ADVANCE NOTICE POLICY

INTRODUCTION

Molten Metals Corp. (the “Company”) is committed to: (i) facilitating an orderly and efficient process for holding annual general meetings or, where the need arises, special shareholder meetings; (ii) ensuring that all shareholders receive adequate notice of the director nominations and sufficient information with respect to all director nominees; and (iii) allowing shareholders to register an informed vote on director elections, having been afforded reasonable time for appropriate deliberation.

The purpose of this Advance Notice Policy (the “Policy”) is to provide shareholders, directors and management of the Company with a clear framework for nomination of directors. This Policy fixes a deadline by which holders of record of common shares of the Company must submit director nominations to the Company prior to any annual or applicable special meeting of shareholders and sets forth the information that a shareholder must include in the notice to the Company for the notice to be in proper written form in order for any director nominee to be eligible for election at any annual or special meeting of shareholders.

It is the position of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of the Company that this Policy is in the best interests of the Company, its shareholders and other stakeholders. This Policy will be subject to an annual review and will reflect changes as required by securities regulatory authorities or applicable stock exchanges, or so as to meet industry standards.

NOMINATIONS OF DIRECTORS

1. Only persons who are nominated in accordance with the following procedures shall be eligible for election as directors of the Company at a meeting of shareholders of the Company. Nominations of persons for election to the Board may be made at any annual meeting of shareholders, or at any special meeting of shareholders if one of the purposes for which the special meeting was called was the election of directors. Nominations may be made only:
  - (a) by or at the direction of the Board, including pursuant to a notice of meeting;
  - (b) by or at the direction or request of one or more shareholders pursuant to a valid “proposal” made in accordance with the provisions of the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) (the “Act”), or a requisition of the shareholders made in accordance with the provisions of the Act; or
  - (c) by any person (a “Nominating Shareholder”): (i) who, at the close of business on the Notice Date (as defined below) and at the close of business on the record date for notice of such meeting, is entered in the securities register of the Company as a holder of one or more shares carrying the right to vote at such meeting or who beneficially owns shares that are entitled to be voted at such meeting; and (ii) who complies with the notice procedures set forth below in this Policy.

2. In addition to any other requirements under applicable laws, for a nomination pursuant to this Policy to be valid, the Nominating Shareholder must have given notice thereof that is both timely (in accordance with paragraph 3 below) and in proper written form (in accordance with paragraph 4 below) to the Chief Executive Officer, or if the Company does not have a Chief Executive Officer, President or other senior officer or director, of the Company at the registered office of the Company.
3. To be timely, a Nominating Shareholder's notice to the Chief Executive Officer, other senior officer or director of the Company must be made:
  - (a) in the case of an annual meeting of shareholders, not less than 30 days prior to the date of the annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the annual meeting of shareholders is to be held on a date that is less than 50 days after the date (the "Notice Date") on which the first public announcement (as defined below) of the date of the annual meeting was made, notice by the Nominating Shareholder may be made not later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the Notice Date; and
  - (b) in the case of a special meeting (which is not also an annual meeting) of shareholders called for the purpose of electing directors (whether or not called for other purposes), not later than the close of business on the fifteenth (15th) day following the day on which the first public announcement (as defined below) of the date of the special meeting of shareholders was made.
4. For greater certainty, the time periods for the giving of notice by a Nominating Shareholder as aforesaid shall, in all cases, be determined based on the date of the applicable annual meeting or special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. In the event of any adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting or special meeting or the announcement thereof the period for giving a nominating shareholder's notice shall be extended by a period equal to the number of calendar days by which the meeting is postponed or adjourned.
5. To be in proper written form, a Nominating Shareholder's notice to the Chief Executive Officer, other senior officer or director of the Company must set forth:
  - (a) as to each person whom the Nominating Shareholder proposes to nominate for election as a director: (A) the name, age, business address and residential address of the person; (B) the principal occupation or employment of the person, both present and within the five years preceding the notice; (C) the class or series and number of shares in the capital of the Company which are controlled or which are owned beneficially or of record by the person as of the record date for the meeting of shareholders (if such date shall then have been made publicly available and shall have occurred) and as of the date of such notice; and (D) any other information relating to the person that would be required to be disclosed in a dissident's proxy circular in connection with solicitations of proxies for election of directors pursuant to the Act and Applicable Securities Laws (as defined below); and

- (b) as to the Nominating Shareholder giving the notice, full particulars regarding any proxy, contract, agreement, arrangement, understanding or relationship pursuant to which such Nominating Shareholder has a right to vote or direct the voting of any shares of the Company and any other information relating to such Nominating Shareholder that would be required to be made in a dissident's proxy circular in connection with solicitations of proxies for election of directors pursuant to the Act and Applicable Securities Laws (as defined below).

The Company may require any proposed nominee to furnish such other information as may reasonably be required by the Company to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as an independent director of the Company or that could be material to a reasonable shareholder's understanding of the independence and/or qualifications, or lack thereof, of such proposed nominee.

- 6. In addition, to be considered timely and in proper written form, a Nominating Shareholder's notice to the Chief Executive Officer, other senior officer or director of the Company shall be promptly updated and supplemented, if necessary, so that the information provided or required under this Policy to be provided in such notice shall be true and correct as of the record date for the meeting.
- 7. No person shall be eligible for election as a director of the Company unless nominated in accordance with the provisions of this Policy; provided, however, that nothing in this Policy shall be deemed to preclude discussion by a shareholder (as distinct from the nomination of directors) at a meeting of shareholders of any matter that is properly before such meeting pursuant to the provisions of the Act or the discretion of the Chairman of the meeting. The Chairman of the meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination was made in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Policy and, if any proposed nomination is not in compliance with this Policy, to declare that such defective nomination shall be disregarded.

8. For purposes of this Policy:
