The Company's financial statements and the financial information contained in this MD&A were prepared in accordance with IFRS. COMPANY OVERVIEW

Carmanah Minerals Corp. ("Carmanah" or the "Company") is incorporated on October 30, 2020 under the British Columbia Corporations Act of the Province of British Columbia.

The address of the Company and the registered office is 1100 - 1111 Melville Street, Vancouver, British Columbia V6E 3V6. The address of the records office is 200 - 3310 South Service Road, Burlington, Ontario L7N 3M6.

GOING CONCERN

This MD&A and the Financial Statements have been prepared on the basis that the Company will remain a going concern which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business for the Company's next fiscal year.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon successful results from its mineral property exploration activities and its ability to attain profitable operations and generate funds there from and/or raise equity capital or borrowings sufficient to meet current and future obligations. Although the Company has been successful in the past in obtaining financing, there is no assurance that it will be able to obtain adequate financing in the future or that such financing will be on terms advantageous to the Company. Therefore, this indicates a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

As a result of the above, realization values may be substantially different from the carrying values shown and the Company's financial statements do not give effect to adjustments that would be necessary to the carrying values and classification of the assets and liabilities should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

OVERALL PERFORMANCE

The following discussion of the Company's financial performance is based on the financial statements for the year ended May 31, 2024.

The statement of financial position as of May 31, 2024 indicates a cash position of $65,675, and total current assets of $160,867. Total current assets comprise primarily of cash in bank accounts, receivables, prepaid expenses, and due from related party. The decrease in cash as at May 31, 2024 is attributed to the loss from operating activities, the acquisition of mineral property assets, and advances to a related party for a proposed joint venture.

Current liabilities at May 31, 2024 totaled $130,739 which comprised of trade payables and accrued liabilities. The Company does not have any long-term liabilities as at May 31, 2024. Shareholders' equity, as at May 31, 2024, is comprised of capital stock of $1,472,825, reserves of $573,032 and accumulated deficit of $1,709,959. As at May 31, 2024, working capital, which is current assets less current liabilities, was $30,128. Management believes there is insufficient working capital to maintain the Company's day-to-day operations for the next 12 months. Consequently, the Company will need to raise additional funds through issuance of debt or equity instruments for exploration and evaluation activities related to its mineral property and to fund operations.

OFF-BLANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

The Company has no off-balance sheet arrangements.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Refer to Note 15 of the Company's financial statements for the year ended May 31, 2024.

RISK FACTORS

The Company's business is subject to the risks set out below. Please see the section titled "Risk Factors" in the Company's Prospectus for additional risk factors.

Financing of Existing and Future Operations

With no source of revenue, the Company has negative cash flow from operations and raises funds for operations through equity financings. The Company's ability to raise funds for existing and continuing operations and future exploration and development of its properties cannot be guaranteed.

Mining Industry

The exploration for and development of mineral deposits involves significant risks, which even a combination of careful evaluation, experience and knowledge may not eliminate. While the discovery of an ore body may result in substantial rewards, few properties which are explored are ultimately developed into producing mines. Major expenses may be required to establish ore reserves, to develop metallurgical processes and to construct mining and processing facilities at a particular site. It is impossible to ensure that any exploration programs planned by the Company will result in a profitable commercial mining operation. Whether a mining deposit will be commercially viable depends on a number of factors, some of which are the particular attributes of the deposit, such as size, grade and proximity to infrastructure, as well as metal prices which are highly cyclical and government regulations, including regulations relating to prices, taxes, royalties, land tenure, land use, importing and exporting of minerals and environmental protection.

CARMANAH MINERALS CORP.
MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED MAY 31, 2024 AND 2023
(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

The exact effect of these factors cannot be accurately predicted, but the combination of these factors may result in the Company not receiving an adequate return on invested capital. Mining operations generally involve a high degree of risk. The Company's operations are subject to all the hazards and risks normally encountered in the exploration, development and production of ore, including unusual and unexpected geology formations, rock bursts, cave-ins, flooding and other conditions involved in the drilling and removal of material, any of which could result in damage to, or destruction of, mines and other producing facilities, damage to life or property, environmental damage and possible legal liability. Although adequate precautions to minimize risk will be taken, milling operations are subject to hazards such as equipment failure or failure of retaining dams around tailings disposal areas, which may result in environmental pollution and consequent liability.

The Company's mineral exploration activities are directed towards the search, evaluation and development of mineral deposits. There is no certainty that the expenditures to be made by the Company as described herein will result in discoveries of commercial quantities of ore. There is aggressive competition within the mining industry for the discovery and acquisition of properties considered to have commercial potential. The Company will compete with other interests, many of which have greater financial resources than it will have for the opportunity to participate in promising projects. Significant capital investment is required to achieve commercial production from successful exploration efforts.

Government Regulation

The exploration activities of the Company are subject to various federal, provincial and local laws governing prospecting, development, production, taxes, labour standards and occupational health, mine safety, toxic substance and other matters. Exploration activities are also subject to various federal, provincial and local laws and regulations relating to the protection of the environment. These laws mandate, among other things, the maintenance of air and water quality standards, and land reclamation. These laws also set forth limitations on the generation, transportation, storage and disposal of solid and hazardous waste.

There is no assurance that future changes in environmental regulation, if any, will not adversely affect the Company's operations. Environmental hazards may exist on the properties on which the Company holds interests which are unknown to the Company at present, which have been caused, by previous or existing owners or operators of the properties. Failure to comply with applicable laws, regulations and permitting requirements may result in enforcement actions there under, including orders issued by regulatory or judicial authorities causing operations to cease or be curtailed and may include corrective measures requiring capital expenditures, installation of additional equipment, or remedial actions.
