

Mary Agrotech Obtains DTC Eligibility for Its Common Shares in the U.S.

Markham, Ontario--(Newsfile Corp. - September 21, 2021) - Mary Agrotechnologies Inc. (CSE: MARY) (OTCQB: MRRYF) ("Mary Agrotech" or "the Company") is pleased to announce that the Company's common shares traded on the OTCQB Venture Market in the United States, under the symbol "MRRYF", are now Depository Trust Company ("DTC") eligible. DTC is a subsidiary of the Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation and manages the electronic clearing and settlement of share transactions for publicly-traded companies in the United States. This electronic method of clearing securities accelerates the settlement process for investors and brokers, enabling a security to be traded over a much wider selection of brokerage firms in the United States.

"We are pleased to have gained DTC eligibility for Mary Agrotech's Common Shares in the U.S.", said Frank Qin, CEO of the Company. "DTC eligibility will enhance our liquidity and exposure to investors from the U.S. and we are excited about the prospect of spreading our story to the U.S. capital markets as we continue on our path towards increasing the presence of our technology in automated agriculture, controlled-environment agriculture, and the vertical farming space."
