

AmmPower Corp. Appoints Former Canadian Representative of International Maritime Organization, Pierre Marin to Advisory Board

Pierre Marin will be key in introducing AmmPower Green Ammonia technologies to the Global Shipping Industry.

June 7, 2021

Vancouver, BC - AmmPower Corp. (CSE: AMMP) (OTCQB: AMMPF) (FSE: 601A) (the “Company” or “AmmPower”), announces the appointment of Mr. Pierre Marin to its advisory board, effective immediately.

Mr. Marin worked for the Canadian Federal Government for over 32 years, in a variety of senior roles. Most recently, Mr. Marin represented Canadian at the International Maritime Organization (“IMO”), and the International Civil Association on environmental issues. Mr. Marin has also served as the Director General for environmental policy at Transport Canada, specifically coordinating government policy towards the transportation sector and the environment.

“Mr. Marin’s extensive background with the Federal Government, particularly with regards to environmental policies is a great addition to the company’s advisory board.” States AmmPower President Rene Bharti.

The IMO has recently announced targets to reduce the shipping industries green-house gas emissions by 50% by 2050¹, including a reduction of carbon intensity of its fleet by 40% by 2030². AmmPower will work together to introduce the IMO’s member companies and countries to its green technologies to aid the IMO in reaching these goals.

Mr. Bharti adds, “With the IMO targets and Pierre’s experience, we are confident AmmPower will be successful in bringing its technologies to the marine industry and industry at large needing to address the growing issues of climate change.”

Mr. Marin states, “I am delighted to have been appointed to the AmmPower board of advisors. Having worked in various senior management positions for the Canadian Government, I understand how important reducing climate change is not only for Canada, but the planet at large. My experience dealing with the IMO and government and industry, has allowed me to have a very good understanding of the changes being mandated to the shipping industry globally.”
