"The Save On Foods order is a significant milestone as we rapidly expand the Boosh brand throughout Canada and the US," states Connie Marples, founder and president of Boosh. "This order now places Boosh in over 600 stores throughout Canada and growing. I firmly believe we're on track to be selling Boosh in over 1,000 grocery stores in Canada by year end."

"This is a huge win and catalyst for Boosh," states TJ Walch, head of North American sales. "Frozen space continues to be competitive real estate, even with retailers converting more square footage to the frozen section. Orders like these are truly a testament that Boosh has the right plant-based products and innovation retailers, especially sophisticated retailers like Save On Foods, are searching for."
