Notes:

- (1) The Company will pay to the Agent a cash commission equal to 6.0% of the gross proceeds of the Offering (including gross proceeds from the exercise of the Over-Allotment Option (as defined herein)) (the "Agent's Commission") and a 2.0% advisory fee (the "Advisory Fee", and collectively with the Agent's Commission, the "Agent's Fees"), provided that no Agent's Commission will be payable for Units sold by the Agent to certain purchasers designated by the Company on the president's list (the "President's List"). As an additional compensation, the Company will also issue to the Agent compensation options (the "Compensation Options") and advisory options (the "Advisory Options", and collectively with the Compensation Options, the "Agent's Options"). The Compensation Options entitle the Agent to purchase such number of Common Shares as is equal to 6.0% of the total number of Units, provided that no Compensation Options will be issued to the Agent in respect of purchasers on the President's List, and the Advisory Options entitle the Agent to purchase that number of Common Shares as is equal to 2.0% of the total number of Units, sold under the Offering at an exercise price of $0.70 per Common Share for a period of 24 months from the Closing Date. In addition, the Agent will receive a corporate finance fee (the "Corporate Finance Fee") of $30,000.00 plus applicable taxes payable in Units priced at the Offering, plus GST payable in cash on the Closing Date. The Company will also pay the reasonable costs and expenses of the Agent related to the Offering. See "Plan of Distribution".
- (2) The Company has granted to the Agent an option (the "Over-Allotment Option") to offer for sale additional Units (the "Additional Units") exercisable at a price per Additional Unit equal to $0.45 for a period of 30 calendar days following the Closing Date on the same terms and conditions as the Offering. The number of Additional Units issuable upon exercise of the Over-Allotment Option is up to 15% of the number of Units sold pursuant to the Offering. If the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full, the total price to the public, Agent's Fees and net proceeds to the Company (before payment of the expenses of the Offering) will be $4,025,000.12, $322,000.01 and $3,703,000.12 respectively assuming no Units are purchased by President's List Subscribers. This Prospectus also qualifies the grant of the Over-Allotment Option, the distribution of up to 1,166,667 Additional Units and up to an additional 93,333 Agent's Options and Agent's Options pursuant to the Over-Allotment Option. A purchaser who acquires Additional Units shall acquire the Additional Units under this Prospectus, regardless of whether the Additional Units are acquired through the exercise of the Over-Allotment Option or secondary market purchases.
- (3) After deducting the Agent's Fees, but before deducting the estimated expenses of the Offering of up to $35,000.00 plus applicable taxes and disbursements, which expenses will be paid from the proceeds of the Offering.
- (4) Assumes no exercise of the Over-Allotment Option.

There is no market through which these securities may be sold and purchasers may not be able to resell securities purchased under this Prospectus. This may affect the pricing of the securities in the secondary market, the transparency and availability of trading prices, the liquidity of the securities, and the extent of issuer regulation. See "Risk Factors".

As at the date of this Prospectus, the Company does not have any of its securities listed or quoted, has not applied to list or quote any of its securities, and does not intend to apply to list or quote any of its securities, on the Toronto Stock Exchange, Aequitas NEO Exchange Inc., a U.S. marketplace, or a marketplace outside Canada and the United States of America other than the Alternative Investment Market of the London Stock Exchange or the PLUS markets operated by PLUS Markets Group plc.

The Company has applied to the CSE for conditional approval to list the common shares in the Capital of the Company (the "Common Shares"), including the Unit Shares, the Warrant Shares and the Agent's Option Shares (as defined herein) (the "Listing"). The Common Shares are anticipated to trade under the symbol "XONE", or such other symbol approved by the CSE. The listing will be subject to the Company fulfilling all of the listing conditions of the CSE. See "Plan of Distribution".

Potential investors are advised to consult their own legal counsel and other professional advisers in order to assess income tax, legal, and other aspects of this investment.

The Agent conditionally offers the Units on a commercially reasonable efforts basis in accordance with the conditions contained in the Agency Agreement referred to under “Plan of Distribution” and subject to approval of certain legal matters relating to the Offering on behalf of the Company by McMillan LLP and on behalf of the Agent by Vantage Law Corporation. The Units may only be sold in those jurisdictions where offers and sales are permitted. This Prospectus is not an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy the Units in any jurisdiction where it is unlawful to do so. See “Plan of Distribution”.

An investment in the Units is considered to be highly speculative due to the nature of the Company’s business, its present stage of development, and other risk factors. The Company has issued Common Shares during the private stage at prices substantially lower than the issue price of the Units offered hereby. As a result, investors will experience a substantial dilution of their investment. An investment in the Units is suitable for only those investors who are willing to risk a loss of their entire investment and who can afford to lose their entire investment. See “Risk Factors”.

The following table sets out the number of securities that may be issued by the Company to the Agent or offered for sale by the Agent:

Agent’s position	Maximum size or number of securities available	Exercise period	Exercise price
Compensation Options ⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾⁽⁴⁾	466,667 Common Shares	24 months from the Closing Date	$0.70

Notes:

- (1) This Prospectus also qualifies the grant of the Over-Allotment Option and distribution of the Agent’s Options and the Additional Units. See “Plan of Distribution”.
- (2) Pursuant to the Agency Agreement, the Agent will receive the Compensation Options to purchase that number of Common Shares as is equal to 6.0% of the total number of Units issued under the Offering, and the Advisory Options to purchase that number of Common Shares as is equal to 2.0% of the total number of Units issued under the Offering, subject to no Compensation Options being issued to the Agent in respect of purchasers on the President’s List. The Agent’s Options are exercisable into Common Shares at an exercise price of $0.70 per Common Share for a period of 24 months from the Closing Date. The Agent will be issued 466,667 Agent’s Options (536,667 Agent’s Options if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full).
- (3) Pursuant to the Agency Agreement, this Prospectus also qualifies the distribution of the Corporate Finance Fee in the amount of $30,000.00 payable in Units priced at the Offering (66,667 Units), plus GST payable in cash on closing of the Offering. See “Plan of Distribution”.
- (4) Assuming the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full and that no Additional Units are purchased by President’s List Subscribers.

It is expected that the Unit Shares, Warrants and Warrant Shares comprising the Units sold under the Offering will be issued in electronic book entry form through the Clearing and Depository Services Inc. (“CDS”) or its nominee. Consequently, purchasers of Units will receive a customer confirmation from the registered dealer that is a CDS participant from or through which the Units were purchased and no certificate evidencing the Unit Shares, Warrants or Warrant Shares will be issued. Registration will be made through the depository services of CDS. A purchaser of Units will receive only a customer confirmation from the registered dealer from or through which the Units were purchased as to the number of Unit Shares, Warrants and Warrant Shares subscribed for. Assuming completion of the Maximum Offering, if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full, the net proceeds of the Offering, after deducting the Agent’s Fees (assuming no Units are purchased by President’s List Subscribers) and the estimated expenses of the Offering of $90,000 (inclusive of up to $35,000 in expenses by the Agent plus applicable taxes and disbursements), are estimated to be $3,573,000.11. Notes:

- (4) Expenditures related to acquisitions may consist of the cash costs related to acquiring Shift Media and Tyrus, LLC and 1 year use of proceeds, as disclosed in this Prospectus; however, each of such transactions is subject to a number of conditions, including the completion of due diligence and entry into a definitive agreement, and may not occur as contemplated or at all. The Company is actively engaged in identifying potential assets to acquire that would add to its existing business.

If the Over-Allotment Option is exercised, the Company will use the additional proceeds for working capital. See "Use of Proceeds".

DESCRIPTION OF THE BUSINESS

Overview

X1 Esports is an esports portfolio company which owns and operates a growing esports franchise, RixGG. The Company's operations are primarily conducted in the United Kingdom ("U.K."); however, its administrative and head office is located in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada.

The business of the Company is the competitive playing of video games by teams for cash prizes, and operations ancillary to such competition, such as merchandising and the hosting of tournaments.

An esports franchise is a team of players, hired to play exclusively for the team and operating under a common brand. Esports organisations are analogous to traditional sports teams or franchises in that they are essentially entities skilled at recruiting, managing and signing player talent, then marketing that player talent to a fan base and monetising that fan base.

RixGG is currently focused on competitive gaming and merchandising, and is expanding into content creation. RixGG has been developing its commercial relationships, its overall brand and in-house marketing technology required to run a digitally based esports organisation.

Forward Agency Ltd. is, a corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of England and Wales, which functions as the entity providing compensation for players residing in the U.K. Concurrently, the prior officer incorporated Mechanics Agency Ltd., also corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of England and Wales, and subsequently transferred the entirety of the shares to the Company, making it a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. The UKCS Cup was hosted a total of 3 times from May to July 2021, providing amateur competition to UK CS:GO players. Each tournament featured a GBP 1,000 prize pool and was used to acquire users on RixGG's social media channels and community discord servers.

On April 16, 2021, the Company acquired RixGG, a limited liability company incorporated pursuant to the laws of Malta pursuant to an arm's length transaction. The Company issued 20,000,000 Common Shares (10,000,000 Common Shares on a post-Consolidation basis) to the owners of RixGG for the acquisition of the business, with the transaction being accounted for as a reverse takeover of the Company by RixGG shareholders. Prior to the acquisition of RixGG, the Company did not have an active business, and following its acquisition the business of RixGG became

The offered articles include apparel such as t-shirts, pants and hoodies with the RixGG Logo printed on it as well as other merchandise such as water bottles, lanyards and wristbands. On March 7, 2022, the Company entered into a non-binding term sheet with sole member of Tyrus, LLC, a limited liability company formed pursuant to the laws of the State of Wyoming, pursuant to which X1 Esports may acquire Tyrus, LLC for consideration consisting of US$250,000 payable in Common Shares at an issue price of CAD$0.45 per Common Share, cash consideration of US$150,000, and commitments to a bonus payment of US$100,000 on the achievement of certain milestones related to aggregate sales revenue of Tyrus, LLC for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022. It provides services including marketing, social media management, negotiation of sponsorships, and metric analysis. The term sheet is non-binding and completion of the transaction is subject to a number of conditions, including completion of diligence to the satisfaction of each of the parties, and negotiation and entry into a definitive agreement. The proposed acquisition of the assets comprising Shift Media would be an arm's length transaction.

Growth Strategy

The Company has completed several capital raises to fund the operations and expansion of its business in the industry.

At present, X1 Esports is focused on the growth and development of a wholly-owned esports franchise, RixGG. RixGG is a growing esports organization in the U.K. and was established in 2020 with the goal of becoming a global Tier 1 esports organization. During 2021, RixGG's Twitter followers grew from 1,100 to 9,570. This Twitter follower increase resulted in an overall user impressions increase from 2.5 million to 17.1 million during 2021. The Company views impressions as a material metric for its Twitter marketing strategy due to the role this metric has in sizing sponsorship agreements. The Company currently does not have any sponsorship agreements, but obtaining sponsors remains part of the Company's growth strategy. As at March 21, 2022, RixGG's Twitter has 10,322 followers.

Expected growth will be through RixGG, its competitive esports team, with revenues currently being driven by tournament victories and merchandising sales, and an expectation that future revenue may be generated from sponsorships and partnerships, advertising, the expansion of our merchandise offerings and licensing of the brand to retail stores, as well as player transfers. The industry is uniquely positioned to capitalize on sponsorships as the sponsorship partners would have access to global markets due to the online nature of the industry, reducing the geographic limitations of fan bases that are found in the world of traditional sports. The Company intends to engage with potential sponsors, and anticipates offering the following:

- rights in respect of the Company’s brand, logo and other intellectual property;
- rights in respect of the Company’s players’ and coaches’ imagery;
- exposure on company social media profiles and websites; and
- exposure on team apparel, merchandise and interview backdrops.

To date, the Company’s revenue has been derived primarily from player transfers of RixGG and prize money from tournaments. As part of the Company’s growth strategy, in addition to these revenue streams, the Company will focused on establishing sponsorship agreements, merchandising and licensing of the brand, and content creation.

Should the Company complete its acquisition of Tyrus, LLC, or the acquisition of the assets comprising the business known as “Shift Media”, such acquisition would mark the expansion of the Company’s operations into the United States.

See “Use of Proceeds” for a discussion of the time periods and costs expected to be incurred to achieve the Company’s primary business objectives over the next 12 months, and “Business Objectives and Milestones” for the Company’s strategy to achieve the growth outlined above.

Sales and Marketing

A principal form of advertising conducted by the Company is the selective targeting of esports fans through the use of social media influencers, who can bring attention to the RixGG team. Influencers are individuals who are popular among the gaming community and have large followings on social media. The goal is to convert those followings into RixGG fans. The Company has entered into agreements with esports and gaming influencers with strong fan bases on social media, which at this time and in the aggregate result in approximately 250,000 social media accounts following our team of influencers, although the Company has not confirmed that these are unique accounts. The use of our influencers is limited to promotion of the brand and of the RixGG team, as our influencers are not involved in merchandise sales. Influencer agreements include as their key terms monthly payments made by RixGG, and a minimum number of hours per calendar month of streaming by the influencer with Rix.GG logos, as well as outlines of what branded content will be streamed. RixGG also commits to promoting the content of the influencer, and providing items such as community gifts, giveaways, and discounted shop codes to be used for the influencer’s community. Specific terms may vary depending on the reach of the influencer. Agreements with influencers are under continual review and new agreements are anticipated to be entered into over the course of the Company’s operations. Previously, the Company was spending $11,000 monthly, and at present, approximately $2,500 is spent monthly on influencer monthly payments, with additional costs related to giveaways fluctuating depending on the specific campaigns being run. Through increased awareness of the team, the goal of the Company is to increase its fan base and following, resulting in RixGG being a preferred partner for future sponsorships and licensing arrangements whereby RixGG merchandise can enter brick and mortar retail stores.

In addition to this existing marketing strategy, the Company plans to develop a content creation prong of the business, pursuant to which it will seek to distribute content via mobile devices and social media platforms. RixGG is planning to produce and publish various content formats, beginning in late 2022 to early 2023. The primary focus will be on content around the esports team players such as highlight videos from tournaments on YouTube, interviews with players before and after competition, guide videos for new players and content to activate partnerships and advertise partner products. Additionally, RixGG is planning to produce microcontent for different social media channels such as Instagram, TikTok and Twitter with players and influencers. Most of the content will be produced internally with videos to contain official tournament footage or players giving interviews in front of their PC webcams. It is anticipated that for some content formats such as advertisements for partners, RixGG may work with content production studios.

The goal of an enhanced social media presence is two-fold: the establishment of a larger fan base for the Company's existing RixGG team, and the creation of an appealing partner for potential sponsors. The Company's short term and long term marketing strategies involve the establishment of sponsorship agreements, with the associated revenue sponsors may bring.

Regulation

The Company is subject to general business regulations and laws as well as regulations and laws specifically governing the internet, gaming, ecommerce and electronic devices. These regulations and laws may cover taxation, privacy, data protection, pricing, content, copyrights, distribution, mobile communications, consumer protection, the provision of online payment services web services, websites, and the characteristics and quality of products and services.

The Company is also subject to the General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR") of the European Union ("EU"), particularly as it relates to processing of personal data by RixGG, including in connection with the hosting of tournaments by RixGG and broadcasting in the EU. The GDPR imposes data protection obligations in relation to the collection and use of personal data of individuals in the EU, such as disclosure as to the use of personal information, limitations on retention of information, and mandatory data breach notification requirements. Although player interaction on our platform is subject to our privacy policies, end user license agreements, and terms of service, our failure to comply with such terms or with applicable privacy-related or data protection laws and regulations could result in proceedings or litigation against us by governmental authorities, affected individuals or others, potentially resulting in fines or judgments against us, damage to our reputation, impact to our financial condition and/or harm to the business. With respect to the GDPR, the obligations, costs and risks which may be imposed upon our business include (i) substantial penalties in the event of any non-compliance (including a possible fine of up to 4% of total worldwide annual turnover for the preceding financial year for the most serious infringements), and (ii) substantial expenses for compliance or changes to our business operations, both of which may also adversely affect our revenues and our business overall. In consequence of the U.K.'s withdrawal from the EU (the so-called "Brexit"), the U.K. has incorporated a materially identical version of the EU GDPR into U.K. law (the "U.K. GDPR") which has applied from January 1, 2021. Whilst we strive to comply with all applicable laws and regulations relating to privacy and data protection, such laws are subject to frequent evolution and, following Brexit, it is possible that the EU GDPR and U.K. GDPR may start to diverge. It is also possible that applicable privacy and data protection laws and regulations may be interpreted and applied in a manner that is inconsistent from one jurisdiction to another or may conflict with other rules or with our practices, and that concern is particularly relevant for the EU GDPR given that different Member State regulators may differ as to its interpretation and their approach to enforcement.

