Forward-Looking Information

This news release contains "forward-looking information" within the meaning of applicable Canadian securities legislation, including in relation to the Company’s intention to complete the issuance of the Notes and the Private Placement. Generally, forward-looking information can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "plans", "expects" or "does not expect", "is expected", "budget", "scheduled", "estimates", "forecasts", "intends", "anticipates" or "does not anticipate", or "believes", or variations of such words and phrases or state that certain acts, events or results "may", "could", "would", "might" or "will be taken", "occur" or "be achieved". Forward-looking information is subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the actual results, level of activity, performance or achievements of the Company, as the case may be, to be materially different from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking information, including the risks that the issuance of the Notes or the completion of the Private Placement may not occur as contemplated or at all. Although the Company has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in forward-looking information, there may be other factors that cause results not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended. There can be no assurance that such information will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking information. Actual results and developments may differ materially from those contemplated by these statements depending on, among other things, the risks that the Company may terminate and not proceed with the issuance of the Notes and/or the Private Placement, or that the issuance of the Notes and/or Private Placement will not be successfully completed for any reason (including failure to obtain the required acceptance from the Canadian Securities Exchange). The Company does not undertake to update any forward-looking information, except in accordance with applicable securities laws.
