

Military Metals Announces Appointment of Mark Saxon to Its Board of Directors

Vancouver, British Columbia--(Newsfile Corp. - November 7, 2024) - Military Metals Corp. (CSE: MILI) (OTCQB: MILIF) (FSE: QN90) (the "Company" or "Military") is pleased to announce that Mark Saxon has been appointed to its Board of Directors (the "Board") as an independent director. Mr. Saxon's appointment increases the Board to a total of five seats.

Scott Eldridge, Chief Executive Officer of the Company, commented, "On behalf of the board and our shareholders I am excited to welcome Mark Saxon to our board of directors. Mark has an extensive technical background in critical metals in combination with decades of capital markets experience in both Canada and Australia. He is a welcome addition to our team and will help deliver on our strategy of contributing to global antimony markets through the exploration and development of brownfields projects in multiple countries. He was the QP for the recent NI 43-101 report on the exciting Sunday Creek antimony-gold discovery of Southern Cross Gold (ASX: SXG) and Mawson Gold (TSXV: MAW)."

Mr. Saxon has 30 years of experience in exploration and resource geology, with the past decade in CEO and leadership roles in Canadian and Australian public companies. After graduating from the University of Melbourne in 1991 with a First Class Bachelor of Science (Honours) in geology, he has worked globally with a particular focus on critical raw materials and their supply chains. He brings a very strong track record of discovery with T2 Metals Corp, Mawson Gold Ltd, Tasman Metals Ltd, and Tinka Resources Ltd across rare earth elements, lithium, base metals and gold.

Military has granted Mark Saxon 200,000 common share stock options at $0.95 per share. The stock options, which vest immediately, are for a period of 5 years and are subject to a 4 month hold period pursuant to the rules of the CSE.
