

Nabati Cheese Now Distributed Throughout the U.S. Via KeHE

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, Oct. 19, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Nabati Foods Global Inc. (CSE: MEAL) ("Nabati Foods" or the "Company"), a plant-based food technology company offering whole, natural, plant-based foods for health-conscious consumers, is announcing that major natural organic grocery distributor KeHE will begin distributing Nabati Cheese™ to retail stores in October. Nabati Cheese™ is dairy-free, soy-free, plant-based, and made with whole, natural ingredients; it is available in mozzarella-style and cheddar-style.

KeHE is a national wholesale food distributor that works with grocery stores, supermarkets, vitamin and beauty retailers, and online vendors. It has 16 robust distribution centers throughout North America. It currently distributes Nabati's four dairy-free cheesecakes flavors to 433 stores across the United States.

"We originally created Nabati Cheese™ because we wanted to create a plant-based pizza that didn't feel like a trade-off. To us, everything else on the market didn't quite cut it, be it the flavor or texture or the long, incomprehensible ingredient lists," said Nabati Foods CEO Ahmad Yehya. "We have created a product that mirrors the same texture and consistency as dairy cheese, and even melts just like dairy cheese."

Nabati Foods products are served across North America and internationally via grocery, foodservice, and industrial channels. All Nabati products are kosher, vegan, egg-free, dairy-free, gluten-free, and made without GMOs or refined sugar.

Nabati Cheese™ is produced without casein or soy and can be enjoyed in both hot and cold dishes. It is made with organic potato starch and isolated pea protein. Nabati Cheese has 70 calories per serving with two grams of carbohydrates, and zero sugar.

"Working with an experienced distribution partner such as KeHE will help us to reach more grocery partners and expand our retail footprint across North America," Yehya said. "We are very excited to be expanding our partnership with KeHE to bring Nabati Cheese to more consumers across the U.S."
