About Cannibble

Cannibble develops proprietary formulas for powder-based edibles that are subsequently enhanced with active cannabinoids, marketed under our brand name, The Pelicann™. Cannibble has produced over 100 product SKUs, of which 32 have been manufactured.

Cannibble's IP and unique know-how is protected by its formulation. Our unique process technology is to introduce oils and liquids to a powder mix and get a perfectly dried and even distribution of active ingredients in the final product without changing the powder's texture.