Should the Company complete its proposed acquisitions of Tyrus, LLC and Shift Media, this would represent an expansion of the Company's operations into the United States. Diligence is ongoing with respect to each transaction, including with respect to reviewing regulatory requirements for operations in the areas that each of the target businesses operate. It is anticipated that the acquisition of Shift Media would not represent any new compliance obligations beyond the general requirements for operating in the United States, and specifically, in the State of Nevada where Shift Media is based. With respect to Tyrus, LLC, due to its operations as a talent agency, Tyrus, LLC is subject to registration and reporting requirements in respect of its services on a state-by-state basis. There is no guarantee that the acquisitions of Tyrus, LLC or Shift Media will complete on the terms proposed or at all.

Operations

The operations of the Company can be divided into three operating areas, the first being the organization of our esports teams in various leagues, the second being the hosting of tournaments, and the third being our online store for the sale of merchandise, which launched on August 24, 2021 and continues to be built out through increases in inventory offerings.

Esports Teams

The Company has established multiple teams through RixGG. RixGG has fielded teams in Fortnite, a battle royal online multiplayer; Rocket League, a motor-racing and soccer hybrid game; League of Legends: Wild Rift, the mobile version of League of Legends; and Valorant, a First-person shooter (FPS) developed by Riot Games. Periodically, esports organizations will pause involvement in a particular title to look to rebuild and re-enter in the future. This is due to evaluation on the current status of the team and the economy around any specific game. In the Company's case, the economy would involve current prize pools, competitive landscape, and rule changes in games impacting the effectiveness of existing players, among other things. Players past and present are listed in the tables referenced in “Description of the Business – Three-Year History”.

Player salaries range from $1,500-$4,500 per player, monthly. Players compete for prize winnings which vary depending on the game being played. For example, one example of a high value tournament is the Valorant Masters tournament in Berlin in 2021, which had a prize pool of $700,000.

To date, RixGG has brought in USD$118,000 directly through tournament prize winnings. Prize winnings are split between the organization and players at an average of 85% being paid directly to the players, in line with industry standards.

RixGG has also sold players to other esports organizations, generating USD$45,000 in player transfers.

Rocket League is a game developed by Psyonix and is played competitively in teams of three players. Each player controls a car in the game and the teams play a match of soccer against one another. Rocket League Esports is organized over the year with a full season, consisting of three splits. The season starts in October with the Fall Split and ends in August with the World Championship. Each split in the current format consists of three so-called “regionals” where after qualifying the Top 16 teams of each region battle it out for prize money and split points. Up to 200 teams are trying to qualify for the regionals in each major region. At the end of each split, the teams with the most points (Top 5 in Europe) represent their region at an international ‘Major’ tournament. The top 24 teams across the world (results in the majors and regionals) will be able to compete at the World Championship at the end of the season, which features a total prize pool of USD$2,085,000 (1st place: $600,000; 2nd place: $400,000; 3rd/4th place: $200,000). RixGG’s Rocket League team started to rise through the rankings in 2021 and was rated as a top 10 team in Europe.¹ At present, the Rocket League has been paused and the roster will be re-evaluated at a later date.

Valorant is a tactical first-person shooter developed by Riot Games. Each team consists of five players and matches are played on different maps over a certain number of rounds until one team is able to win 13 rounds. RixGG was fielding two Valorant Teams—Lightning and Thunder—with Lightning consisting of a female and marginalized gender team. At present, the Thunder team has been paused and the roster will be re-evaluated at a later date.

Valorant Esports in 2021 featured an entire season called the Valorant Champions Tour that started in January and culminated in the “VCT Champions World Championship” in early December with a USD$1,000,000 prize pool (1st place: $350,000; 2nd place: $150,000; 3rd/4th place: $90,000). Each season was divided into three splits in which teams first played in the regional “Challengers” series which featured two tournaments per split. On average in 2021, each Challengers event featured more than 250 teams. At the end of each split, depending on the placement in Challengers, teams could qualify (Top 4 of Europe) to the international “Masters” series, which featured 16 teams from across the world. The best teams gathering points in Masters would go on to qualify for “Champions” and fight for the title of best team in the world.

The 2022 Valorant Champions Tour started in January 2022 and features additional regional leagues in Europe such as a designated league for the U.K., Ireland and Nordic countries.

RixGG Thunder participated in all regional Challenger events, and finished the last European Challenger events in 7th/8th and 5th/6th, just barely missing out on the international Masters Event in Berlin which featured a USD$700,000 total prize pool (1st place: $225,000; 2nd place: $125,000, 3rd/4th place: $85,000).²

In September 2021, Riot Games introduced the Game Changers Tournament series for female and marginalized gender teams. In 2022, Game Changers will feature three regional competitions over the course of the year, culminating in the first Game Changers World Championship towards the end of the year. Prize pools are yet to be confirmed, though it was featured between USD$20,000 to $50,000 in 2021.

In 2021, the RixGG Lightning roster finished all three series of the EMEA (Europe, Middle East, Africa) Game Changers tournaments in the Top 8 with roughly 60 teams in total competing in the EMEA Game Changers. The highest placement of RixGG Lightning was a 2nd place finish at the first edition of the EMEA Game Changers.³

In the most recent VCT Game Changers Tournament held in May 2022 in the EMEA Series, RixGG Lightning placed 3rd overall in the tournament.

League of Legends: Wild Rift, developed by Riot Games, is the mobile version of the PC real time strategy game League of Legends, which is the most popular esports title in the world. Teams consist of five players and each player controls a champion with different abilities. The team that manages to destroy the enemy base first is victorious.

In 2022, Wild Rift Esports will feature regional tournaments with a season starting in late January, culminating in the World Championship in June. The next season is set to start after the summer break in September. An official announcement on behalf of Riot Games regarding the details of the 2022 Wild Rift Circuit is yet to be made. RixGG acquired a Wild Rift team in the summer of 2021, which was able to win its European regional events and finish in 2nd place at the EMEA championship.⁴

With the exception of a single tournament, RixGG Wild Rift has finished in the Top 3 at all EMEA Wild Rift events hosted by third party tournament organizers since the EMEA championship.⁵

RixGG Wild Rift recently competed in the Wild Rift EMEA Championship 2022 held in Barcelona, Spain and placed 2nd overall. Additionally, the team qualified for the 2022 Wild Rift Icons Global Championship to be held in Singapore in June 2022.

Fortnite is a first-person battle-royale shooter developed by Epic Games in which players battle it out on a map that is getting smaller as time progresses until only one player is left standing. Fortnite Esports events are expansive, with the FNCS events being the official tournaments hosted by Epic Games. In these events, teams of three players play 12 rounds of Fortnite, achieving points for their game finishes and kills. Prize money is awarded to the teams with the best point finishes after 12 rounds. RixGG had one Fortnite player on its roster, UK player Zachariah ‘pinq’ Siddall, who achieved his best finish with a 3rd place in the September 2021 FNCS grand finals, where he and his two teammates (non-RixGG players) won USD$135,000 of the USD$1,350,000 prize pool. The Fortnite player was traded to another team in March 2022 and RixGG will continue to evaluate talent in Fortnite. The industry is currently waiting for details about the 2022 Fortnite Esports format.⁶

Tournament Hosting

Since launch, RixGG has focused on becoming a provider for grassroots competition and tournaments in VALORANT in competitive FPS games. During 2021, RixGG hosted 15 such tournaments. RixGG also hosts a weekly community tournament, without a prizepool, building its reputation and brand within the gaming community. Further, RixGG is one of the leading providers of Valorant tournaments for women and marginalized gender players with broadcasts in the EU, having hosted eight such tournaments in 2021 called “Huntress Trials”.

Huntress Trials was the biggest tournament for female and marginalized gender Valorant Players. The Team named 'LAGALS', which won the first edition of Huntress Trials and finished 3rd place in the second edition, was signed as RixGG's official Valorant Lightning Team. Besides active scouting, the tournament was used to acquire users on RixGG's social media channels and community discord servers. Huntress Trials was hosted a total of 5 times between January and August 2021.

RixGG has hosted several grassroots esports tournaments in the U.K. & Nordic countries such as the RixGG Open, Huntress Trials, and RixGG UKCS Cup, and intends to continue tournament hosting as an aspect of its business. RixGG is actively pursuing sponsorships for these tournaments.

Facilities

The Company has no facilities at this time as all operations are online, including tournament play and tournament hosting.

Trends, Commitments and Uncertainties

The esports sector has been growing at a rapid rate for the past three years. According to Newzoo, esports industry total revenue grew by 14.5% in 2021 to USD$1.08 billion and is expected to grow to USD$1.62 billion in 2024 for CAGR of 11.1% (2019-2024).⁷ While management believes that the esports market will continue to grow at a similar rate (at least for the next three years), there is no guarantee that it will do so and, at some point, growth will inevitably slow or stagnate. That may result in revenues across the sector stagnating or reducing and the sponsorship market becoming even more competitive, both of which would have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, revenue, financial condition, profitability, prospects, and results of operations.

The Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic on our Business

The COVID-19 pandemic has resulted in the implementation of significant governmental measures worldwide, including lockdowns, closures, quarantines and travel bans, intended to control the spread of the virus, and has caused severe global disruptions.

We commenced our business during the pandemic and have tailored our operations to operate within the government health measures and responses of businesses and consumers to the pandemic. Although the Company's business is largely conducted online and esports events may not need to be cancelled in the way that many traditional sports events have been, the downturn in economic activity caused by the preventative measures enacted and may adversely affect the Company's business.

Principal Market

The Company operates in the esports industry. The esports industry is still extremely fragmented and very few teams, companies, organizations and leagues are finding success in monetizing their companies. However, there are several companies that have excelled in certain sectors of the industry, namely content creation and distribution; media rights; teams/prize pool; tournament organizing; sponsorships; and partnerships. The Company believes RixGG may have a competitive advantage over its competitors, which are larger and more established, through its potential ability as a smaller and more agile corporation to create high-level production at a cheaper cost relative to these larger organizations. RixGG also has the advantage of having existing partnerships and business arrangements with endemic and non-endemic brands in esports.

Intellectual Property

The Company's focus on brand development means its trademarks are important to the general development of the business. At present, the Company has applied for trademark protection in the following jurisdictions:

Additionally, as the Company expands into content creation, it will be developing content which would be protected by copyright, and the Company may register such copyright to enhance the protections it would otherwise be afforded under local law in the jurisdictions in which it operates. The international nature of operations results in multiple jurisdictions being implicated in which the Company may need to protect its intellectual property, including through enforcement of its rights.

Competition

The esports industry is highly competitive, with new teams entering tournaments and leagues on a regular basis and with both existing and new participants having significant resources (both financial and in terms of talent). Increased competition may make it more difficult for the Company's team to win tournaments and leagues, to attract sponsors and to attract talent. Furthermore, the Company may be required to offer cheaper sponsorship and pay higher than expected salaries to talent, in order to secure contracts.

Below is a table of the top teams in 2020 by value, as ranked by Forbes:

Rank	Team	Reported Revenue	Last Reported Valuation ⁸
1	Team SoloMid	$45 million	$410 million
2	Cloud9	$30 million	$350 million
3	Team Liquid	$28 million	$310 million
4	Faze Clan	$40 million	$305 million
5	100 Thieves	$16 million	$190 million

7	Enthusiast Gaming	$95 million	$180 million
8	G2	$19 million	$175 million
9	NRG Esports	$20 million	$155 million

This table represents some of the most successful e-sports teams and businesses in the industry, which are unrelated to the Company. All of the above teams have a track record of winning tournament prize money, attracting sponsor income and generally commercialising their product. There is no guarantee that the Company will be able to achieve similar levels of success, including similar levels of revenue or valuation as reported for the e-sports teams above, each of which will be a competitor.

Due to the global and digital nature of the esports industry, competition is not geographically based. There are a number of existing organizations that have similar businesses and strategies to the Company, including Guild, Fnatic, Enthusiast Gaming and Allied Esports. Competition can take the form of direct competition in tournaments, as is the case with Guild, or in competition for expansion opportunities into new game areas (meaning competition for players and talent) or competition for sponsors. In each of these cases, the Company's competitors have longer histories of operations as the Company and its esports team have been more recently developed, and there may be circumstances where competitors of the Company would have increased access to funds such as through high revenues from their services or access to capital through other means. The competitive landscape of the esports industry is consistently changing through the emergence of new companies and teams, as well as a result of the performance of a franchise's players.

The Company has a negative operating cash flow for the period from September 16, 2020 to August 31, 2021. The Company has allocated a certain percentage of the proceeds from the distribution to fund negative cash flow from its most recently completed financial year. To the extent that the Company has negative operating cash flow in future periods, it may need to allocate a portion of its cash reserves to fund such negative cash flow. The Company may also be required to raise additional funds through the issuance of equity or debt securities. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to generate a positive cash flow from its operations, that additional capital or other types of financing will be available when needed or that these financings will be on terms favourable to the Company. See “Risk Factors – Negative Operating Cash Flow”.

The CFO of the Company is responsible for the supervision of all financial assets of the Company. Based on the Company's cash flow requirements, management will determine the appropriate level of liquidity required for operations and will draw down such funds as necessary. Common Shares

The Company will issue 6,666,667 Common Shares under the Minimum Offering and 7,777,778 Common Shares under the Maximum Offering.

Holders of Common Shares are entitled to receive notice of, and to attend and vote at, all meetings of the shareholders of the Company and to receive all notices and other documents required to be sent to shareholders in accordance with the Company's articles, corporate law and the rules of any applicable stock exchange. On a poll, every shareholder has one vote for each Common Share. The holders of Common Shares are entitled to dividends if, as and when declared by the Board and, upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of its affairs or other distribution of its assets for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, to receive, on a pro rata basis, all of the remaining assets of the Company. The Common Shares do not carry any pre-emptive, subscription, redemption or conversion rights, nor do they contain any sinking fund or purchase fund provision.

Warrants

The Company will issue 6,666,667 Warrants under the Minimum Offering and 7,777,778 Warrants under the Maximum Offering. The Unit Shares and the Warrants comprising the Units will separate upon the closing of the Offering. Each Warrant is exercisable into one Warrant Share at the price of $0.70 per Warrant Share for a period of 24 months after the Closing Date or earlier if the closing price of the Common Shares on the CSE or any equivalent exchange is equal to or greater than $0.90 per Common Share for a period of 10 consecutive trading days, with the expiry date being the date that is 30 calendar days following the date the Company provides an early expiry notice, by issuance of a news release, that an Early Expiry Event has occurred.

The Warrants forming a part of the Units offered hereunder will be subject to the terms and conditions of a warrant indenture (the "Warrant Indenture") with Odyssey Trust Company (the "Warrant Agent"), as the warrant agent, to be entered into on the Closing Date. Warrants may be issued in certificated or uncertificated form, including as book-entry Warrants entered into CDS. The following summary of certain provisions of the Warrant Indenture does not purport to be complete and is subject in its entirety to the detailed provisions of the Warrant Indenture. Investors are referred to the full text of the Warrant Indenture for the attributes of the Warrants, which will be filed by the Company on SEDAR at www.sedar.com under its corporate profile following the closing of the Offering.

The Warrant Indenture will contain, among other things, anti-dilution provisions and provisions for the appropriate adjustment of the class, number and price of shares issuable pursuant to the exercise thereof upon the occurrence of certain stated events, including any subdivision, consolidation, or reclassification of the Shares or the payment of stock dividends or the amalgamation of the Company.

The Warrant Agent will act solely as the Company's agent in connection with the Warrants, and will not assume any obligation or relationship of agency for or with holders or beneficial owners of Warrants. A register of Warrant holders will be maintained by the Warrant Agent.

Warrants will be exercisable upon surrender of the Warrant certificate (or if issued in CDS, by removal of the Warrants from CDS prior to being presented in certificated form for cancellation) representing such Warrants on or before the expiry time at the principal office of the Warrant Agent, with notice of exercise duly completed and executed as indicated thereon, accompanied by payment of the exercise price for the number of Warrants being exercised, all in accordance with the terms of the Warrant Indenture. However, the Warrants will not be exercisable by or on behalf of a person in the United States, nor will certificates representing Shares upon the exercise of any Warrants be registered or delivered to an address in the United States, unless an exemption from registration under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States is available, and the Company has received an opinion of counsel of recognized standing to such effect in form and substance satisfactory to the Company.

No fractional Common Shares will be issuable upon the exercise of any Warrants, and no cash or other consideration will be paid in lieu of fractional Common Shares. Prior to the exercise of their Warrants, holders of Warrants exercisable for Common Shares will not have any rights as holders of Common Shares, and in particular will not be entitled to dividend payments, if declared, or voting rights of the common shares of the Company.

From time to time, the Company and the Warrant Agent, without the consent of the holders of the Warrants, may amend or supplement the Warrant Indenture for certain limited purposes, including curing defects or inconsistencies or making any change that does not adversely affect the rights of any holder of Warrants without the consent of the holders of the Warrants. Any amendment or supplement to the Warrant Indenture that adversely affects the interests of the holders of the Warrants may only be made by “extraordinary resolution”, which will be defined in the Warrant Indenture as a resolution either (i) passed at a meeting of the holders of the Warrants at which there are holders of Warrants present in person or represented by proxy representing at least 20% of the aggregate number of all of the then outstanding Warrants and passed by an affirmative vote of holders representing not less than 66⅔% of the aggregate number of the then outstanding Warrants represented at the meeting and voted on a poll upon such resolution; or (ii) adopted by an instrument in writing signed by the holders of not less than 66⅔% of the aggregate number of all then outstanding Warrants.

