DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Westmount Minerals Corp. (the "Company") was incorporated on November 27, 2020, under the laws of the Province of British Columbia. The address of the Company's corporate office and principal place of business is Suite 520, 470 Granville Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. The Company's principal business activities include the acquisition and exploration of mineral property assets. As at March 31, 2022, the Company had not yet determined whether the Company's mineral properties contain ore reserves that are economically recoverable.

Corporate Summary

Since incorporation, Westmount has executed two Mineral Property Option Agreements which enables the Company to earn a 100% interest in the (4,800 hectare) Douay East Property ("the Property") and the (3,700 hectare) Bell Gold Property, both located approximately 32 kilometers south of Matagami in the Casa Berardi Deformation Zone within the greater Abitibi Greenstone Belt region of Quebec, one of the most productive greenstone belts in the world.

The Property has been the subject of historical exploration programs mostly completed in the 1980's. Ground-based exploration has been limited to the northern part of the Property and includes magnetic, electromagnetic, and induced polarization surveys. Twenty three diamond drill holes were completed with 13 holes returning anomalous gold assays.

The ground adjacent to the Property, to the north, east, and west, all part of the Casa Berardi Deformation Zone, is covered by active exploration claims. Three adjacent properties contain reported mineral resources and one of these properties has reported gold production. These include the Douay Gold Project located to the west of the Douay East Project and operated by Maple Gold Mines Ltd. ("Maple"), the Vezza Gold Project owned by Nottaway Resources Inc. ("Nottaway") located to the northeast of the Douay East Project, and the N2 Gold Project located to the east of the Douay East Project and owned by Wallbridge Mining Company Limited ("Wallbridge"). The Qualified Person responsible for this MD&A has not verified the information on the adjacent properties and the information is not necessarily indicative of the mineralization on the property.

During April 2021, Westmount completed a high resolution airborne magnetic survey over the Property, identifying priority target areas potentially favourable to host gold mineralization. Subsequent to its IPO, March 17, 2022, the Company implemented and completed a soil sampling program wherein a total of 1,016 samples were collected and have been delivered to the laboratory for Soil Gas Hydrocarbon ("SGH") analyses and interpretation. The SGH geochemical exploration program is Phase 1 of a 2 Phase exploration program planned for 2022 and consists of 3 target areas on the property comprising 3 separate sampling grids. The targets are structures and structural complexities inferred from the interpretation of the 2021 high resolution airborne magnetic survey and which are assumed to be gold bearing based on historical drilling on the property as well as regional geological compilation. Once the Company has received the results and completed interpretation, drill targets are expected to be identified and a drill program will follow.

Management Discussion and Analysis

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022

LIQUIDITY

As at March 31, 2022, Westmount had working capital of $324,693 (2021: $167,976) which included a cash balance of $436,787.

The Company does not currently own or have an interest in, any producing mineral properties, does not derive any revenues from operations, and is not exposed to commodity price risk. As a result, the Company will rely on completion of future equity transactions such as equity offerings. This may also affect the Company's liquidity and its ability to meet its ongoing obligations.

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company's policy is to ensure that it has sufficient cash to allow it to meet its liabilities when they become due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Company's reputation. The key to success in managing liquidity is the degree of certainty in the cash flow projections. If future cash flows are fairly uncertain, the liquidity risk increases.

The recent outbreak of the novel coronavirus COVID-19, which was declared a pandemic by the World Health Organization on March 11, 2020, has led to adverse impacts on the Canadian and global economies, disruptions of financial markets, and created uncertainty regarding potential impacts to the Company's supply chain and operations. The COVID-19 pandemic has impacted and could further impact the Company's operations and the operations of the Company's suppliers and vendors as a result of quarantines, facility closures, and travel and logistics restrictions. The extent to which the COVID-19 pandemic impacts the Company's business, results of operations and financial condition will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted, including, but not limited to the duration, spread, severity, and impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on the Company's suppliers and vendors and the remedial actions and stimulus measures adopted by local and federal governments, and to what extent normal economic and operating conditions can resume. The management team is closely following the progression of COVID-19 and its potential impact on the Company. Even after the COVID-19 pandemic has subsided, the Company may experience adverse impacts to its business as a result of any economic recession or depression that has occurred or may occur in the future. Therefore, the Company cannot reasonably estimate the impact at this time our business, liquidity, capital resources and financial results.

The Company is not expected to be profitable during the ensuing twelve months and therefore must rely on securing additional funds from either equity financing or loan from shareholders or directors for cash consideration, and while the Company has been successful at raising funds in the past, there is no assurance that it will continue to generate sufficient funds for future operations.

CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company does not generate cash flows from operating activities. The Company is not expected to be profitable during the ensuing twelve months and therefore must rely on securing additional funds from either equity financing or loan from shareholders or directors for cash consideration, and while the Company has been successful at raising funds in the past, there is no assurance that it will continue to generate sufficient funds for future operations.

Objectives when managing capital are to:

- a) Provide an adequate return to shareholders;
- b) Provide adequate and efficient funding for operations;
- c) Continue the development of its business and support any expansion plans;
- d) Allow flexibility to investment in other revenues; and
- e) Maintain a capital structure, which optimizes the cost of capital at acceptable risk.

In the management of capital, all accounts are included in shareholders' deficiency. As at March 31, 2022, the Company had no bank indebtedness.

The Company is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements and there has been no change with respect to the overall capital risk management strategy during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make certain estimates, judgements and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of expenses during the reporting period. Actual outcomes could differ from these estimates. These financial statements include estimates, which, by their nature, are uncertain. The impacts of such estimates are pervasive throughout the financial statements and may require accounting adjustments based on future occurrences. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the fiscal year in which the estimate is revised and future years if the revisions affects both current and future years. These estimates are based on historical experience, current and future economic conditions and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Significant assumptions about the future and other sources of estimation uncertainty that management has made at the financial position reporting date, that could result in a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities, in the event that actual results differ from assumption made, relate to, but are not limited to, the following:

Significant accounting estimates

- i. The measurement of deferred income tax assets and liabilities
- ii. The measurement of share-based payments

Significant accounting judgements

- i. The evaluation of the Company's ability to continue as a going concern
