[redacted]

(the “Executive”)

(collectively referred to as the “Parties”)

WHEREAS the Company wishes to continue to employ the Executive, and the Executive wishes to continue to be employed by the Company.

THEREFORE, the Parties agree as follows:

SECTION 1: DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1.1 POSITION

Starting on May 1st, 2021 the Executive will be employed by the Company as its Chief Operations Officer but all time-based entitlements and perquisites (e.g. vacation and termination notice) will be calculated from the Executive’s first day of work with the Company or one of its affiliated entities, which was September 15th 2020 the “Start Date”). The Executive will carry out those duties, responsibilities and reporting requirements which are ordinarily expected of a COO and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned by the CEO or his designate.

Given the nature of the Company’s business and the business environment in which it operates, the way the Company conducts business and/or the Executive’s job may evolve and change over time. Accordingly, the Company may add to or remove from the Executive's duties and responsibilities as circumstances change and this Agreement will continue to apply to the Executive.

1.2 REASSIGNMENT

The Company may at its sole discretion re-assign the Executive to another position within the Company, or within a subsidiary, affiliate or related corporate entity of the Company (an "Affiliate") so long as the position to which the Executive is assigned is substantially comparable or better than the position held immediately prior to such reassignment. Subject to this restriction, the Executive may be employed in such other capacities or locations as the Company may reasonably require. The Company may also at its sole discretion place the Executive on paid administrative leave in order to complete an investigation or while attempting to resolve a dispute between the Parties. The Executive acknowledges that a re-assignment or paid administrative leave pursuant to this Agreement will not constitute or be relied upon to assert a constructive dismissal or termination of the Executive's employment by the Company.

1.3 FULL TIME AND ATTENTION AND FIDUCIARY

The Executive shall devote full working time and attention and shall exert best efforts, knowledge, skill and energy in the performance of the Executive's duties with the Company. The Executive may from time to time serve as a director and/or officer of the Company or an Affiliate without further compensation. While an employee of the Company, the Executive will not, without obtaining the prior written consent of the Company, assume any other employment or engage in any other business or occupation or become a director, officer, employee, agent or consultant for any other company, firm or individual.

The Executive is a fiduciary of the Company and shall act at all times in the Company's best interests.

1.4 TRAVEL

The Executive shall be available for such business-related travel as may be required to perform the Executive's responsibilities.

1.5 COMPLIANCE WITH RULES AND POLICIES

The Executive will comply with all Company rules and policies, including any Company Code of Conduct, where applicable.

The Company may, from time to time, amend, alter, change, delete or establish new rules and policies (collectively, the "Revised Policies") to meet the business needs of the enterprise. The Executive agrees that, immediately upon receiving notice of such Revised Policies, the Executive's employment will be governed by such Revised Policies.

SECTION 2: REMUNERATION

For all services rendered by the Executive:

2.1 BASE SALARY

The Executive will be paid an annual salary in the amount of $128,000 (the “Base Salary”), payable in accordance with the Company’s payroll practices, as may be amended from time to time. Future increases in Base Salary (if any) will be at the sole discretion of the Company.

2.2 BONUS

- (a) Bonuses, if any, that the Executive may receive may vary significantly from year to year. There is no representation that a Bonus in one year will be comparable to another year. There is no implied term that, if the amount of any Bonus is lower in any subsequent year, the Company will compensate the Executive for such difference. Under no circumstances is the Bonus to be considered part of the Executive’s Base Salary or other regular employment income.
- (b) The Executive will not be eligible to receive the Bonus if notice of termination or resignation is given prior to the date on which the Bonus is declared and any damages representing pay in lieu of such notice will not include any amount in respect of a Bonus, subject to the Executive’s minimum entitlements pursuant to the employment standards legislation applicable to the Executive’s employment, as such legislation may be amended or replaced (all such applicable legislation referred to as the “Act”).