Outstanding Options

As of the date of this Prospectus, the Company has no Options outstanding; however, prior to the completion of the Listing, the Company anticipates issuing 3,500,000 Options to eligible persons under the Option Plan.

Option Plan

The Option Plan was approved by the Company's Board effective as of May 10, 2021. The purpose of the Option Plan is to assist the Company in attracting, retaining and motivating directors, officer, employees, consultants and contractors of the Company and of its affiliates and to closely align the personal interests of such service providers with the interests of the Company and its shareholders.

The following information is intended to be a brief description of the Option Plan and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Option Plan:

The principal purpose of the Option Plan is to advance the interests of the Company by encouraging the directors, employees and consultants of the Company and of its subsidiaries or affiliates, if any, by providing them with the opportunity, through options (each, an "Option"), to acquire Common Shares in the share capital of the Company, thereby increasing their proprietary interest in the Company, encouraging them to remain associated with the Company and furnishing them with additional incentive in their efforts on behalf of the Company in the conduct of its affairs.

Eligibility

Any officer, director, employee, management company employee, consultant or investor relations person of the Company or its wholly-owned subsidiaries (each as described in the Option Plan and each, an "Eligible Person") is eligible to receive Options under the Option Plan. The Board has full and final authority to determine the Eligible Persons who are granted Options under the Option Plan and the number of Common Shares subject to each Option.

Shares Subject to Option Plan

The maximum number of Common Shares which may be available for issuance under the Option, together with any other security-based compensation plan of the Company, will not exceed 10% of the total number of Common Shares issued and outstanding from time to time. The Option Plan is an "evergreen plan" and accordingly, any issuance of Common Shares from treasury, including the issuances of Common Shares in respect of which Options are exercised, and any expired or cancelled Options, shall automatically replenish the number of Common Shares issuable under the Option Plan.

The maximum number of Common Shares which may be issued or reserved for issuance to any one Person (as described in the Option Plan), and companies wholly-owned by that Person, under the Option Plan within any 12-month period shall not exceed 10% of the issued and outstanding Common Shares, calculated on the date an Option is granted to such Person.

Exercise of Options

The exercise price of Options issued may not be less than the price determined in accordance with CSE policies while the Common Shares are listed on the CSE.

Subject to the provisions of the Option Plan and the particular Option, an Option may be exercised, in whole or in part, by delivering a written notice of exercise to the Company along with payment in cash or certified cheque for the full amount of the exercise price of the Common Shares then being purchased.

Term and Expiry Date

The period within which Options may be exercised and the number of Options which may be exercised in any such period are determined by the Board at the time of granting the Options provided, however, that the maximum term of any Options awarded under the Option Plan is 10 years.

Vesting

All Options granted pursuant to the Option Plan may vest and become exercisable at the discretion of the Board.

Termination of Options

An optionee who ceases to be an Eligible Person for any reason, other than as a result of having been dismissed for cause or as a result of the optionee's death, may exercise any vested and unexpired Options held by such optionee for a period of 90 days from the date of cessation (or until the normal expiry date of the Option rights of such optionee, if earlier), subject to extension by the Board to a maximum of 1 year with approval from the CSE.

In the event of a death of the optionee during the currency of the optionee's Option, any vested Option theretofore granted to the optionee is exercisable by the optionee's lawful personal representatives, heirs or executors until the earlier of 1 year after the date of death of such optionee and the expiry date of the Option.

If an optionee ceases to be an Eligible Person as a result of having been dismissed for cause, all unexercised Options of that optionee under the Option Plan shall immediately become terminated and shall lapse.

Non-Assignability and Non-Transferability

Options granted under the Option Plan will be non-assignable and non-transferable by an optionee other than pursuant to a will or by the laws of descent and distribution, and such Option shall be exercisable, during an optionee's lifetime, only by the optionee.

Adjustments in Shares Subject to Option Plan

The Option Plan contains provisions for the treatment of Options in the event of a reorganization, stock split, stock dividend, combination of shares, merger, consolidation, rights offering or any other change in the corporate structure or Common Shares of the Company. The Options granted under the Option Plan may contain such provisions as the Board may determine with respect to adjustments to be made in the number and kind of Common Shares covered by such Options and in the exercise price in the event of such change.

The foregoing description of the Option Plan does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Option Plan.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Corporate governance relates to the activities of the Board, the members of which are elected by and are accountable to the shareholders, and takes into account the role of the individual members of management who are appointed by the Board and who are charged with the day to day management of the Company. The Board is committed to sound corporate governance practices which are both in the interest of its shareholders and contribute to effective and efficient decision making. National Instrument 58-101 – Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices (“NI 58-101”) establishes corporate governance disclosure requirements which apply to all public companies in Canada. The Company’s general approach to corporate governance is summarized below.

Board of Directors

The Board facilitates its exercise of independent judgement in carrying out its responsibilities by carefully examining issues and consulting with outside counsel and other advisors in appropriate circumstances. The Board requires management to provide complete and accurate information with respect to the Company’s activities and to provide relevant information concerning the industry in which the Company operates in order to identify and manage risks. The Board is responsible for monitoring the Company’s senior officers, who in turn are responsible for the maintenance of internal controls and management information systems.

NI 52-110 sets out the standard for director independence. Under NI 52-110, a director is “independent” if they have no direct or indirect material relationship with the Company. A “material relationship” is a relationship which could, in the view of the Board, be reasonably expected to interfere with the exercise of a director’s independent judgment. NI 52-110 also sets out certain situations where a director will automatically be considered to have a material relationship to the Company.

The Board consists of Mark Elfenbein, Latika Prasad, William O’Hara and Jan Hoffmann. The independent directors are Latika Prasad and William O’Hara. The non-independent directors are Mark Elfenbein and Jan Hoffmann.

Other Directorships

Orientation and Continuing Education

The Company has not adopted a formalized process of orientation for new members of the Board. Orientation of new directors has been and will be conducted on an ad hoc basis through discussions and meetings with other directors, officers and employees where a thorough description of the Company’s business, assets, operations and strategic plans and objectives are discussed. Orientation activities have been and will be tailored to the particular needs and experiences of each director and the overall needs of the Board.

Meetings of the Board may also include presentations by the Company’s management to give the directors additional insight into the Company’s business.

Ethical Business Conduct

The Board has found that the fiduciary duties placed on individual directors by the Company’s governing corporate legislation and the common law, and the restrictions placed by applicable corporate legislation on an individual directors’ participation in decisions of the Board in which the director has an interest, have been sufficient to ensure that the Board operates independently of management and in the best interests of the Company. Further, the Company’s auditor has full and unrestricted access to the Audit Committee at all times to discuss the audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements and any related findings as to the integrity of the financial reporting process.

Nomination of Directors

The Board does not have a nominations committee or a formal procedure with respect to the nomination of directors. In addition, the Company does not have any defined policy or procedure requirements of shareholders to submit recommendations or nominations for directors, and it has not established any specific or minimum criteria for nominating directors or specific process for evaluating any such nominees. The directors of the Company expect to identify future potential director candidates from recommendations made by its directors, management and shareholders, as appropriate.

Compensation

The Board is responsible for determining compensation for the officers, employees and non-executive directors of the Company. The Board annually reviews all forms of compensation paid to officers, employees and non-executive directors, both with regards to the expertise and experience of each individual and in relation to industry peers. See "Executive Compensation".

Other Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board has no committees other than the Audit Committee.

Assessments

The Board do not, at present, have a formal process in place for assessing the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, its committees or individual directors, but will consider implementing one in the future should circumstances warrant. Based on the Company's size and its stage of development, the Board considers a formal assessment process to be unnecessary at the present time.

As an additional compensation, the Company will also issue to the Agent Compensation Options and Advisory Options. The Compensation Options entitle the Agent to purchase such number of Common Shares as is equal to 6.0% of the total number of Units, provided that no Compensation Options will be issued to the Agent in respect of purchasers on the President's List, and the Advisory Options entitle the Agent to purchase that number of Shares as is equal to 2.0% of the total number of Units sold under the Offering, at an exercise price of $0.70 per Common Share for a period of 24 months from the Closing Date.

The Agent will receive the Corporate Finance Fee of $30,000.00 plus applicable taxes payable in Units priced at the Offering, plus GST payable in cash on the Closing Date. Pricing of the Offering

The Offering Price was determined based upon arm's length negotiations between the Company and the Agent. Among the factors considered in determining the Offering Price were the following:

- the market price of the Common Shares;
- prevailing market conditions;
- historical performance and capital structure of the Company;
- estimates of the business potential and earnings prospects of the Company;
- availability of comparable investments;
- an overall assessment of management of the Company; and
- the consideration of these factors in relation to market valuation of companies in related businesses.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Units offered hereunder must be considered highly speculative due to the nature of the Company's business. Prospective investors should carefully consider the information presented in this Prospectus before purchasing the Units offered under this Prospectus, and in particular should give special consideration to the risk factors below and in the section entitled "Caution Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" above.

The risk and uncertainties below are not the only risks and uncertainties facing the Company. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to the Company or that the Company currently considers immaterial may also impair the business, operations and future prospects of the Company and cause the price of the Common Shares to decline. If any of the following risks actually occur, the business of the Company may be harmed, and its financial condition and results of operations may suffer insignificantly. As a result of these factors, this Offering is only suitable to investors who are willing to rely solely on management of the Company and who can afford to lose their entire investment. Those investors who are not prepared to do so should not invest in the Units. In addition to the risks described elsewhere and the other information in this Prospectus, prospective investors should carefully consider each of, and the cumulative effect of, all of the following risk factors:

Risks Related to the Business of the Company

Limited Operating History

The Company has a very limited history of operations and is considered a start-up company. As such, the Company is subject to many risks common to such enterprises, including under-capitalization, cash shortages, limitations with respect to personnel, financial and other resources and lack of revenues. The Company will also be competing with established competitors who may have more resources and a more recognizable brand presence in the market. There is no assurance that the Company will be successful in achieving a return on shareholders' investment and the likelihood of the Company's success must be considered in light of its early stage of operations. The directors believe that they have the experience and connections to ensure that the business is able to compete with established rivals and take advantage of market opportunities they have identified.

Our esports businesses are substantially dependent on the continuing popularity of the esports industry as a whole

The esports industry is in the early stages of its respective development. Although the esports industry has experienced rapid growth, consumer preferences may shift and there is no assurance this growth will continue in the future. We have taken steps to diversify their businesses and mitigate these risks to an extent and continue to seek out new opportunities in the esports industry. However, due to the rapidly evolving nature of technology and online gaming, the esports industry may experience volatile and declining popularity as new options for online gaming and esports become available, or consumer preferences shift to other forms of entertainment, and as a consequence, our businesses and results of operations may be materially negatively affected.

Our business depends on the popularity of our RixGG teams

Our future financial results will be dependent on the RixGG teams becoming and remaining popular with our fan base and, in varying degrees, on the teams achieving in-game success, which can generate fan enthusiasm, resulting in sustained merchandise sales during the season, and attract sponsorships. Furthermore, success in the regular season at certain tournaments may qualify one or more of our esports teams for participation in post-season playoffs, which provides us with additional revenue from prize money by increasing the number of games played by our sports teams, and provide finishes through which the RixGG teams may be able to participate in various ‘invite only’ tournaments, which draw increased fan attendance and visibility for advertisers and sponsors. There can be no assurance that any of our esports teams will develop a significant fan base, maintain continued popularity or compete in postseason play in the future.

The Company may be unable to recruit esports players of sufficient standing and talent

The Company’s brand will be built around the success and profile of esports players. The success of the Company will depend on its ability to recruit esports players whom have either the potential to be successful, star players or are already successful, star players. The Company’s team, RixGG, is a new name in the esports world, with no established reputation or tournament history. The Company will be competing to sign esports players against established teams that have greater resources, higher profile and a history of tournament success. If RixGG cannot sign players of sufficient standing and/or talent, that is likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company’s business, revenue, financial condition, profitability, prospects and results of operations.

The Company may be unable to retain esports players

The Company faces the risk of its players moving to other teams at the end of their contracts. Whilst the Company intends to pay market competitive salaries and offer benefits similar to those offered by its competitors, there is always a risk that players will move teams for either higher pay and/or the opportunity to join a winning, high-profile team. If RixGG cannot retain top players, this is likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company’s business, revenue, financial condition, profitability, prospects and results of operations.

Defection of our esports players to other teams or managers could hinder our success.

We compete with other esports athlete management businesses to sign and retain world class esports players, some of which have greater resources or brand recognition and popularity than ours. Our players may choose to defect to other esports organizations for various reasons, including that they have been made a superior offer or they have chosen to pursue new or other opportunities. The loss or defection of any of our esports players could have negative consequences on our businesses and results of operations. While we take, or intend to take, all appropriate steps to retain our players and protect their interests, there can be no assurances that players will not defect to other esports organizations.

Players may not perform

Whilst the Company intends to sign the best esports players available to it (given its resources), there is no guarantee that such recruitment will translate into tournament success. If RixGG does not perform to a reasonably high level in tournaments, it will not generate the publicity to grow its brand and to attract sponsors and the Company's revenue from prize money and sponsors will be lower than expected, making future or further recruitment more difficult.

Our business is highly dependent on the success and availability of video game platforms manufactured by third parties.

We expect to derive a substantial portion of our revenues from esports games played on game platforms manufactured by third parties, such as mobile phones and PCs. The success of our business will be driven in large part by our ability to accurately predict which platforms will be successful in the marketplace. We also rely on the availability of an adequate supply of these video game consoles and the continued support for these consoles by their manufacturers. We may be required to commit significant resources well in advance of the anticipated introduction of a new platform. If increased costs are not offset by higher revenues and other cost efficiencies, our business could be negatively impacted. If the platforms for which we invested resources do not attain significant market acceptance, we may not be able to recover our costs, which could be significant.

We will depend on servers to operate our games with online features. If we were to lose server functionality for any reason, our business may be negatively impacted.

Our business at our game centres will rely on the continuous operation of servers, some of which are owned and operated by third parties. Although we shall strive to maintain more than sufficient server capacity, and provide for active redundancy in the event of limited hardware failure, any broad-based catastrophic server malfunction, a significant service-disrupting attack or intrusion by hackers that circumvents security measures, a failure of disaster recovery service or the failure of a company on which we are relying for server capacity to provide that capacity for whatever reason would likely degrade or interrupt the functionality of our games with online features, and could prevent the operation of such games altogether, any of which could result in the loss of sales for, or in, such games. We also rely on networks operated by third parties, such as the Riot Games® Launcher, Epic Games® Launcher, and Steam®, for the functionality of the games we use which have online features. An extended interruption to any of these services could adversely affect our ability to operate our games with online features, negatively impacting our business. Further, insufficient server capacity could also negatively impact our game centre business. Conversely, if we overestimate the amount of server capacity required by our business, we may incur unnecessary additional operating costs.

The Company may not be able to attract sponsors

The global sponsorship market is very competitive, both within the esports sector and generally, with individuals, teams and tournaments all seeking sponsorship income. Without a track record of tournament success, RixGG may have to offer preferential terms to sponsors resulting in below market value deals in the short term. The failure to attract sponsors and/or to agree satisfactory commercial terms may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, revenue, financial condition, profitability, prospects and results of operations.

The Company's chosen games may not prove to be popular

There are a large number of esports games and the Company will not have the resources to compete in all esports competitions. The Company has therefore selected to enter teams in competitions relating to two particular games. The Company feels that these games are particularly suited to the esports market, have low barriers to entry, will enjoy enduring popularity and that the competitions around these games have the potential for future development. If the Company's assessment of these games is incorrect, then the Company may not see a return from its investments in players and tournament fees and may find it difficult to develop its business.

The sale of merchandise on our online store is subject to regulation

The Company derives a portion of its revenue from the sale of merchandise through its online store. The Company is subject to general business regulations and laws, as well as those specifically governing e-commerce, in operating its store, and it is possible that existing or future laws and regulations may impede the Company's growth strategy as it pertains to offering merchandise sales. These regulations and laws may cover taxation, privacy, data protection, pricing, content, copyrights, distribution, mobile communications, consumer protection, the provision of online payment services web services, websites, and the characteristics and quality of products and services. Unfavourable changes in regulations and laws could decrease demand for the Company's online offering and merchandise, increase its cost of doing business or otherwise have a material adverse effect on the Corporation's reputation, popularity, results of operations and financial condition.

