

Element Nutritional Sciences Announces Rejuvenate™ Now Available Online at Walgreens

BURLINGTON, Ontario--(BUSINESS WIRE)--January 26, 2022--Element Nutritional Sciences Inc. (CSE:ELMT; OTC:ELNSF; FRANKFURT:93X)(the “Company” or “Element”), is pleased to announce that its Rejuvenate™ ready to drink organic plant protein beverage and its convenient single serve sachets are now available online through Walgreens at walgreens.com. This online distribution is an extension of the current retail distribution with Walgreens in the United States, where Rejuvenate™ is available at over 8,000 Walgreens locations.

With 8,965 retail locations, serving over 9 million customers in store every day and over US$132 billion in revenue in fiscal 2021<sup>1</sup>, Walgreens is the second largest pharmacy chain in the United States. In February 2021, Element signed a distribution agreement with Walgreens to have its ready to drink organic plant protein beverages distributed across the United States. Shipments of Rejuvenate™ to Walgreens began in May 2021, reaching shelves in June 2021.

“Element has an aggressive distribution expansion strategy which includes both retail and online sales, and we are very pleased to be expanding our relationship with Walgreens to add online distribution. In less than a year into our partnership with Walgreens, we have significantly increased sales velocity and fulfilled many reorders for customers across the United States. This is a testament to the significant market opportunity for Rejuvenate™ and its proven efficacy at helping 45+ year old consumers live a healthy and active life by improving and maintaining muscle health as they age,” said Stuart Lowther, Chief Executive Officer.