2.3 STOCK OPTIONS

- (a) The Executive shall be eligible to participate in the Company’s Stock Option Plan, as approved by the Board and as amended from time to time (the “Stock Option Plan”). The vesting of stock options (“Options”), and the subsequent exercise of such Options shall be governed in all respects by the Stock Option Plan and the grant documents.
- (b) The Board may, in its sole discretion, from time to time, not grant any awards under, amend, alter or discontinue the Stock Option Plan or establish new Stock Option Plans.
- (c) For the purposes of this section and the Company’s Stock Option Plan, the date of termination of services or employment shall be the date on which notice of termination or resignation is given and any damages representing pay in lieu of such notice will not include any amount in respect of lost entitlements under the Stock Option Plan, subject to the Executive’s minimum entitlements pursuant to the Act.

In the event of any conflict between the terms of this section and the terms of the Stock Option Plan in respect of the date of termination of employment, this section shall govern.

2.4 BENEFITS

The Executive will be eligible to participate in the Company's benefit plans, if any, including medical, dental, vision, life, and long-term disability insurance, which are offered to other employees of the Company at the Executive's level (the "Benefit Plans"), subject to the terms and conditions set out in the Benefit Plan policies. Where applicable, copies of the current Benefit Plans shall be made available upon request. Some Benefit Plans may include compulsory employee participation and employee contributions at levels determined by the Company. The Company regularly reviews the Benefit Plans, as well as its insurance carriers, and accordingly, reserves the right to amend or discontinue the Benefit Plans and change its insurance carriers if deemed appropriate and without advance notice to the Executive.

2.5 VACATION

The Executive's annual vacation entitlement will be 3 weeks per calendar year. Such entitlement will be prorated for the calendar year in which the Executive commences employment and for any other year of partial employment. Payment of all vacation pay will be at Base Salary. The Executive is required to arrange vacation time to suit the needs of the Company and vacation dates are subject to prior approval by the Company. Unused vacation time will not be paid out or carried over to the following year(s) but will be forfeited, subject to the Executive being paid annually the minimum vacation time and vacation pay required under the Act.

2.6 EXPENSES

The Company agrees to reimburse the Executive for any reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred in the course of employment. Reimbursement will be conditional upon the Executive providing an itemized account and receipts, and, where applicable, subject to the Company's reimbursement of expense policy, as it may exist from time to time, and any other procedure established by the Board or its Audit Committee that shall apply to the Executive.

SECTION 3: TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

3.1 TERMINATION BY THE COMPANY FOR CAUSE

The Company may terminate this Agreement and the Executive's employment at any time for Cause, without providing the Executive with advance notice of termination, pay in lieu of such notice, or any form of severance pay, unless required by the Act. The Company will only pay the Executive's Base Salary and accrued vacation pay up to the date of termination or vacation pay owing under the Act and will comply with any obligations under the Act.

For the purpose of section 3.1, "Cause" shall mean any grounds at common law for which an employer is entitled to dismiss an employee summarily, and shall mean, without limitation, the following:

- (a) the Executive's breach of a material term of this Agreement;
- (b) the Executive's repeated failure to perform the material duties of the Executive's position in a competent manner;
- (c) the conviction of the Executive for a criminal offence involving fraud or dishonesty, or which otherwise adversely impacts the reputation of the Company;
- (d) the Executive or any member of the Executive's immediate family making personal profit out of or in connection with a transaction or business opportunity with which the Company is involved or otherwise associated, without making disclosure to and seeking the prior written consent of the Company;
- (e) the Executive's failure to act honestly and in the best interests of the Company;
- (f) the Executive's failure to comply with any Company rules or policies of a material nature;
- (g) the Executive's failure to obey reasonable instructions provided to the Executive in the course of employment, within five (5) calendar days of receiving written notice of such disobedience from the Board; or
- (h) any actions or omissions on the part of the Executive constituting gross misconduct or negligence resulting in material harm to the Company.

3.2 DEATH

If the Executive dies, the Executive's employment will automatically terminate and neither the Executive nor the Executive's estate will be entitled to receive any further remuneration pursuant to the terms of this Agreement other than those which have accrued up to the date of termination and any benefits that may be payable in accordance with the Company's Benefit Plans, where applicable.