Privacy concerns could result in regulatory changes and impose additional costs and liabilities on the Company, limit its use of information, and adversely affect its business

Personal privacy has become a significant issue in the United Kingdom, Europe, and many other jurisdictions in which the Company may operate in the future. Many federal, state, and foreign legislatures and government agencies have imposed or are considering imposing restrictions and requirements about the collection, use, and disclosure of personal information obtained from individuals. Changes to laws or regulations affecting privacy could impose additional costs and liability on the Company and could limit its use of such information to add value for customers. If the Company were required to change its business activities or revise or eliminate services, or to implement burdensome compliance measures, its business and results of operations could be harmed. In addition, the Company may be subject to fines, penalties, and potential litigation if it fails to comply with applicable privacy regulations, any of which could adversely affect the Company's business, liquidity and results of operation.

The risks related to international operations could negatively affect the Company's results

The Company's esports operations are primarily located in the United Kingdom, but esports players, tournament participants, prospective sponsors, and purchasers of the Company's merchandise, may be located anywhere in the world. As a result, a portion of the Company's revenue may consist of denominations in currencies other than the British pound or the Canadian dollar. As such, the Company's operations may be adversely affected by changes in foreign government policies and legislation or social instability and other factors which are not within the control of the Company, including, but not limited to, recessions in foreign economies, expropriation, nationalization and limitation or restriction on repatriation of funds, assets or earnings, longer receivables collection periods and greater difficulty in collecting accounts receivable, changes in consumer tastes and trends, renegotiation or nullification of existing contracts or licenses, changes in gaming policies, regulatory requirements or the personnel administering them, currency fluctuations and devaluations, exchange controls, economic sanctions and royalty and tax increases, risk of terrorist activities, revolution, border disputes, implementation of tariffs and other trade barriers and protectionist practices, taxation policies, including royalty and tax increases and retroactive tax claims, volatility of financial markets and fluctuations in foreign exchange rates, difficulties in the protection of intellectual property particularly in countries with fewer intellectual property protections, the effects that evolving regulations regarding data privacy may have on the Company's online operations, adverse changes in the creditworthiness of parties with whom the Company has significant receivables or forward currency exchange contracts, labour disputes and other risks arising out of foreign governmental sovereignty over the areas in which the Company's operations are conducted. The Company's operations may also be adversely affected by social, political and economic instability and by laws and policies of such foreign jurisdictions affecting foreign trade, taxation and investment. If the Company's operations are disrupted and/or the economic integrity of its contracts is threatened for unexpected reasons, its business may be harmed.

The Company is subject to foreign exchange and currency risks that could adversely affect its operations, and the Company's ability to mitigate its foreign exchange risk through hedging transactions may be limited

The Company anticipates deriving most of its revenue outside of Canada; however, the Company's operating currency is the Canadian dollar. Fluctuations in the exchange rate between the Canadian dollar, the British pound and other currencies may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and operating results. The Company's consolidated financial results are affected by foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations. Foreign currency exchange rate exposures arise from current transactions and anticipated transactions denominated in currencies other than Canadian dollars and from the translation of foreign currency-denominated balance sheet accounts into Canadian dollar-denominated balance sheet accounts.

The Impact of COVID-19

The Company is vulnerable to the general economic effects of epidemics/pandemics and other public health crises, such as COVID-19. COVID-19 is an infectious disease caused by severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2). Since December 31, 2019, the outbreak of COVID-19 has resulted in governments worldwide, including Canada, the United States and the U.K., enacting emergency measures to combat the spread of the virus. Although vaccines have been developed, their rate of vaccine deployment has been slow in many regions of the world, including Canada, the United States and the U.K. New coronavirus variants are continuing to spread and there is no guarantee that the vaccines will continue to be effective against new coronavirus variants, and geographic regions may continue to experience government-imposed lock-downs and public health emergencies. Recently, travel into Canada from countries with high-levels of COVID-19 variants has been restricted, and implementation of travel bans, self-imposed quarantine periods and social distancing, have caused material disruption to businesses globally. Governments and central banks have reacted to the COVID-19 pandemic with significant monetary and fiscal interventions designed to stabilize economic conditions. Due to the COVID-19 variants, the duration and impact of the COVID-19 pandemic remain unknown at this time, as is the continued efficacy of the government and central bank interventions. It is not possible to reliably estimate the length and severity of these developments and the impact on the financial results and condition of the Company. To date, a number of businesses have suspended or scaled back their operations and development as cases of COVID-19 have been confirmed, for precautionary purposes or as governments have declared a state of emergency or taken other actions. If the operation or development of the Company is suspended, scaled back or disrupted, it may have a material adverse impact on the Company's profitability, results of operations, financial condition and the trading price of the Company's securities. To the extent that the Company's management or other personnel are unavailable to work due to the COVID-19 pandemic, whether due to illness, government action or otherwise, it may have a material adverse impact on the Company's profitability, results of operations, financial condition and the trading price of the Company's securities. The breadth of the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on investors, businesses, the global economy and financial and commodity markets may also have a material adverse impact on the Company's profitability, results of operations, financial conditions and the trading price of the Company's securities.

Management of Growth

The Company may be subject to growth-related risks including capacity constraints and pressure on its internal systems and controls. The ability of the Company to manage growth effectively will require it to continue to implement and improve its operational and financial systems and to expand, train and manage its employee base. The inability of the Company to deal with this growth may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The Company as a Going Concern

The continued operation of the Company as a going concern is dependent upon the Company's ability to generate positive cash flows and/or obtain additional financing sufficient to fund continuing activities and acquisitions. While the Company continues to review its operations in order to identify strategies and tactics to increase revenue streams and financing opportunities, there is no assurance that the Company will be successful in such efforts; if the Company is not successful, it may be required to significantly reduce or limit operations, or no longer operate as a going concern. It is also possible that operating expenses could increase in order to grow the business. If the Company does not significantly increase its revenue to meet these increased operating expenses and/or obtain financing until its revenue meets these operating expenses, its business, financial condition and operating results could be materially adversely affected. The Company cannot be sure when or if it will ever achieve profitability and, if it does, it may not be able to sustain or increase that profitability.

Need for Additional Financing and Possible Dilution

The development of the business of the Company and its ability to execute on its expansion opportunities described herein will depend, in part, upon the amount of additional financing available. Failure to obtain sufficient financing may result in delaying, scaling back, eliminating or indefinitely postponing expansion opportunities and the business of the Company's current or future operations. There can be no assurance that additional capital or other types of financing will be available if needed or that, if available, the terms of such financing will be acceptable to the Company. In addition, there can be no assurance that future financing can be obtained without substantial dilution to existing shareholders.

Conflicts of Interest

The Company may be subject to various potential conflicts of interest because some of its officers and directors may be engaged in a range of business activities. In addition, the Company's executive officers and directors may devote time to their outside business interests, so long as such activities do not materially or adversely interfere with their duties to the Company. In some cases, the Company's executive officers and directors may have fiduciary obligations associated with these business interests that interfere with their ability to devote time to the Company's business and affairs and that could adversely affect the Company's operations. These business interests could require significant time and attention of the Company's executive officers and directors.

In addition, the Company may become involved in other transactions which conflict with the interests of its directors and officers who may from time to time deal with persons, firms, institutions or companies with which the Company may be dealing, or which may be seeking investments similar to those desired by it. The interests of these persons could conflict with those of the Company. In addition, from time to time, these persons may be competing with the Company for available investment opportunities. Conflicts of interest, if any, will be subject to the procedures and remedies provided under applicable laws. In particular, if such a conflict of interest arises at a meeting of the Company's directors, a director who has such a conflict will abstain from voting for or against the approval of such participation or such terms. In accordance with applicable laws, the directors of the Company are required to act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the Company.

Negative Operating Cash Flow

The Company's business has incurred losses since its inception. Although the Company expects to become profitable, there is no guarantee that will happen, and the Company may never become profitable. The Company currently has a negative operating cash flow and may continue to have a negative operating cash flow for the foreseeable future. To date, the Company has not generated any revenues and a large portion of the Company's expenses are fixed, including expenses related to facilities, equipment, contractual commitments and personnel. As a result, the Company expects for its net losses from operations to improve. The Company's ability to generate additional revenues and potential to become profitable will depend largely on its ability to market its products and services, and obtain sponsorships or other revenue generating opportunities with respect to its RixGG teams. There can be no assurance that any such events will occur or that the Company will ever become profitable. Even if the Company does achieve profitability, the Company cannot predict the level of such profitability. If the Company sustains losses over an extended period of time, the Company may be unable to continue its business.

Internal Controls

One or more material weaknesses in the Company's internal controls over financial reporting could occur or be identified in the future. In addition, because of inherent limitations, the Company's internal controls over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements, and any projections of any evaluation of effectiveness of internal controls to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with the Company's policies or procedures may deteriorate. If the Company fails to maintain the adequacy of its internal controls, including any failure or difficulty in implementing required new or improved controls, its business and results of operations could be harmed, the Company may not be able to provide reasonable assurance as to its financial results or meet its reporting obligations and there could be a material adverse effect on the price of its securities.

Increased Costs and Additional Regulatory Burden of Being a Publicly Traded Company

The Company has not been subject to the continuous and timely disclosure requirements of Canadian securities laws or other rules, regulations and policies of the CSE or any other stock exchange. In anticipation of listing, the Company is working with its legal, accounting and financial advisors to identify those areas in which changes should be made to its financial management control systems to manage its obligations as a public company. These areas include corporate governance, corporate controls, disclosure controls and procedures and financial reporting and accounting systems. The Company has made, and will continue to make, changes in these and other areas, including its internal controls over financial reporting. However, the Company cannot assure purchasers of Common Shares that these and other measures that it might take will be sufficient to allow it to satisfy its obligations as a public company on a timely basis. In addition, compliance with reporting and other requirements applicable to public companies will create additional costs for the Company and will require the time and attention of management. The Company cannot predict the amount of the additional costs that it might incur, the timing of such costs or the impact that management's attention to these matters will have on its business.

Ongoing Costs and Obligations Related to Investment in Infrastructure, Growth, Regulatory Compliance and Operations

The Company expects to incur significant ongoing costs and obligations related to its investment in infrastructure and growth and for regulatory compliance, which could have a material adverse impact on the Company's results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows. In addition, future changes in regulations, more vigorous enforcement thereof or other unanticipated events could require extensive changes to the Company's operations, increased compliance costs or give rise to material liabilities, which could have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations and financial condition of the Company. The Company's efforts to grow its business may be costlier than the Company expects, and the Company may not be able to increase its revenue enough to offset its higher operating expenses. The Company may incur significant losses in the future for a number of reasons, and unforeseen expenses, difficulties, complications and delays, and other unknown events. If the Company is unable to achieve and sustain profitability, the market price of the Common Shares may significantly decrease.

Information Systems and Cybersecurity Risks

The Company places significant reliance on its information technology ("IT") systems to operate its business and is dependent upon the availability, capacity, reliability and security of its IT infrastructure and its ability to expand and continually update this infrastructure, to conduct daily operations. In the event that the Company is unable to secure its software and hardware, effectively upgrade systems and network infrastructure and take other steps to maintain or improve its systems, the operation of such systems could be interrupted or result in the loss, corruption or release of confidential data.

The IT systems are subject to a variety of security risks, which are growing in both complexity and frequency and could include potential breakdown, cyber phishing, invasion, virus, cyber-attack, cyber-fraud, security breach, and destruction or interruption of its IT systems by third parties or insiders. Unauthorized access to these systems by employees or third parties could lead to corruption or exposure of confidential fiduciary or proprietary information, in a loss or theft of our financial resources, critical data and information or could result in a loss of control of our technological infrastructure or financial resources.

The Company maintains certain controls, such as two factor authentication requirements for all communications. However, due to the variety, sophistication and frequency of change in technology, these controls may not adequately prevent cyber-security breaches. Disruption of critical information technology services, or breaches of information security, could have a material negative effect on the Company's business, financial condition, and results of operations as well as on the Company's reputation.

Insurance and Uninsured Risks

The Company's business is subject to a number of risks and hazards generally, including adverse environmental conditions, accidents, labour disputes and changes in the regulatory environment. Such occurrences could result in damage to assets, personal injury or death, environmental damage, delays in operations, monetary losses and possible legal liability. Although the Company maintains and intends to continue to maintain insurance to protect against certain risks in such amounts as it considers to be reasonable, its insurance will not cover all the potential risks associated with its operations. The Company may also be unable to maintain insurance to cover these risks at economically feasible premiums. Insurance coverage may not continue to be available or may not be adequate to cover any resulting liability. The Company might also become subject to liability for pollution or other hazards which may not be insured against or which the Company may elect not to insure against because of premium costs or other reasons. Losses from these events may cause the Company to incur significant costs that could have a material adverse effect upon its financial performance and results of operations.

Litigation

The Company may become party to litigation from time to time in the ordinary course of business which could adversely affect its business. Should any litigation in which the Company becomes involved be determined against the Company such a decision could adversely affect the Company's ability to continue operating and the market price for Common Shares and could use significant resources. Even if the Company is involved in litigation and wins, litigation can redirect significant company resources.

Governmental Regulations and Risks

The Company and its suppliers are subject to a wide variety of laws, regulations and orders across all jurisdictions in which they do business, including those laws involving labour and employment, intellectual property, privacy, and other matters. Changes to any of the laws, rules, regulations or policies applicable to the Company's business, including tax laws, could adversely affect the operations or financial condition or performance of the Company. Failure by the Company or its suppliers to comply with applicable laws, regulations and orders could subject the Company to civil or regulatory actions, investigations or proceedings, including fines, assessments, injunctions, recalls or seizures, which in turn could adversely affect reputation, operations or financial condition or performance of the Company. In the course of complying with changes to laws, the Company could incur significant costs. Changing laws or interpretations of such laws or enhanced enforcement of existing laws could restrict the Company's operations or profitability and thereby threaten the Company's competitive position and ability to efficiently conduct business.

Competition

Our esports business faces intense and wide-ranging competition, which may have a material negative effect on our business and results of operations. The success of our esports business is dependent upon the performance and/or popularity of its teams. RixGG's teams compete, in varying respects and degrees, with other live sporting events and entertainment options for fans and consumers, including with sporting events delivered over television networks, radio, the Internet and online services, mobile applications and other alternative sources. During some or all of the esports season, our teams face competition, in varying respects and degrees, from professional and collegiate basketball, hockey, baseball, football, and soccer, among others.

As a result of the large number of options available, we face strong competition for the sports and gaming fan. We must compete with other esports teams, traditional sports teams and sporting events, in varying respects and degrees, including on the basis of the quality of the teams we field, their success in the leagues, tournaments and genres in which they compete.

Many of these companies can be expected to have longer operating histories and more financial resources and marketing experience than the Company. Increased competition by larger and better financed competitors could materially and adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Company. Some of these competitors and new entrants may have brands that are or become more widely recognized by consumers than the Company's brand, and they may also have substantially greater financial, marketing, technical or other resources. The Company's competitors may also merge or form strategic partnerships. These factors could adversely impact the Company's competitive position. To remain competitive, the Company will require a continued high level of investment in marketing, sales and customer support. The Company may not have sufficient resources to maintain marketing, sales and customer support efforts on a competitive basis which could materially and adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Company.

Reputation Risk

Damage to the Company's reputation can be the result of the actual or perceived occurrence of any number of events, and could include any negative publicity, whether true or not. The increased usage of social media and other web-based tools used to generate, publish and discuss user-generated content and to connect with other users has made it increasingly easier for individuals and groups to communicate and share opinions and views regarding the Company and its activities, whether true or not. Although the Company believes that it operates in a manner that is respectful to all stakeholders and that it takes care in protecting its image and reputation, the Company does not ultimately have direct control over how it is perceived by others. Reputation loss may result in decreased investor confidence, increased challenges in developing and maintaining community relations and an impediment to the Company's overall ability to advance its projects, thereby having a material adverse impact on financial performance, financial condition, cash flows and growth prospects.

Brand Value

The Company's success largely depends on its ability to maintain and grow the value of the Company's brands. Maintaining, promoting and positioning the Company's brands and reputation will depend on, among other factors, the success of the Company's services and the Company's ability to provide a consistent, high-quality customer experience. Brand value is based on perceptions of subjective qualities, and any incident that erodes the loyalty of customers or suppliers, including adverse publicity or a governmental investigation or litigation, could significantly reduce the value of our brand and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Liability for Actions of Employees, Contractors and Consultants

The Company could be liable for fraudulent or illegal activity by its employees, contractors and consultants resulting in significant financial losses to claims against the Company.

The Company is exposed to the risk that its employees, independent contractors and consultants may engage in fraudulent or other illegal activity. Misconduct by these parties could include intentional, reckless and/or negligent conduct or disclosure of unauthorized activities to the Company that violates: (i) government regulations; (ii) manufacturing standards; (iii) fraud and abuse laws and regulations; or (iv) laws that require the true, complete and accurate reporting of financial information or data. It is not always possible for the Company to identify and deter misconduct by its employees and other third parties, and the precautions taken by the Company to detect and prevent this activity may not be effective in controlling unknown or unmanaged risks or losses or in protecting the Company from governmental investigations or other actions or lawsuits stemming from a failure to be in compliance with such laws or regulations. If any such actions are instituted against the Company, and it is not successful in defending itself or asserting its rights, those actions could have a significant impact on its business, including the imposition of civil, criminal and administrative penalties, damages, monetary fines, contractual damages, reputational harm, diminished profits and future earnings, the curtailment of the Company's operations or asset seizures, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Reliance on Key Personnel

The success of the Company is highly dependent upon the ability, expertise, judgment, discretion and good faith of its limited number of senior management personnel. While employment agreements are customarily used as a primary method of retaining the services of key employees, these agreements cannot assure the continued services of such employees. Any loss of the services of such individuals could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, operating results or financial condition.

