as well as the IASB's Annual Improvements to IFRS Standards 2018 - 2020. These amendments to existing IFRS standards are to clarify guidance and wording, or to correct for relatively minor unintended consequences, conflicts or oversights. These amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2022. Adoption of this standard did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

4. Judgments, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of these consolidated interim financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated interim financial statements and accompanying notes. Management believes that the estimates used in the preparation of the consolidated interim financial statements are reasonable; however, actual results may differ materially from these estimates. The areas involving significant judgments, estimates and assumptions have been detailed in note 4 to the Company's annual audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2021.

(a) Basic loss per share

Basic loss per share is calculated by dividing the net loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period.

(b) Diluted loss per share

Diluted loss per share is computed by dividing net loss for a period by the diluted number of common shares. Diluted common shares include the effects of instruments, such share options and warrants, which could cause the number of common shares outstanding to increase.

For the period ended March 31, 2022 and 2021, potential dilutive common shares from share options and warrants have not been included in the loss per share calculation as they would result in a reduction of the loss per share.

13. Financial instruments and risk management

The Company as part of its operations carries a number of financial instruments. It is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments except as otherwise disclosed.

(a) Fair value of financial instruments

The carrying values of cash, accounts and other receivables, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and lease liabilities are considered to be a reasonable approximation of fair value because of the short-term maturity of these instruments. The fair value of the convertible debt is derived from market rates. The carrying value of long-term lease liability is considered to be a reasonable approximation of fair value as it is discounted at an approximate fair value rate.

(b) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities that are settled by delivery of cash or another financial asset. The Company enters into transactions to purchase services on credit for which repayment is required at various maturity dates. Liquidity risk is measured by reviewing the Company's future net cash flows for the possibility of negative net cash flow.

13. Financial instruments and risk management (continued)

The Company attempts to manage the liquidity risk resulting from its accounts payable by diversifying its sources of funding and by maintaining sufficient cash balances. Liquidity requirements are managed based on expected cash flows to ensure that there is sufficient capital in order to meet short-term obligations. However, given the current cash position and foreseen cash inflows and outflows in the next 12 months, management believes that sufficient cash is available to fund the Company's operating expenses at least for the next months.

(c) Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company because a counter party to a financial instrument fails to discharge its contractual obligations. Credit risk primarily arises from cash with banks and advances to related parties.

There is no provision for expected credit losses given that there are no advances to related parties outstanding as at March 31, 2022.

The Company reduces credit risk by dealing with creditworthy financial institutions and ensuring the creditworthiness of the related parties.

(d) Fair Value Hierarchy

A number of the Company's accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair value for both financial and non-financial assets and liabilities. The Company has an established framework, which includes team members who have overall responsibility for overseeing all significant fair value measurements, including Level 3 fair values. When measuring the fair value of an asset or liability, the Company uses observable market data as far as possible. The Company regularly assesses significant unobservable inputs and valuation adjustments. Fair values are categorized into different levels in a fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used in the valuation techniques as follows:

- Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs). The Company's cash are included in Level 1.

14. Capital management

The capital structure of the Company consists of equity attributable to common shareholders, comprising issued share capital and deficit. The Company's objectives when managing capital are to: (i) preserve capital; (ii) obtain the best available net return; and (iii) maintain liquidity.

The Company manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares.

The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.
