GOING CONCERN

This MD&A and the Financial Statements have been prepared on the basis that the Company will remain a going concern which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business for the Company's next fiscal year. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to generate future profitable operations and/or to obtain the necessary financing to meet its obligations and repay its liabilities arising from normal business operations when they come due.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED MAY 31, 2024, AND 2023

The Company has not advanced its property to commercial production and is not able to finance its day-to-day activities through operations. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon successful results from its mineral property exploration activities and its ability to attain profitable operations and generate funds there from and/or raise equity capital or borrowings sufficient to meet current and future obligations. Although the Company has been successful in the past in obtaining financing, there is no assurance that it will be able to obtain adequate financing in the future or that such financing will be on terms advantageous to the Company. Therefore, this indicates a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

As a result of the above, realization values may be substantially different from the carrying values shown and the Company's financial statements do not give effect to adjustments that would be necessary to the carrying values and classification of the assets and liabilities should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

In the event that the Company spends, in any of the above periods, less than the specified sum, it may pay to the Optionor the difference between the amount it actually spent and the specified sum before the expiry of that period in full satisfaction of the exploration expenditures to be incurred. In the event that the Company spends, in any period, more than the specified sum, the excess shall be carried forward and applied to the exploration expenditures to be incurred in succeeding periods.

Immediately on the Company satisfying all of the conditions, the Company will be deemed to have exercised the Option and to have earned a 75% interest in and to the Property which will vest to the Company, subject to the net smelter returns royalty ("NSR Royalty"). A NSR Royalty of two and a half percent (2.5%) is payable to a third party of net smelter returns from minerals mined and removed from the Property (payable pro-rata based on ownership interest in the Property).

The Company recorded a write-off of exploration and evaluation assets of $4,597,359 during the year ended May 31, 2024, on the Mann Lake property, reducing the capitalized cost of the project to $Nil. The impairment was recorded based on management's decision to fully impair the asset due to current financial commitments and the Company's focus on other high-priority projects. The impairment of $4,597,359 was recognized on the Company's statement of comprehensive loss for the year ended May 31, 2024.

Wray Mesa Project (Utah, USA)

On March 30, 2022, the Company announced that Basin's wholly-owned subsidiary, 1353906 B.C. Ltd., had completed a definitive agreement to amalgamate with 1290945 B.C. Ltd. 1290945 B.C. Ltd.'s principal asset is a 100% interest in the Wray Mesa project in San Juan County, Utah. The Property is comprised of 301 unpatented lode claims located in San Juan County, Utah. The acquisition had a completion date of May 10, 2022. Under the executed Definitive Agreement, Basin Uranium Corp. acquired all of the issued and outstanding securities of 1290945 B.C. Ltd. for 4,250,003 million shares of Basin Uranium Corp. as well as 250,000 shares to the original property vendor. The shares issued in conjunction to the acquisition will be subject to the following restrictions on transfer:

50% will be free trading on issuance with further tranches of 10% to be released monthly starting on the fifth month anniversary of closing. Basin will be required within 18-months of closing to complete a minimum $1.0 million exploration program on the Property. The property is subject to a 1.25% net smelter return (the "NSR") royalty on future production of which sixty percent of the royalty (being 0.75%) can be repurchased for $500,000 and the remaining forty percent of the royalty (being 0.5%) can be repurchased for $750,000.

On April 7, 2022, the Company entered into an option agreement to acquire a 100% interest in ten claims totaling 63 acres which lie inside of the Wray Mesa project in order to consolidate the land position. This brings the total lode claims to 308 equating to 6,282 acres of wholly owned or optioned claims. Through the option agreement the Company also acquired the Tessy project located in Fry Canyon, approximately 100 kilometers southwest of the Wray Mesa Project.

In exchange for option to acquire a 100% undivided interest in the Dylan, Ajax and Tessy Claims, the Company paid US$30,000 in cash and issued US$20,000 worth of shares. The Company will have 24 months of unencumbered access to the claims to conduct exploration activities, subject to maintaining the claims in good standing, with the option to purchase the claims for US $250,000 in cash or shares, at the election of the vendor.