Reliance on Third Parties

The Company relies on third parties, including the developers of the games being hosted, for the continuation of tournament hosting. The failure of such third parties to deliver components, finished goods or services on a timely basis could have a material adverse effect on the business. As these are third parties over which the Company will have little or no control, the failure of such third parties to provide components, finished goods or services on a timely basis could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and operating results.

Internet Search Algorithms

In order to attract new customers and retain existing customers, it is important that the Company's brands show up prominently in internet search results. Changes to internet search engines' algorithms or terms of service could cause our website to appear less prominently in search results.

Protection of Intellectual Property Rights

The Company's success may depend on its ability to obtain trademark protection for the names or symbols under which it markets its brand, including in the production and sale of merchandise related to esports teams, and to obtain copyright protection of its content creation and other creative assets. The Company may not be able to build and maintain goodwill in its trademarks or obtain trademark protection. There can be no assurance that any trademark or copyright will provide competitive advantages for the Company or that its intellectual property will not be successfully challenged or circumvented by competitors.

The Company's ability to compete may also depend on the superiority, uniqueness and value of any intellectual property that it may develop. To the extent the Company is able to do so, to protect any proprietary rights of the Company, the Company intends to rely on a combination of patent, trademark, copyright and trade secret laws, confidentiality agreements with its employees and third parties, and protective contractual provisions. Despite these efforts, any of the following occurrences may reduce the value of any of the Company's intellectual property:

- the market for the Company's products and services may depend to a significant extent upon the goodwill associated with its trademarks and trade names, and its ability to register certain of its intellectual property;
- the Company's applications for trademarks and copyrights relating to its business may not be granted and, if granted, may be challenged or invalidated;
- issued patents, trademarks and registered copyrights may not provide the Company with competitive advantages;
- the Company's efforts to protect its intellectual property rights may not be effective in preventing misappropriation of any its products or intellectual property;
- the Company's efforts may not prevent the development and design by others of products or marketing strategies similar to or competitive with, or superior to those the Company develops; and
- the expiration of patent or other intellectual property protections for any assets owned by the Company could result in significant competition, potentially at any time and without notice, resulting in a significant reduction in sales.

The effect of the loss of these protections on the Company and its financial results will depend, among other things, upon the nature of the market and the position of the Company's products in the market from time to time, the growth of the market and regulatory approval requirements but the impact could be material and adverse.

Infringement of Intellectual Property Rights

While the Company believes that its intellectual property and merchandise do not infringe upon the proprietary rights of third parties, its commercial success depends, in part, upon the Company not infringing intellectual property rights of others. The Company has not undertaken a review to determine whether any of its marks or products may infringe any existing third party intellectual property rights, which would require the Company to alter its products or cease certain activities. The Company may become subject to claims by third parties if it infringes their intellectual property. Litigation may be necessary to determine the scope, enforceability and validity of third party proprietary rights or to establish the Company's proprietary rights.

Risks Related to the Common Shares

Market for Securities and Volatility of Share Price

The Common Shares do not currently trade on any exchange or stock market and the price of these Units was negotiated with the Agent. Securities of small-cap companies have experienced substantial volatility in the past, often based on factors unrelated to the companies' financial performance or prospects. These factors include macroeconomic developments in North America and globally and market perceptions of the attractiveness of particular industries. Factors unrelated to the Company's performance that may affect the price of the Common Shares include the following: other developments that affect the breadth of the public market for the Common Shares; the release or expiration of lock-up or other transfer restrictions on the Common Shares; the attractiveness of alternative investments; the extent of analytical coverage available to investors concerning the Company's business may be limited if investment banks with research capabilities do not follow the Company; lessening in trading volume and general market interest in the Common Shares may affect an investor's ability to trade significant numbers of Common Shares; the size of the Company's public float may limit the ability of some institutions to invest in Common Shares; and a substantial decline in the price of the Common Shares that persists for a significant period of time could cause the Common Shares, if listed on an exchange, to be delisted from such exchange, further reducing market liquidity. As a result of any of these factors, the market price of the Common Shares at any given point in time may not accurately reflect the Company's long-term value and may be volatile in the future, which may result in losses to investors.

Securities class action litigation often has been brought against companies following periods of volatility in the market price of their securities. We may in the future be the target of similar litigation. Securities litigation could result in substantial costs and damages and divert management's attention and resources. The fact that no market currently exists for the Common Shares may affect the pricing of the Common Shares in the secondary market, the transparency and availability of trading prices and the liquidity of the Common Shares.

The Company has applied to list the Common Shares on the CSE. In the event of such listing, external factors outside of our control, such as announcements of quarterly variations in operating results, revenues and costs, and sentiments toward stocks, may have a significant impact on the market price of the Common Shares. Global stock markets, including the CSE, have experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations from time to time. There can be no assurance that an active or liquid market will develop or be sustained for the Common Shares.

If the Company does not list the Shares on the CSE prior to the time of issuance on closing in the manner contemplated in this Prospectus under the section "Eligibility for Investment", adverse tax consequences may result with respect to any Shares acquired or held within registered plans.

No Established Market

There is currently no market through which the Company's securities may be sold and purchasers may not be able to resell the Units purchased under this Prospectus. An active public market for the Common Shares might not develop or be sustained after this Offering. Even if a market develops, there is no assurance that the price of the Units offered under this Prospectus, which has been determined by negotiations between the Company and representatives of the Agent, will reflect the prevailing market price of the Common Shares following this Offering. If an active public market for the Common Shares does not develop, the liquidity of a shareholder's investment may be limited, and the Common Share price may decline below the initial public offering price.

No Market for Warrants

There is currently no market through which the Warrants may be sold and the Company does not intend to list the Warrants. There can be no assurance that an active or liquid market for the Warrants will ever develop following the Offering, or if developed, that such market will be maintained. If an active public market does not develop or is not maintained, purchasers may not be able to resell the Warrants purchased under this Prospectus.

Lack of Active Market

There can be no assurance that an active market for the Common Shares will continue and any increased demand to buy or sell the Common Shares can create volatility in price and volume.

Dividends

The Company has not paid dividends in the past and do not anticipate paying dividends in the near future. The Company intends to retain earnings, if any, to finance the growth and development of the Company's business and, where appropriate, retire debt. The payment of future cash dividends, if any, will be reviewed periodically by the Board and will depend upon, among other things, conditions then existing including earnings, financial condition and capital requirements, restrictions in financing agreements, business opportunities and conditions and other factors.

Dilution

Future sales or issuances of equity securities could decrease the value of the Common Shares, dilute shareholders' voting power and reduce future potential earnings per Common Share. The Company intends to sell additional equity securities in subsequent offerings (including through the sale of securities convertible into Common Shares) and may issue additional equity securities to finance our operations, development, exploration, acquisitions or other projects. The Company cannot predict the size of future sales and issuances of equity securities or the effect, if any, that future sales and issuances of equity securities will have on the market price of the Common Shares. Sales or issuances of a substantial number of equity securities, or the perception that such sales could occur, may adversely affect prevailing market prices for the Common Shares. With any additional sale or issuance of equity securities, investors will suffer dilution of their voting power and may experience dilution in our earnings per Common Share.

As a result of any of these factors, the market price of the Common Shares at any given point in time may not accurately reflect the long-term value of the Company. Securities class-action litigation often has been brought against companies following periods of volatility in the market price of their securities. The Company may in the future be the target of similar litigation. Securities litigation could result in substantial costs and damages and divert management's attention and resources.

Use of Available Funds

The Company currently intends to use its available funds as described under "Available Funds". However, the Board and/or management will have discretion in the actual application of the available funds, and may elect to allocate available funds differently from that described under "Available Funds" if they believe it would be in our best interests to do so. Shareholders may not agree with the manner in which the Board and/or management chooses to allocate and spend the available funds. The failure by the Board and/or management to apply these funds effectively could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows or prospects.

Additional Financing

The Company will require equity and/or debt financing to support ongoing operations, to undertake capital expenditures or to undertake acquisitions or other business combination transactions. There can be no assurance that additional financing will be available to the Company when needed or on terms which are acceptable. The Company's inability to raise financing to fund ongoing operations, capital expenditures or acquisitions could limit its growth and may have a material adverse effect upon the Company's business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects.

If additional funds are raised through further issuances of equity or convertible debt securities, existing shareholders could suffer significant dilution, and any new equity securities issued could have rights, preferences and privileges superior to those of holders of Common Shares. Any debt financing secured in the future could involve restrictive covenants relating to capital raising activities and other financial and operational matters, which may make it more difficult for the Company to obtain additional capital and to pursue business opportunities, including potential acquisitions.

PROMOTERS

James Ashton Lewis, Adam Ross, and Sebastian Korbach may be considered "promoters" of the Company for the purposes of applicable securities laws as they have taken the initiative in founding, organizing and substantially reorganizing the business of the Company by founding RixGG, which the Company acquired as its wholly owned subsidiary. Latika Prasad may be considered as a "promoter" of the Company as she organized the Company, and was its sole director and officer prior to the completion of the reverse takeover by RixGG on April 16, 2021. See "Description of the Business". As of the date of this Prospectus, Mr. Lewis owns, directly or indirectly, 2,675,000 Shares (6.7% of the issued and outstanding Shares); Mr. Ross owns, directly or indirectly, 2,266,667 Shares (6.7% of the issued and outstanding Shares); Mr. Korbach does not own, directly or indirectly any Shares; and Ms. Prasad owns, directly or indirectly, 1,731,044 Shares (4.36% of the issued and outstanding Shares).

Other than as disclosed elsewhere in this Prospectus, no person who was a promoter of the Company within the last two years:

- received anything of value directly or indirectly from the Company or a subsidiary;
- sold or otherwise transferred any asset to the Company or a subsidiary within the last two years;
- has been a director, chief executive officer or chief financial officer of any company that during the past 10 years was the subject of a cease trade order or similar order or an order that denied the company access to any exemptions under securities legislation for a period of more than 30 consecutive days or became bankrupt, made a proposal under any legislation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency or been subject to or instituted any proceedings, arrangement or compromise with creditors or had a receiver or receiver manager or trustee appointed to hold its assets;

- has been subject to any penalties or sanctions imposed by a court relating to Canadian securities legislation or by a Canadian securities regulatory authority or has entered into a settlement agreement with a Canadian securities regulatory authority;
- has been subject to any other penalties or sanctions imposed by a court or regulatory body that would be likely to be considered important to a reasonable investor making an investment decision; or
- has within the past 10 years become bankrupt, made a proposal under any legislation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency or been subject to or instituted any proceedings, arrangement or compromise with creditors or had a receiver or receiver manager or trustee appointed to hold its assets.

As at the date of Prospectus, or within the last two years of the date of Prospectus, no person who was a promoter of the Company has been a director, chief executive officer, or chief financial officer of any person or company, that (a) was subject to an order that was issued while the promoter was acting in the capacity as director, chief executive officer or chief financial officer, or (b) was subject to an order that was issued after the promoter ceased to be a director, chief executive officer or chief financial officer and which resulted from an event that occurred while the promoter was acting in the capacity as director, chief executive officer or chief financial officer, state the fact and describe the basis on which the order was made and whether the order is still in effect.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS AND REGULATORY ACTIONS

Legal Proceedings

In addition, the Company is not currently aware of any such legal proceedings being contemplated.

Regulatory Actions

From the date of incorporation of the Company to the date of this Prospectus, there have been no: (i) penalties or sanctions imposed against the Company by a court relating to provincial and territorial securities legislation or by a securities regulatory authority; (ii) other penalties or sanctions imposed by a court or regulatory body against the Company necessary for the Prospectus to contain full, true and plain disclosure of all material facts relating to the securities being distributed; and (iii) settlement agreements the Company entered into before a court relating to provincial and territorial securities legislation or with a securities regulatory authority.

INTERESTS OF MANAGEMENT AND OTHERS IN MATERIAL TRANSACTIONS

Except as disclosed above under the heading "Executive Compensation", no person that is: (i) a Director, Officer or Promoter of the Company; (ii) a person or company that beneficially owns, or controls or directs, directly or indirectly, more than 10% of any class or series of the Company's outstanding voting securities; or (iii) an associate or affiliate of any of the persons or companies referred to in paragraphs (i) or (ii), has had any material interest, direct or indirect, in any transaction within the three years before the date of this Prospectus that has materially affected or is reasonably expected to materially affect the Company.

MATERIAL CONTRACTS

There are no contracts of the Company, other than contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business, that are material to the Company, other than:

- (b) the Warrant Indenture to be entered into on the Closing Date between the Company and the Transfer Agent for the Warrants to be issued under this Prospectus, referred to under “Description of the Securities Distributed”; and
- (c) the Escrow Agreement to be entered into among the Company, the Transfer Agent and certain shareholders of the Company, referred to under “Escrowed Securities and Resale Restrictions”.

INTERESTS OF EXPERTS

The following are persons or companies whose profession or business gives authority to a statement made in this Prospectus as having prepared or certified a part of that document or report described in the Prospectus:

- McMillan LLP is the Company’s counsel with respect to Canadian legal matters herein; and
- Smythe LLP, Chartered Professional Accountants, is the external auditor of the Company and reported on the Company’s audited consolidated financial statements for the period from September 16, 2020 to August 31, 2021 and for the year ended March 31, 2021, each attached as Schedule “A” and “B”, respectively. Smythe LLP has advised that it is independent with respect to the Company within the meaning of the Code of Professional Conduct of the Chartered Professional Accountants of British Columbia.

To the knowledge of management, as of the date hereof, no expert, nor any associate or affiliate of such person has any beneficial interest, direct or indirect, in the securities or property of the Company or of an associate or affiliate of any of them, and no such person is or is expected to be elected, appointed or employed as a director, officer or employee of the Company or of an associate or affiliate thereof.

ELIGIBILITY FOR INVESTMENT

In the opinion of McMillan LLP, counsel to the Company, based on the current provisions of the Tax Act and all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof, the Unit Shares, Warrants and Warrant Shares would be qualified investments at a particular time for a trust governed by a registered retirement savings plan (“RRSP”), registered retirement income fund (“RRIF”), deferred profit sharing plan, registered education savings plan (“RESP”), registered disability savings plan (“RDSP”) or tax-free savings account (“TFSA”) (collectively, the “Deferred Income Plans”), if and provided that, at the particular time:

- (i) in the case of the Unit Shares and Warrant Shares, the shares are listed on a “designated stock exchange” for the purposes of the Tax Act (which currently includes the CSE) or the Company qualifies as a “public corporation” (as defined in the Tax Act); and
- (ii) in the case of the Warrants, the Warrant Shares are qualified investments on the basis as described in (i) above, and further provided that the Company is not, and deals at arm’s length with each person who is, an annuitant, a beneficiary, an employer or a subscriber under or a holder of such Deferred Income Plan.

The Shares are currently not listed on a “designated stock exchange” and the Company is currently not a “public corporation”, as those terms are defined in the Tax Act. Accordingly, the Unit Shares, Warrants and Warrant Shares are currently not a qualified investment for Deferred Income Plans. The Company must rely on the Exchange to list the Shares on the Exchange and have them posted for trading prior to or concurrent with the issuance of the Shares on Closing and to otherwise proceed in such manner as may be required to result in the Shares being considered as listed on the Exchange for purposes of the Tax Act at the time of their issuance on Closing, and counsel expresses no opinion in this regard. Listing will be subject to the Company fulfilling all of the requirements of the Exchange, and there can be no guarantee that Exchange approval of a listing (if at all) will be granted or will be in a form that is, or is acceptable to the Canada Revenue Agency (the “CRA”) as, a full and unconditional listing sufficient for “qualified investment” status under the Tax Act for purposes of a Deferred Income Plan. If the Shares are not effectively listed on a “designated stock exchange” (which currently includes the Exchange) for purposes of the Tax Act at the time of their issuance on Closing and the Company is not otherwise a “public corporation” at that time, the Shares will not be “qualified investments” for the Deferred Income Plans at that time. The adverse tax consequences where a Deferred Income Plan acquires or holds Shares that are not a “qualified investment” are not discussed in this summary. Holders who intend to acquire or hold Unit Shares, Warrants or Warrant Shares within a Deferred Income Plan should consult their own tax advisors in this regard.