3.3 FRUSTRATION OF EMPLOYMENT

If the Executive is unable to perform the Executive's essential employment related duties for a period of more than either three (3) consecutive months, or six (6) months in the aggregate during any twelve (12) month period, and there is no reasonable prospect that the Executive will be able to perform the essential duties of the Executive's position with or without accommodation in the reasonable foreseeable future, any future absence by the Executive will constitute undue hardship for the Company and the Executive's employment shall be deemed frustrated and terminated. The Company will only be required to provide the Executive's Base Salary and vacation pay up to the date of termination, and any payments that may be required to comply with the Act. The Company will not be required to provide any form of advance notice of termination, pay in lieu of such notice, or any form of severance pay, whether under contract or at common law. Failure by the Company to strictly rely upon this provision in any given instance or instances, shall not in any way constitute a waiver of the Company's rights as stated in this section.

3.4 TERMINATION BY THE COMPANY WITHOUT CAUSE

- (a) If the Company terminates the Executive's employment without cause, the Company will provide the Executive with the following:
 - (i) such minimum notice (or pay in lieu thereof), severance pay (if applicable), continuation of benefits (if any), accrual of vacation and any other payments and entitlements that may be specifically prescribed by the Act;
- (b) Any payments or entitlements in excess of the minimum notice (or pay in lieu thereof), severance pay (if applicable), continuation of benefits (if any), accrual of vacation and any other payments and entitlements that may be specifically prescribed by the Act shall be conditional:
 - (i) upon the Executive's execution of a written full and final release and indemnity in favour of the Company as prepared by the Company and delivered by the Executive to a Company representative prior to or by the last day of the minimum notice period noted in 3.4(a)(i), if applicable, or on such other date as determined by the Company, which shall not be earlier than the minimum notice; and
 - (ii) the Executive's continued performance of the Executive's assigned duties and responsibilities in a fully satisfactory manner to the Company up to the last day of active employment with the Company. This includes co-operating with the Company at all times to ensure the efficient and amicable transition of the duties and responsibilities of the Executive's position to the successor.

The Executive shall have no further or other entitlements in regard to such termination. To be clear, the arrangements provided for in this provision shall be in full and final settlement of any entitlement the Executive may have to notice of termination (or pay in lieu thereof), severance pay (if applicable), continuation of benefits (if any), accrual of vacation and any other payments and entitlements, whether arising under statute, contract, common law or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, in no event will the Executive receive less than the Executive's minimum entitlements to notice of termination (or pay in lieu thereof), severance pay (if applicable), accrual of vacation, continuation of benefits (if any), and any other payments and entitlements pursuant to the Act.

3.5 TERMINATION BY EXECUTIVE WITH NOTICE

The Executive may retire or resign upon giving a minimum of 90 days' advance written notice to the Company (the "Resignation Period"). The Company may, at its discretion, in writing, waive in whole or in part such notice and, in such case, the Resignation Period shall end on the date selected by the Company. The Executive will not be entitled to receive any further compensation or benefits whatsoever other than those which have accrued up to the Executive's last day of active service with the Company.

During the Resignation Period:

- (a) The Executive will be expected to work and complete any transitional activities required by the Company;
- (b) The Company may at any time relieve the Executive, in its sole discretion, from all or any of the Executive's duties and powers (which may include requiring the Executive to perform any modified duties at such locations as the Company may require) for such periods and on such terms as it considers expedient;
- (c) The Company may require that the Executive remain away from all or any of the Company's premises and have no business contact with all or any of the Company's agents, employees, customers, clients, distributors and suppliers;
- (d) Regardless of whether or not the Company relieves the Executive from all or any of the Executive's duties and powers, during the Resignation Period: the Executive will be paid the Executive's Base Salary, and will continue to participate in the Benefit Plans, in accordance with this Agreement; the Executive's employment will continue and the Executive's will continue to be bound by the Executive's obligations under this Agreement (including his obligation to cooperate in transitional matters);
- (e) The Executive will keep the Executive's resignation confidential and will not disclose the Executive's resignation or any post-employment activities and will not permit any third party to disclose the Executive's resignation or post-employment activities without first obtaining written permission from the Company; and
- (f) The Executive will be prohibited from engaging in any other employment.

For the purposes of the Executive's post-employment obligations, termination of the Executive's employment shall be deemed to occur on the last day of the Resignation Period.