On October 16, 2023 the company announced that it has entered into an option agreement (the "Option Agreement") with Nexus Uranium Corp. (CSE: NEXU) ("Nexus Uranium") for Nexus Uranium to acquire up to a 90%-interest in the Wray Mesa uranium project in Utah, USA.

Under the terms of the Option Agreement between Basin Uranium Corp. and Nexus Uranium Corp., Nexus Uranium is committed to the following:

Nexus Uranium will have the right to acquire up to a 90% interest in the project through staged cash, share, and work commitments, as follows:

- i) To earn an initial 51% interest in the project, Nexus Uranium must pay C$50,000 in cash and issue 300,000 shares within five days of approval from the Canadian Securities Exchange and incur US$250,000 in exploration expenses within the first year.
- ii) Additionally, by the end of the second year, Nexus Uranium must pay C$100,000 in cash, issue C$250,000 worth of stock, and incur US$500,000 in exploration expenses.
- iii) Once the 51% earn-in has been completed, Nexus Uranium has the option to earn an additional 20% interest (for a total of 71%) through an additional payment of C$75,000 in cash, issuing C$250,000 worth of stock, and incurring US$1,000,000 in exploration expenses by the end of the third year.
- iv) Assuming the completion of a 71% earn-in, Nexus Uranium can earn a further 19% interest (for a total of 90%) through the payment of C$75,000 in cash, issuing C$250,000 worth of stock, and incurring US$1,000,000 in exploration expenses by the end of the fourth year.

While Nexus Uranium had optioned a portion of the Wray Mesa property, with plans to contribute over $4,700,000 CAD in cash, shares, and exploration expenditures, they ultimately decided not to continue with the agreement.

The Company entered into an option agreement with JL Energy LLC on April 7, 2022, to acquire a 100% interest in the Skeet Claims, which total ten claims within the Wray Mesa project. This agreement aimed to consolidate the broader Wray Mesa land package in San Juan County, Utah. However, as of May 31, 2024, the Company has determined that the Skeet Claims no longer align with its strategic objectives, leading to the decision not to renew the option agreement with JL Energy LLC. The decision was influenced by several factors, including a challenging economic climate and the Company's redirection of resources toward higher-priority claims, such as the Dylan, Ajax, Carlin & Whiskey claims out of 301 claims only 47 claims are being renewed.

The Company recorded an impairment of exploration and evaluation assets of $667,987 during the year ended May 31, 2024, including of $132,188 on the Skeet portion of the Wray Mesa property and an additional impairment of $535,799 as per the option agreement with Nexus Uranium reducing the capitalized cost of the project to $814,327. The impairment of $667,987 was recognized on the Company's statement of comprehensive loss for the year ended May 31, 2024.

Under the terms of the Agreement, the Company is required to make payments and incur the minimum required expenditures in accordance with the following payment schedule in order to earn a 60% interest:

During the year ended May 31, 2023, The Company issued 100,000 shares, as per the amended agreement on February 2, 2023, to maintain compliance with the agreement's terms.

Wolf Canyon Project, (South Dakota)

On February 7, 2024, Basin Uranium staked 80 unpatented mineral lode claims on the Wolf Canyon Uranium Project, covering 1,600 acres in Fall River County, South Dakota.

South Pass Project, (Wyoming)

The company expanded its portfolio by directly staking 151 unpatented mineral lode claims across 3,775 acres for the South Pass Property Uranium Project, acquired on December 6, 2023. During the year, the Company also staked 104 claims under the GBP region located in the South Pass project. These claims are part of the Company's ongoing exploration efforts to identify and develop potential mineral resources in the area.

Exploration and Outlook

The Wray Mesa Project consists of 308 unpatented lode claims totaling 6,282 acres of wholly owned and optioned claims (option to earn a 100% interest) contiguous to and adjoining Energy Fuel's (EFT-T, UUUU-NYSE) fully permitted and production ready La Sal project which includes a number past-producing uranium and vanadium mines. The Property is located 40 miles southeast of Moab Utah accessible via Utah State Highway 46 and unpaved Forest Service Roads, with access to power, water and proximal to the town of La Sal.