Notwithstanding that Unit Shares, Warrants and Warrant Shares may become a qualified investment as referred to above, the holder of a TFSA or an RDSP, the annuitant under an RRSP or RRIF, or the subscriber of an RESP, as the case may be, will be subject to a penalty tax in respect of Unit Shares, Warrants or Warrant Shares held in such Deferred Income Plan if such securities are a “prohibited investment” for the relevant Deferred Income Plan. A security will generally be a “prohibited investment” for a TFSA, RRSP, RRIF, RDSP or RESP if the holder, annuitant or subscriber, as the case may be, does not deal at arm’s length with the Company for the purposes of the Tax Act or has a “significant interest” (as defined in the Tax Act) in the Company. Holders of a TFSA or an RDSP, annuitants under an RRSP or RRIF, and subscribers of an RESP should consult their own tax advisors as to whether the Unit Shares, Warrants or Warrant Shares will be a prohibited investment in their particular circumstances.

CERTAIN CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is, as at the date of this Prospectus, a summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations under the Tax Act generally applicable to an investor who acquires Units pursuant to the Offering and who, for the purposes of the Tax Act and at all relevant times, (i) deals at arm’s length with the Company and the Agent, (ii) is not affiliated with the Company or the Agent or a subsequent purchaser of the Unit Shares, Warrants or Warrant Shares, and (iii) acquires and holds the Unit Shares and Warrants, and will hold the Warrant Shares issuable on the exercise of the Warrants, as capital property. A holder who meets all of the foregoing requirements is referred to as a “Holder” in this summary, and this summary only addresses such Holders.

This summary does not apply to (i) a Holder that is a “financial institution” for the purposes of the mark-to-market rules contained in the Tax Act; (ii) a Holder that is a “specified financial institution” as defined in the Tax Act; (iii), a Holder an interest in which would be a “tax shelter investment” as defined in the Tax Act; (iv) a Holder that has made a functional currency reporting election under the Tax Act; (v) a Holder that has entered into or will enter into a “derivative forward agreement” or “synthetic disposition arrangement”, as those terms are defined in the Tax Act, with respect to the Shares or Warrants; or (vi) a Holder that is otherwise of special status or in special circumstances. All such Holders should consult their own tax advisors.

Additional considerations, not discussed herein, may be applicable to a Holder that is a corporation resident in Canada and is, or becomes as part of a transaction or event or series of transactions or events that includes the acquisition of the Units, controlled by a non-resident for purposes of the “foreign affiliate dumping” rules in section 212.3 of the Tax Act. Such Holders should also consult their own tax advisors.

This summary is based on the current provisions of the Tax Act in force as of the date hereof and our understanding of the current published administrative and assessing practice of the CRA. Except as specifically referenced below, this summary takes into account all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof (the “Tax Proposals”) and assumes that the Tax Proposals will be enacted in the form proposed, although no assurance can be given that the Tax Proposals will be enacted in their current form or at all. This summary does not otherwise take into account any changes in law or in the administrative policies or assessing practice of the CRA, whether by legislative, governmental or judicial decision or action, nor does it take into account or consider any provincial, territorial or foreign income tax considerations, which considerations may differ significantly from the Canadian federal income tax considerations discussed in this summary.

This summary is of a general nature only, is not exhaustive of all possible Canadian federal income tax considerations and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any particular investor. All investors (including Holders as defined above) should consult their own tax advisors with respect to their particular circumstances.

Allocation of Cost

Each Unit comprises a Unit Share and a Warrant, and the total purchase price of a Unit to a Holder must be allocated on a reasonable basis between such Unit Share and such Warrant in order to determine the cost of each to the Holder for purposes of the Tax Act.

For its purposes, the Company intends to allocate $0.43 of the Offering Price of each Unit as consideration for the issue of a Unit Share and $0.02 of the Offering Price of each Unit for the issue of a Warrant. Although the Company believes its allocation is reasonable, it is not binding on the CRA or the Holder. The Holder's adjusted cost base of a Unit Share will be determined by averaging the cost allocated to the Unit Share with the adjusted cost base to the Holder of all Common Shares owned by the Holder as capital property immediately prior to such acquisition.

Exercise of Warrants

The exercise of a Warrant to acquire a Warrant Share will be deemed not to constitute a disposition of property for purposes of the Tax Act. As a result, no gain or loss will be realized by a Holder on the exercise of a Warrant to acquire a Warrant Share. When a Warrant is exercised, the Holder's cost of the Warrant Share acquired thereby will be equal to the aggregate of the Holder's adjusted cost base of such Warrant and the exercise price paid for the Warrant Share. The Holder's adjusted cost base of the Warrant Share so acquired will be determined by averaging the cost of the Warrant Share with the adjusted cost base to the Holder of all Common Shares owned by the Holder as capital property immediately prior to such acquisition.

Holders Resident in Canada

The following section of this summary applies to Holders who, for the purposes of the Tax Act, are or are deemed to be resident in Canada at all relevant times ("Resident Holders"). Certain Resident Holders whose Shares might not constitute capital property may make, in certain circumstances, an irrevocable election permitted by subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act to deem the Shares, and every other "Canadian security" (as defined in the Tax Act) held by such persons, in the taxation year of the election and each subsequent taxation year, to be capital property. This election does not apply to Warrants. Resident Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding this election.

Expiry of Warrants

In the event of the expiry of an unexercised Warrant, a Resident Holder generally will realize a capital loss equal to the Resident Holder's adjusted cost base of such Warrant. The tax treatment of capital gains and capital losses is discussed in greater detail below under the subheading "Capital Gains and Capital Losses".

Dividends

Dividends received or deemed to be received on the Shares, if any, will be included in computing a Resident Holder's income. In the case of an individual (other than certain trusts), such dividends will be subject to the gross-up and dividend tax credit rules normally applicable in respect of "taxable dividends" received from "taxable Canadian corporations" (as defined in the Tax Act), including the enhanced dividend tax credit in respect of "eligible dividends", if any, so designated by the Company to the Resident Holder in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act. There may be restrictions on the Company's ability to designate any dividends as "eligible dividends", and the Company has made no commitments in this regard.

Dividends received or deemed to be received by a Resident Holder that is a corporation must be included in computing its income but may be deductible in computing its taxable income, subject to all restrictions and special rules under the Tax Act. A Resident Holder that is a "private corporation" (as defined in the Tax Act) and certain other corporations controlled by or for the benefit of an individual (other than a trust) or related group of individuals (other than trusts) generally will be liable to pay a special tax under Part IV of the Tax Act (refundable in certain circumstances) on dividends received or deemed to be received on the Common Shares to the extent such dividends are deductible in computing taxable income. In certain circumstances, subsection 55(2) of the Tax Act will treat a taxable dividend received or deemed to be received by a Resident Holder that is a corporation as proceeds of disposition or a capital gain, and Resident Holders that are corporations should consult their own tax advisors in this regard.

Dispositions of Shares and Warrants

Upon a disposition (or a deemed disposition) of a Share (except to the Company) or a Warrant (other than on the exercise thereof), a Resident Holder generally will realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) equal to the amount by which the proceeds of disposition of such security, as applicable, net of any reasonable costs of disposition, are greater (or are less) than the adjusted cost base of such security, as applicable, to the Resident Holder. The tax treatment of capital gains and capital losses is discussed in greater detail below under the subheading “Capital Gains and Capital Losses”.

Capital Gains and Capital Losses

Generally, a Resident Holder is required to include in computing income for a taxation year one-half of the amount of any capital gain (a “taxable capital gain”) realized in the year. Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act, a Resident Holder is required to deduct one-half of the amount of any capital loss (an “allowable capital loss”) realized in a taxation year from taxable capital gains realized in the year by such Resident Holder. Allowable capital losses in excess of taxable capital gains may be carried back and deducted in any of the 3 preceding taxation years or carried forward and deducted in any following taxation year against taxable capital gains realized in such year, to the extent and under the circumstances described in the Tax Act.

The amount of any capital loss realized on the disposition or deemed disposition of Shares by a Resident Holder that is a corporation may, in certain circumstances, be reduced by the amount of dividends received or deemed to have been received by it on such Shares. Similar rules may apply where a corporation is a member of a partnership or a beneficiary of a trust that owns Shares directly or indirectly through a partnership or trust. Resident Holders to whom these rules may be relevant should consult their own tax advisors.

Additional Refundable Tax

A Resident Holder that is throughout the relevant taxation year a “Canadian-controlled private corporation” (as defined in the Tax Act) may be liable to pay a special additional tax (refundable in certain circumstances) on its “aggregate investment income” for the year, which is defined in the Tax Act to include amounts in respect of taxable capital gains and certain dividends.

Minimum Tax

Capital gains realized and dividends received by a Resident Holder that is an individual or a trust, other than certain specified trusts, may give rise to minimum tax under the Tax Act. Affected Resident Holders should consult their own advisors with respect to the application of the minimum tax.

Holders Not Resident in Canada

The following section of this summary is generally applicable to Holders who, for the purposes of the Tax Act and at all relevant times (i) are not, and are not be deemed to be, resident in Canada, and (ii) do not use or hold, and are not deemed to use or hold, the Units, Shares or Warrants in carrying on a business in Canada (“Non-Resident Holders”). Special rules, which are not discussed in this summary, may apply to a Non-Resident Holder that is an insurer carrying on business in Canada and elsewhere or that is an “authorized foreign bank” (as defined in the Tax Act). Such Holders should consult their own tax advisors.

Dividends

Dividends paid or credited or deemed to be paid or credited to a Non-Resident Holder by the Company on a Share are subject to Canadian withholding tax at the rate of 25% on the gross amount of the dividend unless such rate is reduced by the terms of an applicable tax treaty. Under the Canada-United States Income Tax Convention (1980) (the “Treaty”) as amended, for example, the rate of withholding tax on dividends paid or credited to a Non-Resident Holder who is resident in the U.S. for purposes of the Treaty, is the beneficial owner of the dividends, and can substantiate entitlement to the benefits under the Treaty (a “U.S. Holder”) is generally limited to 15% of the gross amount of the dividend (or 5% in the case of a U.S. Holder that is a corporation that beneficially owns at least 10% of the Company’s voting shares). Affected Non-Resident Holders should consult their own tax advisors in this regard.

Dispositions of Shares and Warrants

A Non-Resident Holder generally will not be subject to tax under the Tax Act in respect of a capital gain realized on the disposition or deemed disposition of a Share or a Warrant, nor will capital losses arising therefrom be recognized under the Tax Act, unless the Share or Warrant constitutes or is deemed to constitute “taxable Canadian property” to the Non-Resident Holder thereof for purposes of the Tax Act and the gain is not exempt from tax pursuant to the terms of an applicable tax treaty.

Provided the Shares are listed on a “designated stock exchange” as defined in the Tax Act (which currently includes the CSE) at the time of disposition, the Shares and Warrants generally will not constitute taxable Canadian property of a Non-Resident Holder at that time unless, at any time during the 60 month period ending at the time of the disposition, the following two conditions are simultaneously met: (i) the Non-Resident Holder, persons with whom the Non-Resident Holder did not deal at arm’s length, partnerships in which the Non-Resident Holder or such non-arm’s length person holds a membership interest (either directly or indirectly through one or more partnerships), or the Non-Resident Holder together with all such persons, owned 25% or more of the issued shares of any class or series of shares of the Company; and (ii) more than 50% of the fair market value of such shares was derived directly or indirectly from one or any combination of real or immovable property situated in Canada, “Canadian resource property” (as defined in the Tax Act), “timber resource property” (as defined in the Tax Act) or an option in respect of, an interest in or for civil law a right in or to such property, whether or not such property exists. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Share or Warrant may also be deemed to be taxable Canadian property to a Non-Resident Holder under certain other provisions of the Tax Act.

A Non-Resident Holder’s capital gain (or capital loss) in respect of Shares or Warrants that constitute or are deemed to constitute taxable Canadian property (and are not “treaty-protected property” as defined in the Tax Act) will generally be computed in the manner described above under the subheading “Holders Resident in Canada – Dispositions of Shares and Warrants”.

Non-Resident Holders who may hold Shares or Warrants as taxable Canadian property should consult their own tax advisors in this regard.

OTHER MATERIAL FACTS

There are no material facts relating to the Company other than as disclosed herein that are necessary to be disclosed for this Prospectus to contain full, true, and plain disclosure of all material facts.

RIGHTS OF WITHDRAWAL AND RESCISSION

The Company and the Agent hereby confirm that purchasers who purchase Units under the Offering through the Company have the same rights and remedies for rescission and/or damages against the Company and the Agent, as the case may be, as purchasers who purchase Units under the Offering through the Agent.

Securities legislation in certain of the provinces and territories of Canada provides purchasers with the right to withdraw from an agreement to purchase securities. This right may be exercised within two business days after receipt or deemed receipt of a prospectus and any amendment. In several of the provinces, the securities legislation further provides a purchaser with remedies for rescission or, in some jurisdictions, damages if the prospectus and any amendment contains a misrepresentation or is not delivered to the purchaser, provided that the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser’s province or territory. The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser’s province for the particulars of these rights or consult with a legal adviser.

CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

FOR THE PERIOD FROM SEPTEMBER 16, 2020 TO AUGUST 31, 2021

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF X1 ESPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT LTD.

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of X1 Esports and Entertainment Ltd. (the "Company"), which comprise:

- the consolidated statement of financial position as at August 31, 2021;
- the consolidated statement of loss and comprehensive loss for the period from September 16, 2020 to August 31, 2021;
- the consolidated statement of changes in shareholders' equity for the period from September 16, 2020 to August 31, 2021;
- the consolidated statement of cash flows for the period from September 16, 2020 to August 31, 2021; and
- the notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company as at August 31, 2021, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the period from September 16, 2020 to August 31, 2021 in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS").

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Material Uncertainty Related to Going Concern

We draw attention to Note 1 in the consolidated financial statements, which indicates that the Company has incurred net loss of $2,014,622 for the period from September 16, 2020 to August 31, 2021. As stated in Note 1, this event or condition, along with other matters as set forth in Note 1, indicates that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

We obtained Management's Discussion and Analysis prior to the date of this auditors' report. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements. As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- ♦ Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- ♦ Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- ♦ Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

- ◆ Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- ◆ Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- ◆ Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditors' report is Michelle Chi Wai So.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

FOR THE PERIOD FROM SEPTEMBER 16, 2020 TO AUGUST 31, 2021

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND GOING CONCERN

X1 ESPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT LTD. (with its subsidiaries, collectively, the “Company” or “X1”) is an esports-focused portfolio company. X1 was incorporated under the Company Act (British Columbia) on January 9, 2020. The Company name was changed from 1236705 B.C. LTD. on April 23, 2021. The Company completed a reverse takeover transaction on April 16, 2021, as further described below, and the continuing entity for accounting purposes was incorporated under the Companies Act (Malta) on September 16, 2020. The Company maintains its registered office at Royal Centre, 1500 – 1055 West Georgia Street, PO Box 11117, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada V6E 4N7. The Company’s principal place of business is 615 – 800 West Pender Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada V6C 2V6.

On April 23, 2021, the Company completed a share consolidation on the basis of 1 new common share for 2 old common shares. All share and per share information have been amended retrospectively to reflect the share consolidation.

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) on a going concern basis, which contemplates that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business.

The Company reported a net loss for the period ended August 31, 2021 of $2,014,622 and as of that date had an accumulated deficit of $2,014,622. The Company’s ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to raise funds primarily through the issuance of shares or achieve profitable operations. The outcome of these matters cannot be predicted at this time. If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing, management may be required to curtail certain expenses. These material uncertainties may cast significant doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. Accordingly, these consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classifications of assets and liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. Such adjustments could be material.

Reverse Takeover

On April 16, 2021, the Company issued 10,000,000 common shares to acquire all of the issued and outstanding common shares of Rix.GG Europe Ltd. (“Rix”). After completion of the transaction, the shareholders of Rix held approximately 99.99% of the Company. Accordingly, Rix is considered to have acquired the Company with the transaction being accounted for as a reverse takeover of the Company by Rix shareholders (the “RTO”) (Note 4).

As Rix is deemed to be the acquirer for accounting purposes, these consolidated financial statements represent a continuation of the financial position and financial performance of Rix prior to the acquisition of X1. The results of operations of X1 and its pre-existing subsidiaries are included from April 16, 2021, the deemed date of acquisition of X1, onwards. The Company’s consolidated financial statements are presented from the date of September 16, 2020 being the incorporation date of Rix.

COVID-19

Since January 2020, the outbreak of the novel strain of coronavirus, specifically identified as “COVID-19”, has resulted in governments worldwide enacting emergency measures to combat the spread of the virus. These measures, which include the implementation of travel bans, self-imposed quarantine periods and physical distancing, have caused material disruption to business globally resulting in an economic slowdown. Global equity markets have experienced significant volatility. The duration and enduring impact of the COVID-19 outbreak is unknown at this time, as is the efficacy of the government and central bank interventions. It is not possible to reliably estimate the length and severity of these developments and the impact on the financial results and condition of the Company in future periods.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

Statement of compliance

These consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with IFRS, as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”).

 NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 (Expressed in Canadian Dollars)
FOR THE PERIOD FROM SEPTEMBER 16, 2020 TO AUGUST 31, 2021

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION (cont'd...)

