

NEWS RELEASE

Xebra's Shares Now Listed on The Frankfurt Stock Exchange and Applications Submitted to Trade in The United States

Vancouver, BC, Canada, October 27, 2021, Xebra Brands Ltd. ("Xebra") (XBRA: CSE) (9YC: FSE), a cannabis company, is pleased to announce it has commenced trading on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange under the trading symbol 9YC. The common shares of Xebra are now cross-listed on the Canadian Securities Exchange (CSE), and the Frankfurt Stock Exchange (FSE).

Xebra's President, Rodrigo Gallardo, stated, "Since listing on the CSE, we have made it a priority to have our shares available to investors outside of Canada. Listing on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange is an important milestone in accomplishing this goal."

The FSE is not only the largest exchange in Germany it is also considered one of the world's largest trading centers for securities. Xebra anticipates the FSE listing will provide increased liquidity and significantly broaden its investor base throughout Europe.

Xebra has also submitted an application to the OTC Markets Group to obtain a listing in the United States. In addition, Xebra has completed an application for DTC eligibility, which is intended to be submitted to the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) imminently. Xebra estimates that its common shares may possibly start trading on the OTC Pink by the end of November 2021. Xebra also intends to upgrade to OTCQB immediately thereafter.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD:

All statements, other than statements of historical facts, are forward-looking information and statements. The words "aim", "believe", "expect", "anticipate", "contemplate", "target", "intends", "continue", "plans", "budget", "estimate", "may", "will", and similar expressions identify forward-looking information and statements. Forward-looking statements are necessarily based upon a number of estimates and assumptions that, while considered reasonable by XEBRA as of the dates of such statements, are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies. Known and unknown factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to, the inability of XEBRA to generate sufficient revenues or to raise sufficient funds to carry out its business plan; the inability of Xebra to list its shares for trading on a stock exchange; changes in government legislation, taxation, controls, regulations and political or economic developments in various countries; risks associated with agriculture and cultivation activities generally, including inclement weather, access to supply of seeds, poor crop yields, and spoilage; compliance with import and export laws of various countries; significant fluctuations in cannabis prices and transportation costs; the risk of obtaining necessary licenses and permits; inability to identify, negotiate and complete a potential acquisition for any reason; the ability to retain key employees; dependence on third parties for services and supplies; non-performance by contractual counter-parties; general economic conditions; and the continued growth in global demand for cannabis products and the continued increase in jurisdictions legalizing cannabis; and the timely receipt of regulatory approval for license applications. The foregoing list is not exhaustive and XEBRA undertakes no obligation to update or revise any of the foregoing except as required by law. Many of these uncertainties and contingencies could affect XEBRA's actual performance and cause its actual performance to differ materially from what has been expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements made by, or on behalf of, XEBRA. Readers are cautioned that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and readers should not place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. There can be no assurance that such statements will prove to be accurate and actual results and future events could differ materially from those set out in such statements.*