Uranium and vanadium production in the district dates to the early 1900's with the majority of the production derived from the Upper Salt Wash Member of the Morrison Formation (the 'Formation'). Work by previous operators discovered multiple areas of uranium-vanadium mineralization in the same geologic formation that accounted for the majority of production in the district (Upper Salt Wash Member of the Morrison Formation).

Mineralization on the property occurs at depths of 500 to 750 feet with the drill-defined mineralization ranging from 25 to 75 feet in thickness. Mineralization is typical sandstone-hosted tabular deposits wherein the uranium occurs in reduced and altered sandstones and sandstone-mudstones in major stream channels in the Formation. Historical work dates back to Atlas Minerals and Pioneer Uranium in 1976 to 1983, who drilled a total of 495 exploration holes (of which logs for 193 holes totaling 137,510 feet or 41,913 metres were preserved), and Homeland Uranium in 2007-2008 who drilled 15 holes.

At the time of writing this MDA Basin has received drill permits, including drill road access and site preparation for the Wray Mesa and is permitted for up to 49 drill holes from the Bureau of Land Management and the State of Utah. A maiden drill program is now being finalized by Nexus Uranium Corporation (CSE:NEXU) (formerly Golden Independence Mining Corporation) and will focus on confirming and expanding known mineralized occurrences at Wray Mesa.

See news releases dated January 27, March 30, April 7, May 10, September 27, 2022, and October 16, 2023 for additional details on Wray Mesa please see the Company's profile on www.SEDAR.com and the Company's website at: www.basinuranium.ca

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Refer to Note 12 of the Company's financial statements for the year ended May 31, 2024 and 2023.

RISK FACTORS

The Company's business is subject to the risks set out below. Please see the section titled "Risk Factors" in the Company's Prospectus for additional risk factors.

Financing of Existing and Future Operations

With no source of revenue, the Company has negative cash flow from operations and raises funds for operations through equity financings. The Company's ability to raise funds for existing and continuing operations and future exploration and development of its properties cannot be guaranteed.

Mining Industry

The exploration for and development of mineral deposits involves significant risks, which even a combination of careful evaluation, experience and knowledge may not eliminate. While the discovery of an ore body may result in substantial rewards, few properties which are explored are ultimately developed into producing mines. Major expenses may be required to establish ore reserves, to develop metallurgical processes and to construct mining and processing facilities at a particular site. It is impossible to ensure that any exploration programs planned by the Company will result in a profitable commercial mining operation. Whether a mining deposit will be commercially viable depends on a number of factors, some of which are the particular attributes of the deposit, such as size, grade and proximity to infrastructure, as well as metal prices which are highly cyclical and government regulations, including regulations relating to prices, taxes, royalties, land tenure, land use, importing and exporting of minerals and environmental protection.

The exact effect of these factors cannot be accurately predicted, but the combination of these factors may result in the Company not receiving an adequate return on invested capital. Mining operations generally involve a high degree of risk. The Company's operations are subject to all the hazards and risks normally encountered in the exploration, development and production of ore, including unusual and unexpected geology formations, rock bursts, cave-ins, flooding and other conditions involved in the drilling and removal of material, any of which could result in damage to, or destruction of, mines and other producing facilities, damage to life or property, environmental damage and possible legal liability. Although adequate precautions to minimize risk will be taken, milling operations are subject to hazards such as equipment failure or failure of retaining dams around tailings disposal areas, which may result in environmental pollution and consequent liability.

BASIN URANIUM CORP.

The Company's mineral exploration activities are directed towards the exploration, evaluation and development of mineral deposits. There is no certainty that the expenditures to be made by the Company as described herein will result in discoveries of commercially viable quantities of ore. There is aggressive competition within the mining industry for the discovery and acquisition of properties considered to have commercial potential. The Company will compete with other interests, many of which have greater financial resources than it will have for the opportunity to participate in promising projects. Significant capital investment is required to achieve commercial production from successful exploration efforts.