Basis of consolidation and presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments measured at fair value. In addition, these consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting, except for cash flow information.

These consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and its wholly controlled subsidiaries. Control exists when the Company has the power, directly or indirectly, to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its direct wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

Use of judgments and estimates

The preparation of these consolidated financial statements requires management to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the actual results. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

The key areas of judgment applied in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that could result in a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities are as follows:

- Going concern

The assessment of the Company's ability to continue as a going concern and to raise sufficient funds to pay its ongoing operating expenditures and to meet its liabilities for the ensuing year involves significant judgment based on historical experience and other factors, including expectation of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

- Business combinations

Judgment is used in determining who is the acquiror and whether an acquisition is a business combination or an asset acquisition. The assessment required management to assess the relative ownership interests pursuant to the transaction and the inputs, processes and outputs of the company being acquired at the time of acquisition. Pursuant to the assessment, the acquisition was deemed to be an RTO of X1 which was considered to be asset acquisition as X1 did not meet the definition of a business (Note 4).

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries.

Subsidiary	Functional Currency	Jurisdiction
Forward Agency Ltd.	UK Pound Sterling	England and Wales
Mechanics Agency Ltd.	UK Pound Sterling	England and Wales
Rix.GG Europe Ltd.	Euro	Malta

All material intercompany transactions have been eliminated upon consolidation. A subsidiary is an entity over which the Company has control, where control indicates exposure or rights to variable returns and the ability to affect those returns through power over the investee.

Currency Translation

IFRS requires that the functional currency of each entity in the consolidated group be determined separately in accordance with the indicators as per International Accounting Standards ("IAS") 21 The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates and should be measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The functional currency of the Company is the Canadian dollar; the functional currencies of the subsidiaries are highlighted above under Basis of consolidation. The consolidated financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars, which is the Company's presentation currency.

Under IFRS, the results and financial position of all the Company's entities (none of which has the currency of a hyper-inflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities are translated at the closing rate at the date of the consolidated statement of financial position;
- income and expenses are translated at average exchange rates (unless this average is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the rate on the date of the transaction); and
- all resulting exchange differences are recognized as a separate component of equity.

Financial instruments

Financial assets

The Company classifies its financial assets in the following categories: fair value through profit or loss, amortized cost or fair value through other comprehensive income. The classification depends on the purpose for which the financial assets were acquired. Management determines the classification of financial assets at initial recognition.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are initially recognized at fair value with changes in fair value recorded in profit or loss.

Amortized cost

Financial assets are classified at amortized cost if both of the following criteria are met and the financial assets are not classified or designated as fair value through profit and loss: 1) the Company's objective for these financial assets is to collect their contractual cash flows, and 2) the asset's contractual cash flows represent 'solely payments of principal and interest'. The Company's cash are recorded at amortized cost as they meet the required criteria.

Fair value through other comprehensive income ("OCI")

For financial assets that are not held for trading, the Company can make an irrevocable election at initial recognition to classify the instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI"), with all subsequent changes in fair value being recognized in other comprehensive income. This election is available for each separate investment. Under this category, fair value changes are recognized in OCI while dividends are recognized in profit or loss. The Company does not have any financial assets designated as FVOCI.

Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are non-derivatives and are recognized initially at fair value, net of transaction costs, and are subsequently stated at amortized cost. Any difference between the amounts originally received, net of transaction costs, and the redemption value is recognized in profit or loss over the period to maturity using the effective interest method.

Financial liabilities are classified as current or non-current based on their maturity date. Financial liabilities include accounts payable and accrued liabilities.

Fair value hierarchy

Fair value measurements of financial instruments are required to be classified using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of inputs in making the measurements. The levels of the fair value hierarchy are defined as follows.

Level 1 – Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 – Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data.

Capital stock

Proceeds received on the issuance of units, consisting of common shares and warrants, are allocated first to common shares based on estimated fair value of the common shares at the time the units are priced, and any excess is allocated to warrants.

Shares issued as consideration for goods or services provided to those other than employees or others providing similar services are measured at the fair value of the goods or services received, except where the fair value cannot be measured reliably, in which case they are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments granted.

Loss per share

Basic loss per share is calculated by dividing the loss available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of shares outstanding in the period. For all periods presented, the loss available to common shareholders equals the reported loss. Diluted loss per share is calculated by the treasury stock method. Under the treasury stock method, the weighted average number of shares outstanding for the calculation of diluted loss per share assumes that the proceeds to be received on the exercise of dilutive share options and warrants are used to repurchase common shares at the average market price during the period. In the Company's case, diluted loss per share is the same as basic loss per share, as the effects of including all outstanding options and warrants would be anti-dilutive. Shares subject to escrow restrictions are excluded from the weighted average number of common shares unless their release is subject only to the passage of time.

Income taxes

The Company uses the balance sheet method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using substantively enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Deferred income tax assets also result from unused loss carry-forwards, resource related pools and other deductions. A deferred tax asset is recognized for unused tax losses, tax credits and deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be utilized.

Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd...)

Revenue Recognition

The Company reviews its revenue streams and major contracts with customers using the IFRS 15 – Revenue from Contracts with Customers five step model as follows:

- Identify the contract with a customer;
 - Identify the performance obligations in the contract;
 - Determine the transaction price, which is the total consideration provided by the customer;
 - Allocate the transaction price among the performance obligations in the contract based on their relative fair values; and
 - Recognize revenue when the relevant criteria are met for each performance obligation.
- (a) Prize Money
The Company generates revenue through participation in esports tournaments. These arrangements predominantly contain a single performance obligation and revenue is recognized at a single point in time when the performance obligation is achieved, which is typically the date of the Company's esports player placing in an esports tournament.

- (b) Player Transfers
The Company generates revenue through the sale of esports player contracts to other esports companies. The Company's performance obligations are defined in each agreement with its customers. The transaction prices allocated to performance obligations are set for in each agreement as a fixed fee for the performance obligation rendered. Performance obligations typically include the transfer of the esports player and the esports player's participation in a later esports event. Transaction prices are recognized as revenue in the period when the performance obligation has been satisfied and collection is reasonably assured.

4. ACQUISITION OF RIX.GG EUROPE LTD.

As described in Note 1, the Company acquired Rix during the period ended August 31, 2021. For accounting purposes, the transaction has been accounted for as an RTO with Rix deemed to be the accounting acquirer and X1, the legal acquirer deemed to be the accounting acquiree. At the date of acquisition X1 did not meet the definition of a business and the transaction has been accounted for as an acquisition of net assets, rather than a business combination. The transaction is accounted for in accordance with IFRS 2 – Share-based payments and IFRS 3 Business Combinations ("IFRS 3"). As the Company did not qualify as a business according to the definition in IFRS 3 as there were no substantive processes in place, the acquisition does not constitute a business combination; rather, it is treated as an issuance of shares by Rix for the net liabilities of the Company with X1 as the continuing entity.

As a result of this transaction, a reverse takeover transaction cost of $200,605 has been recorded. This reflects the difference between the estimated fair value of Rix's shares deemed to have been issued to X1's shareholders, plus transaction costs incurred, less the net fair value of the assets of X1 acquired.

In accordance with reverse acquisition accounting:

- i) The assets and liabilities of Rix are included in the statement of financial position at their carrying values.
- ii) The net liabilities of the Company have been measured at their fair value of $200,605.

9. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Financial instruments

Cash and accounts payable and accrued liabilities are carried at amortized cost. The Company considers that the carrying amount of these financial assets and liabilities measured at amortized cost to approximate their fair value due to the short-term nature of the financial instruments.

Fair value estimates of financial instruments are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant information about financial markets and specific financial instruments. As these estimates are subjective in nature, involving uncertainties and matters of significant judgment, they cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions can significantly affect estimated fair values.

Financial risk factors

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of potential loss to the Company if the counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its liquid financial assets, including cash. The Company limits exposure to credit risk on liquid financial assets through maintaining its cash with high-credit quality financial institutions. As the Company's policy is to limit cash holdings to instruments issued by a major Canadian bank and an international financial institution, the credit risk is considered by management to be negligible. The Company considers credit risk with respect to these amounts to be low.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to pay financial instrument liabilities as they come due. As at August 31, 2021, the Company had working capital of $2,003,621. The Company's financial obligations are limited to accounts payable and accrued liabilities, all of which have contractual maturities of less than a year.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in market interest rates. The Company's financial assets and financial liabilities are not exposed to interest rate risk due to their short-term nature and maturity. The Company is not exposed to interest rate risk as at August 31, 2021.

Foreign currency risk

The Company's has engaged a number of vendors in Europe as that is where the main business activities of the Company are held. As such, the Company is exposed to foreign currency risk. Fluctuations in the exchange rate between the Canadian dollar with the Euro and UK Pound Sterling may have an adverse effect on the Company's business and costs to proceed with preferred vendors.

As at August 31, 2021, the Company's net foreign denominated financial assets are as follows:

	Foreign currency		Canadian dollar equivalent
Euro	€	50,911	$ 75,888
UK Pound Sterling	£	33,575	$ 57,956

Based on the above net exposures, a 5% change in the Canadian dollar to Euro and the Canadian dollar to UK Pound Sterling would impact the Company's net loss by approximately $3,800 and $2,900, respectively. As at August 31, 2021, the Company has not hedged its exposure to currency fluctuations. The Company assessed its financial currency risk as moderate as at August 31, 2021.

The Company's capital structure includes shareholders' equity of $2,003,621 as at August 31, 2021. FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2021
AND
PERIOD FROM INCORPORATION ON JANUARY 9, 2020 TO MARCH 31, 2020

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF X1 ESPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT LTD.

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of X1 Esports and Entertainment Ltd. (the "Company"), which comprise:

- ♦ the consolidated statements of financial position as at March 31, 2021 and 2020;
- ♦ the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss for the year ended March 31, 2021 and the period from incorporation on January 9, 2020 to March 31, 2020;
- ♦ the consolidated statements of changes in shareholders' equity for the year ended March 31, 2021 and the period from incorporation on January 9, 2020 to March 31, 2020;
- ♦ the consolidated statements of cash flows for the year ended March 31, 2021 and the period from incorporation on January 9, 2020 to March 31, 2020; and
- ♦ the notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company as at March 31, 2021 and 2020, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year ended March 31, 2021 and the period from incorporation on January 9, 2020 to March 31, 2020 in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS").

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained in our audits is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Material Uncertainty Related to Going Concern

We draw attention to Note 1 in the consolidated financial statements, which indicates that the Company has incurred net loss of $140,442 for the year ended March 31, 2021. As stated in Note 1, this event or condition, along with other matters as set forth in Note 1, indicates that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in Management's Discussion and Analysis.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

We obtained Management's Discussion and Analysis prior to the date of this auditors' report. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements. As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- ♦ Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- ♦ Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- ♦ Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

- ◆ Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- ◆ Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- ◆ Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditors' report is Michelle Chi Wai So.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2021

AND PERIOD FROM INCORPORATION ON JANUARY 9, 2020 TO MARCH 31, 2020

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND GOING CONCERN

X1 ESPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT LTD. (with its subsidiaries, collectively, the “Company” or “X1”) is an esports and entertainment company focused on media and content within a global scale. X1 was incorporated under the Company Act (British Columbia) on January 9, 2020. On April 23, 2021, the Company name was changed from 1236705 B.C. Ltd. The Company maintains its registered office at Royal Centre, 1500 – 1055 West Georgia Street, PO Box 11117, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada V6E 4N7. The Company’s principal place of business is 615 – 800 Pender Street W, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada V6C 2V6.

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) on a going concern basis, which contemplates that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. Accordingly, these consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classifications of assets and liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. Such adjustments could be material.

The Company reported a net loss and accumulated deficit of $139,265 as at March 31, 2021. The Company’s ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to raise funds primarily through the issuance of shares or achieve profitable operations. The outcome of these matters cannot be predicted at this time. If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing, management may be required to curtail certain expenses. These material uncertainties may cast significant doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern.

COVID-19

Since January 2020, the outbreak of the novel strain of coronavirus, specifically identified as “COVID-19”, has resulted in governments worldwide enacting emergency measures to combat the spread of the virus. These measures, which include the implementation of travel bans, self-imposed quarantine periods and physical distancing, have caused material disruption to business globally resulting in an economic slowdown. Global equity markets have experienced significant volatility. The duration and enduring impact of the COVID-19 outbreak is unknown at this time, as is the efficacy of the government and central bank interventions. It is not possible to reliably estimate the length and severity of these developments and the impact on the financial results and condition of the Company in future periods.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

Statement of compliance

These consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with IFRS, as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”).

Basis of consolidation and presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments measured at fair value. In addition, these consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting, except for cash flow information.

These consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and its wholly controlled subsidiaries. Control exists when the Company has the power, directly or indirectly, to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its direct wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2021

AND PERIOD FROM INCORPORATION ON JANUARY 9, 2020 TO MARCH 31, 2020

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION (cont'd...)

Use of judgments and estimates

The preparation of these consolidated financial statements requires management to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the actual results. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

The key areas of judgment applied in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that could result in a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities are as follows:

- Going concern

The assessment of the Company's ability to continue as a going concern and to raise sufficient funds to pay its ongoing operating expenditures and to meet its liabilities for the ensuing year involves significant judgment based on historical experience and other factors, including expectation of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

- Deferred income tax

The value of deferred tax assets is evaluated based on the probability of realization; the Company has assessed that it is improbable that such assets will be realized and has accordingly not recognized a value for deferred taxes.

- Loan receivable

Management applies judgment in the assessment of the collectability of the loan receivable from Rix.GG Europe Ltd. During the year ended March 31, 2021, no indications of impairment of collectability were identified.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries.

Subsidiary	Functional Currency	Jurisdiction
Forward Agency Ltd.	UK Pound Sterling	England and Wales
Mechanics Agency Ltd.	UK Pound Sterling	England and Wales

All material intercompany transactions have been eliminated upon consolidation. A subsidiary is an entity over which the Company has control, where control indicates exposure or rights to variable returns and the ability to affect those returns through power over the investee.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd...)

Currency Translation

IFRS requires that the functional currency of each entity in the consolidated group be determined separately in accordance with the indicators as per International Accounting Standards ("IAS") 21 The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates and should be measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The functional currency of the Company is the Canadian dollar; the functional currencies of the subsidiaries are highlighted above under Basis of consolidation. The consolidated financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars, which is the Company's presentation currency.

Under IFRS, the results and financial position of all the Company's entities (none of which has the currency of a hyper-inflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities are translated at the closing rate at the date of the consolidated statement of financial position;
- income and expenses are translated at average exchange rates (unless this average is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the rate on the date of the transaction); and
- all resulting exchange differences are recognized as a separate component of equity.

Financial instruments

Financial assets

The Company classifies its financial assets in the following categories: fair value through profit or loss, amortized cost or fair value through other comprehensive income. The classification depends on the purpose for which the financial assets were acquired. Management determines the classification of financial assets at initial recognition.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are initially recognized at fair value with changes in fair value recorded in profit or loss.

Amortized cost

Financial assets are classified at amortized cost if both of the following criteria are met and the financial assets are not classified or designated as fair value through profit and loss: 1) the Company's objective for these financial assets is to collect their contractual cash flows, and 2) the asset's contractual cash flows represent 'solely payments of principal and interest'. The Company's cash and loan receivable are recorded at amortized cost as they meet the required criteria.

Fair value through other comprehensive income ("OCI")

For financial assets that are not held for trading, the Company can make an irrevocable election at initial recognition to classify the instruments at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI"), with all subsequent changes in fair value being recognized in other comprehensive income. This election is available for each separate investment. Under this category, fair value changes are recognized in OCI while dividends are recognized in profit or loss. The Company does not have any financial assets designated as FVOCI.

Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are non-derivatives and are recognized initially at fair value, net of transaction costs, and are subsequently stated at amortized cost. Any difference between the amounts originally received, net of transaction costs, and the redemption value is recognized in profit or loss over the period to maturity using the effective interest method.

Financial liabilities are classified as current or non-current based on their maturity date. Financial liabilities include accounts payable and accrued liabilities.

Fair value hierarchy

Fair value measurements of financial instruments are required to be classified using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of inputs in making the measurements. The levels of the fair value hierarchy are defined as follows.

Level 1 – Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 – Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data.

Capital stock

Proceeds received on the issuance of units, consisting of common shares and warrants, are allocated first to common shares based on estimated fair value of the common shares at the time the units are priced, and any excess is allocated to warrants.

Shares issued as consideration for goods or services provided to those other than employees or others providing similar services are measured at the fair value of the goods or services received, except where the fair value cannot be measured reliably, in which case they are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments granted.

Loss per share

Basic loss per share is calculated by dividing the loss available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of shares outstanding in the period. For all periods presented, the loss available to common shareholders equals the reported loss. Diluted loss per share is calculated by the treasury stock method. Under the treasury stock method, the weighted average number of shares outstanding for the calculation of diluted loss per share assumes that the proceeds to be received on the exercise of dilutive share options and warrants are used to repurchase common shares at the average market price during the period. In the Company's case, diluted loss per share is the same as basic loss per share, as the effects of including all outstanding options and warrants would be anti-dilutive.