Government Regulation

The exploration activities of the Company are subject to various federal, provincial and local laws governing prospecting, development, production, taxes, labour standards and occupational health, mine safety, toxic substance and other matters. Exploration activities are also subject to various federal, provincial and local laws and regulations relating to the protection of the environment. These laws mandate, among other things, the maintenance of air and water quality standards, and land reclamation. These laws also set forth limitations on the generation, transportation, storage and disposal of solid and hazardous waste.

Although the Company's exploration activities are currently carried out in accordance with all applicable rules and regulations, no assurance can be given that new rules and regulations will not be enacted or that existing rules and regulations will not be applied in a manner which could limit or curtail production or development. Amendments to current laws and regulations governing operations and activities of exploration, mining and milling or more stringent implementation thereof could have a substantial adverse impact on the Company.

Permits and Licenses

The exploitation and development of mineral properties may require the Company to obtain regulatory or other permits and licenses from various governmental licensing bodies. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain all necessary permits and licenses that may be required to carry out exploration, development and mining operations on its properties.

Environmental Risks and Hazards

All phases of the Company's mineral exploration operations are subject to environmental regulation in jurisdictions in which it operates. Environmental legislation is evolving in a manner which will require stricter standards and enforcement, increased fines and penalties for non-compliance, more stringent environmental assessments of proposed projects and a heightened degree of responsibility for companies and their officers, directors and employees.

There is no assurance that future changes in environmental regulation, if any, will not adversely affect the Company's operations. Environmental hazards may exist on the properties on which the Company holds interests which are unknown to the Company at present, which have been caused, by previous or existing owners or operators of the properties. The Company may become liable for such environmental hazards caused by previous owners and operators of the properties even where it has attempted to contractually limit its liability. Government approvals and permits are currently, and may in the future be, required in connection with the Company's operations. To the extent such approvals are required and not obtained; the Company may be curtailed or prohibited from proceeding with planned exploration or development of mineral properties.

Failure to comply with applicable laws, regulations and permitting requirements may result in enforcement actions there under, including orders issued by regulatory or judicial authorities causing operations to cease or be curtailed and may include corrective measures requiring capital expenditures, installation of additional equipment, or remedial actions. Parties engaged in mining operations may be required to compensate those suffering loss or damage by reason of the mining activities and may have civil or criminal fines or penalties imposed for violations of applicable laws or regulations.

Reliance on Key Personnel

The senior officers of the Company are critical to its success. In the event of the departure of a senior officer, the Company believes that it will be successful in attracting and retaining qualified successors but there can be no assurance of such success. Recruiting qualified personnel as the Company grows is critical to its success. The number of persons skilled in the acquisition, exploration and development of mining properties is limited and competition for such persons is intense. As the Company's business activity grows, it will require additional key financial, administrative, engineering, geological and mining personnel as well as additional operations staff. If the Company is not successful in attracting and training qualified personnel, the efficiency of its operations could be affected, which could have an adverse impact on future cash flows, earnings, results of operations and the financial condition of the Company. The Company is particularly at risk at this stage of its development as it relies on a small management team, the loss of any member of which could cause severe adverse consequences.

Conflicts of Interest

The Company's directors and officers are or may become directors or officers of other mineral resource companies or reporting issuers or may acquire or have significant shareholdings in other mineral resource companies and, to the extent that such other companies may participate in ventures in which The Company may, or may also wish to participate, the directors and officers of the Company may have a conflict of interest with respect to such opportunities or in negotiating and concluding terms respecting the extent of such participation. The Company and its directors and officers will attempt to minimize such conflicts. If such a conflict of interest arises at a meeting of the directors of the Company, a director who has such a conflict will abstain from voting for or against the approval of such participation or such terms. In appropriate cases the Company will establish a special committee of independent directors to review a matter in which several directors, or officers, may have a conflict. In determining whether or not the Company will participate in a particular program and the interest to be acquired by it, the directors will primarily consider the potential benefits to the Company, the degree of risk to which the Company may be exposed and its financial position at that time. Other than as indicated, the Company has no other procedures or mechanisms to deal with conflicts of interest.