Income taxes

The Company uses the balance sheet method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using substantively enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Deferred income tax assets also result from unused loss carry-forwards, resource related pools and other deductions. A deferred tax asset is recognized for unused tax losses, tax credits and deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be utilized.

Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

8. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Financial instruments

Cash, accounts receivable, loan receivable and accounts payable and accrued liabilities are carried at amortized cost. The Company considers that the carrying amount of these financial assets and liabilities measured at amortized cost to approximate their fair value due to the short-term nature of the financial instruments.

Fair value estimates of financial instruments are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant information about financial markets and specific financial instruments. As these estimates are subjective in nature, involving uncertainties and matters of significant judgment, they cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions can significantly affect estimated fair values.

Financial risk factors

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of potential loss to the Company if the counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its liquid financial assets, including cash and receivables. The Company limits exposure to credit risk on liquid financial assets through maintaining its cash with high-credit quality financial institutions. As the Company's policy is to limit cash holdings to instruments issued by a major Canadian bank and an international financial institution, the credit risk is considered by management to be negligible. The Company considers credit risk with respect to these amounts to be low.

The Company is also exposed to significant credit risk on its accounts receivable and loan receivable balance. The carrying amount of these financial assets represent the maximum credit exposure. As at March 31, 2021, the Company had a loan receivable from Rix (Note 4). Subsequent to March 31, the Company acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares of Rix (Note 10). The loan receivable will be settled between the two entities from proceeds generated in Rix.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to pay financial instrument liabilities as they come due. As at March 31, 2021, the Company had working capital of $2,170,453. The Company's financial obligations are limited to accounts payable and accrued liabilities, all of which have contractual maturities of less than a year.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in market interest rates. The Company's financial assets and financial liabilities are not exposed to interest rate risk due to their short-term nature and maturity. The Company is not exposed to interest rate risk as at March 31, 2021.

8. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT (cont'd...)

Financial risk factors (cont'd...)

Foreign currency risk

The Company's has engaged a number of vendors in Europe as that is where the main business activities of the Company are held. As such, the Company is exposed to foreign currency risk. Fluctuations in the exchange rate between the Canadian dollar with the Euro and UK Pound Sterling may have an adverse effect on the Company's business and costs to proceed with preferred vendors.

As at March 31, 2021, the Company's net foreign denominated financial assets are as follows:

	Foreign currency		Canadian dollar equivalent
Euro	€	14,170	$	20,914
UK Pound Sterling	£	19,128	$	33,162

Based on the above net exposures, a 5% change in the Canadian dollar to Euro and the Canadian dollar to UK Pound Sterling would impact the Company's net loss by approximately $1,050 and $1,650, respectively. As at March 31, 2021, the Company has not hedged its exposure to currency fluctuations. The Company assessed its financial currency risk as low as at March 31, 2021.

9. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Company's capital management policy is to maintain a strong but flexible capital structure that optimizes the cost of capital, creditor and market confidence while sustaining the future development of the business.

The Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions. The Company's capital structure includes shareholder's equity of $2,170,453 as at March 31, 2021. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may from time to time issue shares, seek debt financing and adjust its capital spending to manage current and working capital requirements. The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

10. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent to the year ended March 31, 2021, the Company:

- On April 16, 2021, issued 10,000,000 common shares to acquire all of the issued and outstanding common shares of Rix. After completion of the transaction, the shareholders of Rix held approximately 99.99% of the Company. Reverse Takeover

On April 16, 2021, the Company issued 10,000,000 common shares to acquire all of the issued and outstanding common shares of Rix.GG Europe Ltd. ("Rix"). After completion of the transaction, the shareholders of Rix held approximately 99.99% of the Company. Accordingly, Rix is considered to have acquired the Company with the transaction being accounted for as a reverse takeover of the Company by Rix shareholders (the "RTO").

As Rix is deemed to be the acquirer for accounting purposes, the consolidated financial statements of the Company for the period ended August 31, 2021 include its assets and liabilities and operations. COVID-19

Since January 2020, the outbreak of the novel strain of coronavirus, specifically identified as "COVID-19", has resulted in governments worldwide enacting emergency measures to combat the spread of the virus. These measures, which include the implementation of travel bans, self-imposed quarantine periods and physical distancing, have caused material disruption to business globally resulting in an economic slowdown. Global equity markets have experienced significant volatility. The duration and enduring impact of the COVID-19 outbreak is unknown at this time, as is the efficacy of the government and central bank interventions. It is not possible to reliably estimate the length and severity of these developments and the impact on the financial results and condition of the Company in future periods.

The Company have tailored operations within its gaming division to comply with government health measures. Although the Company's business is largely conducted online, several in-person esports tournaments Rix could participate in have been cancelled due to public health restrictions.

The Company has entered into an agreement with Research Capital Corporation (the "Agent") to act as lead agent and sole bookrunner for the Company in connection with the initial public offering ("Offering") of the Company and concurrent listing of the common shares in the capital of the Company on the Canadian Securities Exchange.

The proposed offering will be for a minimum of 6,666,667 units (each a "Unit") at an offering price of $0.45 per Unit ("Minimum Offering") to a maximum of 7,777,778 Units. Accounting Policies and Estimates

Financial Risk Management

The Company's financial instruments are exposed to the following risks:

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of potential loss to the Company if the counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its liquid financial assets, including cash and accounts receivable. The Company limits exposure to credit risk on liquid financial assets through maintaining its cash with high-credit quality financial institutions. As the Company's policy is to limit cash holdings to instruments issued by a major Canadian bank and an international financial institution, the credit risk is considered by management to be negligible. Accounts receivable include amounts due from the Government of Canada for input tax credits and prize money on tournament winnings. The Company considers these collectible in the short term and credit risk with respect to these amounts to be low.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to pay financial instrument liabilities as they come due. As at February 28, 2022, the Company had working capital of $743,474 (Unaudited) (August 31, 2021 - $2,003,621). The Company's financial obligations are limited to accounts payable and accrued liabilities, all of which have contractual maturities of less than a year.

The Company's financial assets and financial liabilities are not exposed to interest rate risk due to their short-term nature and maturity. The Company is not exposed to interest rate risk as at February 28, 2022 and August 31, 2021.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

For the six months ended February 28, 2022 and period from September 16, 2020 to August 31, 2021

Foreign currency risk

The Company's has engaged a number of vendors in Europe as that's where the main business activities of the Company are held. As such, the Company is exposed to foreign currency risk. Fluctuations in the exchange rate between the Canadian dollar with the Euro and UK Pound Sterling may have an adverse effect on the Company's business and costs to proceed with preferred vendors.

As at February 28, 2022 (Unaudited), the Company's net foreign denominated financial assets are as follows:

	Foreign currency		Canadian dollar equivalent
Euro	€	30,350	$	43,212
UK Pound Sterling	£	16,698	$	28,427

Based on the above net exposures, a 5% change in the Canadian dollar to Euro and the Canadian dollar to UK Pound Sterling would increase the Company's comprehensive loss by approximately $2,160 and $1,420, respectively. As at February 28, 2022, the Company has not hedged its exposure to currency fluctuations. The Company assessed its financial currency risk as moderate as at February 28, 2022.

As at August 31, 2021, the Company's net foreign denominated financial assets are as follows:

Euro	€	50,911	$	75,888
UK Pound Sterling	£	33,575	$	57,956

NOTES TO THE CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited - Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

FOR THE SIX MONTHS ENDED FEBRUARY 28, 2022

AND PERIOD FROM SEPTEMBER 16, 2020 TO FEBRUARY 28, 2021

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND GOING CONCERN

X1 ESPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT LTD. (with its subsidiaries, collectively, the “Company” or “X1”) is an esports-focused portfolio company. X1 was incorporated under the Company Act (British Columbia) on January 9, 2020. The Company name was changed from 1236705 B.C. LTD. on April 23, 2021. The Company completed a reverse takeover transaction on April 16, 2021, as further described below, and the continuing entity for accounting purposes was incorporated under the Companies Act (Malta) on September 16, 2020. The Company maintains its registered office at Royal Centre, 1500 – 1055 West Georgia Street, PO Box 11117, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada V6E 4N7. The Company’s principal place of business is 615 – 800 West Pender Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada V6C 2V6.

On April 23, 2021, the Company completed a share consolidation on the basis of 1 new common share for 2 old common shares. All share and per share information have been amended retrospectively to reflect the share consolidation.

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard (“IAS”) 34, Interim Financial Reporting, on a going concern basis, which contemplates that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business.

The Company reported a net loss for the six month period ended February 28, 2022 of $1,379,966 (September 16, 2020 to February 28, 2021 – $323,726) and had an accumulated deficit of $3,394,588 (August 31, 2021 – $2,014,622). The Company’s ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to raise funds primarily through the issuance of shares or achieve profitable operations. The outcome of these matters cannot be predicted at this time. If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing, management may be required to curtail certain expenses. These material uncertainties may cast significant doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. Accordingly, these condensed consolidated interim financial statements do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classifications of assets and liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. Such adjustments could be material.

Reverse Takeover

On April 16, 2021, the Company issued 10,000,000 common shares to acquire all of the issued and outstanding common shares of Rix.GG Europe Ltd. (“Rix”). After completion of the transaction, the shareholders of Rix held approximately 99.99% of the Company. Accordingly, Rix is considered to have acquired the Company with the transaction being accounted for as a reverse takeover of the Company by Rix shareholders (the “RTO”) (Note 3).

As Rix is deemed to be the acquirer for accounting purposes, these condensed consolidated interim financial statements represent a continuation of the financial position and financial performance of Rix prior to the acquisition of X1. The results of operations of X1 and its pre-existing subsidiaries are included from April 16, 2021, the deemed date of acquisition of X1, onwards. The Company’s condensed consolidated interim financial statements are presented from the date of September 16, 2020 being the incorporation date of Rix.

COVID-19

Since January 2020, the outbreak of the novel strain of coronavirus, specifically identified as “COVID-19”, has resulted in governments worldwide enacting emergency measures to combat the spread of the virus. These measures, which include the implementation of travel bans, self-imposed quarantine periods and physical distancing, have caused material disruption to business globally resulting in an economic slowdown. Global equity markets have experienced significant volatility. The duration and enduring impact of the COVID-19 outbreak is unknown at this time, as is the efficacy of the government and central bank interventions. It is not possible to reliably estimate the length and severity of these developments and the impact on the financial results and condition of the Company in future periods.

The Company has tailored operations within its gaming division to comply with government health measures. Although the Company’s business is largely conducted online, several in-person esports tournaments Rix could participate in have been cancelled due to public health restrictions.

(Unaudited - Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

FOR THE SIX MONTHS ENDED FEBRUARY 28, 2022

AND PERIOD FROM SEPTEMBER 16, 2020 TO FEBRUARY 28, 2021

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

Statement of compliance

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IAS 34, and do not include all of the information required for full annual financial statements prepared using International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"). Accordingly, these condensed consolidated interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's most recent annual audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended August 31, 2021.

The accounting policies and methods of computation applied by the Company in these condensed consolidated interim financial statements are the same as those applied in the Company's consolidated financial statements for the period from September 16, 2020 to August 31, 2021.

Basis of consolidation and presentation

The condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments measured at fair value. In addition, these condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting, except for cash flow information.

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and its wholly controlled subsidiaries. Control exists when the Company has the power, directly or indirectly, to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. The condensed consolidated interim financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its direct wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

The condensed consolidated interim financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries as follows:

Subsidiary	Functional Currency	Jurisdiction
Forward Agency Ltd.	UK Pound Sterling	England and Wales
Mechanics Agency Ltd.	UK Pound Sterling	England and Wales
Rix.GG Europe Ltd.	Euro	Malta

Use of judgments and estimates

The preparation of these condensed consolidated interim financial statements requires management to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the condensed consolidated interim financial statements and the reported expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the actual results. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

FOR THE SIX MONTHS ENDED FEBRUARY 28, 2022

AND PERIOD FROM SEPTEMBER 16, 2020 TO FEBRUARY 28, 2021

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION (cont'd...)

Use of judgments and estimates (cont'd...)

The key areas of judgment applied in the preparation of the condensed consolidated interim financial statements that could result in a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities are as follows:

- Going concern

The assessment of the Company's ability to continue as a going concern and to raise sufficient funds to pay its ongoing operating expenditures and to meet its liabilities for the ensuing year, involves significant judgment based on historical experience and other factors, including expectation of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

- Functional currency

The functional currency of the Company and its subsidiaries is the currency of their respective primary economic environment, and the Company reconsiders the functional currency if there is a change in events and conditions, which determined the primary economic environment.

3. ACQUISITION OF RIX.GG EUROPE LTD.

As described in Note 1, the Company acquired Rix effective April 16, 2021. For accounting purposes, the transaction has been accounted for as an RTO with Rix deemed to be the accounting acquiror and X1, the legal acquiror deemed to be the accounting acquiree. At the date of acquisition X1 did not meet the definition of a business and the transaction has been accounted for as an acquisition of net assets, rather than a business combination. The transaction is accounted for in accordance with IFRS 2 Share-based payments and IFRS 3 Business Combinations ("IFRS 3"). As the Company did not qualify as a business according to the definition in IFRS 3 as there were no substantive processes in place, the acquisition does not constitute a business combination; rather, it is treated as an issuance of shares by Rix for the net liabilities of the Company with X1 as the continuing entity.

As a result of this transaction, a reverse takeover transaction cost of $200,605 has been recorded. This reflects the difference between the estimated fair value of Rix's shares deemed to have been issued to X1's shareholders, plus transaction costs incurred, less the net fair value of the assets of X1 acquired.

In accordance with reverse acquisition accounting:

- The assets and liabilities of Rix are included in the statement of financial position at their carrying values.
- The net liabilities of the Company have been measured at their fair value of $200,604.

Fair value of share-based consideration allocated:
Deemed issuance of 1 common share	$ 1

Identifiable net liabilities acquired:

7. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Financial instruments

Cash, accounts receivable, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities are carried at amortized cost. The Company considers that the carrying amount of these financial assets and liabilities measured at amortized cost to approximate their fair value due to the short-term nature of the financial instruments.

Fair value estimates of financial instruments are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant information about financial markets and specific financial instruments. As these estimates are subjective in nature, involving uncertainties and matters of significant judgment, they cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions can significantly affect estimated fair values.

Financial risk factors

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of potential loss to the Company if the counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its liquid financial assets, including cash and accounts receivable. The Company limits exposure to credit risk on liquid financial assets through maintaining its cash with high-credit quality financial institutions. As the Company's policy is to limit cash holdings to instruments issued by a major Canadian bank and an international financial institution, the credit risk is considered by management to be negligible. Accounts receivable include amounts due from the Government of Canada for input tax credits and prize money on tournament winnings. The Company considers these collectible in the short term and credit risk with respect to these amounts to be low.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to pay financial instrument liabilities as they come due. As at February 28, 2022, the Company had working capital of $743,474 (August 31, 2021 – $2,003,621). The Company's financial obligations are limited to accounts payable and accrued liabilities, all of which have contractual maturities of less than a year.

AND PERIOD FROM SEPTEMBER 16, 2020 TO FEBRUARY 28, 2021

7. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT (cont'd...)

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in market interest rates. The Company's financial assets and financial liabilities are not exposed to interest rate risk due to their short-term nature and maturity. The Company is not exposed to interest rate risk as at February 28, 2022.

Foreign currency risk

The Company's has engaged a number of vendors in Europe as that's where the main business activities of the Company are held. As such, the Company is exposed to foreign currency risk. Fluctuations in the exchange rate between the Canadian dollar with the Euro and UK Pound Sterling may have an adverse effect on the Company's business and costs to proceed with preferred vendors.

As at February 28, 2022, the Company's net foreign denominated financial assets are as follows:

	Foreign currency		Canadian dollar equivalent
Euro	€	30,350	$ 43,212
UK Pound Sterling	£	16,698	$ 28,427

Based on the above net exposures, a 5% change in the Canadian dollar to Euro and the Canadian dollar to UK Pound Sterling would increase the Company's comprehensive loss by approximately $2,160 and $1,420, respectively. As at February 28, 2022, the Company has not hedged its exposure to currency fluctuations. The Company assessed its financial currency risk as moderate as at February 28, 2022.

8. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Company's capital management policy is to maintain a strong but flexible capital structure that optimizes the cost of capital, creditor and market confidence while sustaining the future development of the business.

The Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions. The Company's capital structure includes shareholders' equity of $802,590 (August 31, 2021 – $2,003,621). In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may from time to time issue shares, seek debt financing and adjust its capital spending to manage current and working capital requirements. The Company did not change its capital management policy during the six month period ended February 28, 2022. The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

9. SEGMENTED INFORMATION
